TO THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

Poor Law Board, Whitehall,
8th June 1863.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR MAJESTY,

We, the Poor Law Board, beg leave to present to Your Majesty the following Report of our proceedings during the past year.

We desire to submit, in the first instance, the following statements showing the condition of pauperism during that period.

The sum of 6,077,927*l.* was expended for the relief of the poor during the year which ended with the 25th of March 1862, being an increase of 298,984*l.* as compared with the sum expended during the preceding year.

The following Table shows the comparison of the expenditure of the years 1860–61 and 1861–62 :—

| Years ended Lady-day. | Expended for Relief of the Poor in England and Wales. | Increase in 1861, as compared with 1860. | Increase per Cent. | Rate per Head on Population. | Increased Rate per Head. |

Note.—The Summary of the Poor Rate Return inserted in the Appendix (page 45 et seq.) sets forth the expenditure, the total of which is shown in the above Table, more in detail. This expenditure comprises, "in-maintenance," column (a); "out-relief," column (b); "maintenance of lunatics in asylums and licensed houses," column (c); "workhouse loans repaid, and interest thereon," column (d); "salaries and rations of officers," column (e); "other expenses of or immediately connected with relief," column (f). Those "other expenses" comprehend the cost incurred for emigration, for extra medical relief and fees, and for the burial of paupers, &c.

The rate per cent. of the increase and decrease in the expenditure for relief, as regards each union-county respectively in England and Wales, is as follows :—

Estimate of the Pauperism of England and Wales.

The persons in receipt of relief in certain parishes incorporated under Gilbert's Act, or in single parishes still under 43d Elizabeth, (the population of such parishes being about 200,000,) are not included in the summaries given in this and the preceding page, no returns having been received from them.

We have, therefore, made an estimate of the number of paupers in the places not included in the above summaries; and for the purpose of showing the average number at one time during each year, we have taken the mean of the numbers in receipt of relief on the 1st of July and the 1st of January respectively.

The result of this estimate for each year from 1849 (being the first year for which it can be given) to 1862 appears in the following Table, which may be taken as exhibiting the pauperism of England and Wales.

The decrease in the average number of paupers of all classes in receipt of relief at one time in 1862, as compared with 1849, is 1·7 per cent.; and as regards able-bodied paupers the decrease in 1862, as compared with 1849, is 4·1 per cent.

Insane Paupers, 1st January 1862.

We have caused the lists of lunatics, idiots, and other persons of unsound mind chargeable to the poor rates on the 1st January 1862, to be tabulated.

It appears from these that in 649 unions and single parishes under Boards of Guardians, there were 34,271 insane paupers, of whom 22,960 were lunatics and 11,311 idiots. The whole number of paupers, inclusive of the insane, was on the same day 946,166.

In regard to the sexes of the insane paupers, it will be seen that 14,936 were males, and 19,335 females.

| Insane Paupers. | Males. | Females. | Total. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Lunatics - - | 9,825 | 13,135 | 22,960 |
| Idiots - - | 5,111 | 6,200 | 11,311 |
| Total - - | 14,936 | 19,335 | 34,271 |

These paupers were maintained in the following establishments; or were lodged with strangers; or resided with their relatives; viz.—

18,318 in County or Borough Lunatic Asylums.
1,193 in Registered Hospitals, or in Licensed Houses.
8,603 in Union or Parish Workhouses.
985 in Lodgings, or Boarded Out.
5,172 Residing with Relatives.

The number of Insane Paupers in each Union-County is set forth, with other particulars, in the Appendix at page 286 et seq.

Expenditure for relief.

The foregoing Statistical Returns as we have already stated, show that the total amount of the expenditure for the relief of the poor in England and Wales for the year ending at Lady-day 1862 has exceeded by 298,984*l.* that of the previous year.

The increase has been general, only five counties showing a decreased rate of expenditure, and it amounts on the average to 5·2 per cent. The principal increase has been in the counties of Warwick, Nottingham, and Derby, and the West Riding of Yorkshire. In the county of Lancaster the rate of increase has been 9·0 per cent., the serious distress which has prevailed in the population connected with the cotton manufacture in that county having only partially commenced at the date to which the statement of the expenditure is made up.

Numbers of persons relieved.

The returns of the number of persons in receipt of relief being made up to a later period, and therefore being more affected by the distress referred to, exhibit a larger amount of increase. The Returns for the whole Kingdom on the 1st of July 1862 and 1st of January 1863 show, as compared with the similar returns for the previous year, an increase in the total number of persons receiving relief, on the former date of 73,736 persons or 8·7 per cent., and on the latter date of 194,120, or 20·5 per cent.

Distress in the cotton manufacturing District.

We insert in the Appendix, page 294, a Table showing the number of persons in receipt of relief in the Unions in Lancashire and the neighbouring counties, which are engaged in the cotton manufacture, in each month of the year. It will be observed from this Table that the numbers increased rapidly from the commencement to nearly the end of the year. The largest number relieved was in the week ending on the 6th of December, when 284,418 persons were chargeable on the poor rates. In addition to these large numbers, to whom relief was afforded from the funds raised by law for the purpose, numbers even larger have been assisted from the contributions which have been so liberally made to the relief of the unemployed operatives, not only from all parts of the United Kingdom, but from India and the Colonial Dependencies, and also from America. Since the 6th December last, the date at which the number of paupers in the distressed Unions was the largest, a gradual weekly reduction in the numbers has occurred, amounting in the whole to the present time to 105,000. It is to be hoped that as the summer is advancing and out-door work may more readily be obtained, and also as the other trades of the country appear to be in a prosperous state, a large number of those now out of work may be gradually absorbed in the general occupations and industry of the country.

We have urged upon the Guardians the wholesome practice of setting to work all able-bodied men to whom relief is afforded, and we believe that this practice has to a great extent been followed. We have found it necessary, however, throughout the manufacturing district of the north-west of England, to acquiesce in a large amount of relief given at variance with the provisions of the General Relief Regulations Order. We insert in the Appendix, p. 39, a report showing how successfully the practice of setting to work the able-bodied men has been carried out in the Lancaster Union. We also insert in the Appendix, p. 44, the several reports on the distress in the Cotton manufacturing districts by our Special Commissioner, Mr. Farnall.

It is satisfactory to state that, notwithstanding the large number of persons who have been thrown out of employment, and the serious and sudden pressure which has thus been cast upon those who were charged with the administration of the poor rates, no cases have been brought under our notice of a failure to supply all destitute persons with adequate relief; and although complaints have in some few instances been made of the conditions on which the Guardians have afforded the relief, as regards the hours of work or the amount of work required, no well founded complaints have been substantiated. We have much pleasure in adding that the working classes in the Cotton manufacturing district have conducted themselves generally with admirable patience under their privations. Some slight and temporary disturbances which occurred at Hyde, Ashton, and Stalybridge, in which, however, the great body of the operatives took no part, were promptly repressed without any serious mischief having been perpetrated.

Union Relief Aid Act, 25 & 26 Vict. c. 100,

In consequence of the very heavy and extraordinary burdens to which the ratepayers in the manufacturing districts have been subjected, temporary relief was rendered to such ratepayers by the Act of the last Session, entitled "An Act to enable Boards "of Guardians of certain Unions to obtain temporary aid to " meet extraordinary demands for relief therein," (25 & 26 Vict. c. 110.) This Act applied to any Unions situate wholly or in part within any of the counties of Lancaster, Chester, or Derby; and it had reference to the expenditure of such Unions in the quarters ended at Michaelmas and Christmas 1862. It will be convenient to recal its principal provisions, which were as follow:—

1. That in case the expenditure of any parish or township in any such Union for either of such quarters should exceed the rate of 3*s.* in the £ per annum on the rateable value of the property of the parish, the excess should be charged to the other parishes of the Union in proportion to the amount of their rateable value.
2. That if the aggregate expenditure of the Union in and about the relief of the poor should exceed the rate of 3*s.* in the £ per annum on the rateable value, the Guardians might, under the authority of the Poor Law Board, borrow a sum sufficient to meet such excess, and charge the same on the common fund of the Union, the loan being repayable by seven annual instalments with interest.
3. That if the aggregate expenditure of the Union in and about the relief of the poor for either of the quarters exceeded 5*s.* in the £ per annum on the rateable value, the Poor Law Board might, on the application of the Guardians, make a general order on the Unions and separate parishes in the same county, whose expenditure for the same quarter had not exceeded the rate of 3*s.* in the £ per annum, to contribute a sum of money to meet such excess in proportion to their annual rateable value.

We have reason to believe that the above-mentioned provisions of the Act have afforded a beneficial relief to the ratepayers of the more distressed parishes in numerous instances.

With regard to the borrowing powers conferred by the Act, two Unions only had reached such an amount of expenditure in the quarter ending at Michaelmas as enabled them to avail themselves of such powers; these were the Preston and Blackburn Unions in the county of Lancaster. We received applications from the Guardians of these Unions for authority to borrow the excess of the expenditure incurred by them in the quarter over 3*s.* in the £ per annum, and after having had the statement of the amount verified by one of our inspectors, we issued orders enabling the Guardians of the former Union to borrow the sum of 3,890*l.*, and of the latter the sum of 3,517*l.* At Christmas the expenditure of several Unions had so far increased that seven Unions in the county of Lancaster, one in the county of Chester, and one in the county of Derby were in a condition to render the provisions of the Act applicable to them; and the Guardians of those Unions accordingly made application to the Board for their authority to raise loans to the extent warranted by the third section of the Act. After the necessary verification of the accounts, we issued orders enabling the Guardians of the under-mentioned Unions to borrow the sums respectively set against their names:—

County of Lancaster.

|---|---|
| Blackburn Union - - | 10,000 |
| Burnley „ - - | 3,189 |
| Haslingden „ - - | 3,063 |

County of Chester.

| Stockport Union - - | 4,763 |

| Glossop Union - - - | 1,200 |

In addition to these proceedings four Unions were in a position to apply to the Poor Law Board to put into force the third provision mentioned above, their expenditure for the Christmas quarter having exceeded the rate of 5*s.* in the £ per annum on their rateable value. These were the Ashton-under-Lyne, the Haslingden, the Preston, and the Glossop Unions; and the Board having in like manner satisfied themselves by due inquiry that the excess of their expenditure above the rate specified in the Act amounted in each case to the under-mentioned sums, issued their orders apportioning such sums among the several Unions and parishes liable under the Act to contribute a sum of money to meet such excess, and directing the same to be paid to the treasurer of the Union on whose behalf the order was issued.

| | £ |

| Ashton-under-Lyne Union - | 8,097 |
| Glossop Union - - | 1,718 |
| Haslingden Union - - | 2,193 |
| Preston Union - - | 7,571 |

In pursuance of these orders the payments required have been made by most of the Unions; but in some few cases in reference to the county of Chester the payments have been objected to on a doubt as to the proper construction of the Act as applicable to the Ashton-under-Lyne Union, and proceedings have been taken and are still pending in the Court of Queen's Bench for the purpose of having that doubt solved.

We insert in the Appendix, page 25, a copy of a Circular Letter which we issued on the 23d August 1862 to the Unions in this district on the subject of the Act referred to. The Act, with some modifications, has been renewed in the present session for the two quarters ending at Lady-day and Midsummer in the year 1863, and we regret to state that from applications already made to us both remedies are still requisite, though not to so large an amount as in the Christmas quarter.

We mentioned in our last Report the alteration made by the Statute 24 & 25 Vict. c. 55. in respect of the basis upon which the contributions of parishes in Unions to the common fund was in future to be calculated. The new provision came into operation at Lady Day in last year, and no complaints have reached us as to its effects, though we expect that it will work more fairly and completely when the proceedings of the assessment committees, formed under the Act of the last session, have been concluded, and the correct valuations of the parishes fully ascertained.

Education of pauper children.

A statement will be found in the Appendix (page 301), showing the daily average number of children attending Workhouse Schools in England and Wales, as well as the number attending District Schools, during the half year ended at Lady-day 1862; and also the amount of money paid, from the Parliamentary Grant, in respect of the salaries of the schoolmasters and schoolmistresses for the year ended at the same period. The following is a summary of this statement:—

It is satisfactory to observe that the average numbers of the children receiving instruction in the year for which this return is made exceed those of the previous year.

During the prevalence of the distress in the cotton manufacturing districts above adverted to it appeared to be very important that provision should be made for the education of the children of persons in receipt of relief, under the 18 & 19 Vict. c. 34., which enables the Guardians to grant relief to parents for this purpose. With a view of promoting the object the Committee of Council on Education have consented to regard all payments made by the Guardians on behalf of the children as equivalent to the same amount of fees paid by the parents themselves, so as to entitle the managers of the schools to capitation grants in respect of such children, and we addressed a Circular Letter to the Boards of Guardians on the subject, and communicated to them this decision. A copy of the letter will be found in the Appendix, page 27.

Vaccination

A summary of the returns of the number of persons vaccinated by the public vaccinators during the year ended at Michaelmas 1862, together with the number of births, is given in the Appendix, p. 337. This summary shows the number of persons vaccinated by the public vaccinators in England and Wales during the year to have been 442,395. The number of cases in which vaccination was reported as successful is 437,693.

The births during the same period were 702,181. We believe that a considerable number of children are vaccinated by private medical practitioners, who omit to register them; and many infants die before they are three months old, the age at which vaccination is usually performed. These cases are not included in the vaccination returns made to the Board, and in some measure account for the total number of children vaccinated being much less than the number of births. There can be no doubt, however, that partly from carelessness or indifference, and partly from prejudice against vaccination, the provisions which the law has made with the object of extending the practice of vaccination have not been so effectual as might be desired.

Small-pox.

The recent severe recurrence of the disease of small-pox in the metropolis having been brought under the notice of the Lords of Her Majesty's Council, they addressed a letter to the different Boards of Guardians in that district on the subject, and also a communication to us, a copy* of which we transmitted to the Guardians, pointing out at the same time the proceedings which should be taken in giving effect to their Lordships' suggestions. We have reason to believe that the Guardians have given great attention to the subject, and as the severity of the disease has been mitigated we trust that much benefit has resulted from the recommendations thus promulgated.

Emigration.

The total number of poor persons who, during the year ending on the 31st of December, have emigrated wholly or partly at the expense of the poor rates, under Orders issued by the Poor Law Board, is 112 only. A statement is inserted in the Appendix (p. 325) showing the parishes from which they have emigrated, and the colonies to which they have been sent.

New Unions.

We adverted in our last Report to the Unions which we had then recently formed in the West Riding of Yorkshire. We have since issued Orders for the establishment of separate Boards of Guardians for two important townships, namely, Hunslet and Holbeck, which form part of the large parish of Leeds, and for the formation of the townships of Bramley and Gildersome, into a Union termed "The Bramley Union." For the particulars we refer to the statement in the Appendix, p. 334.

These Orders extend the proceedings which we have taken for bringing under the provisions of the Poor Law Amendment Act the administration of relief to the poor in a district which had hitherto been left out of their operation in consequence of difficulties connected with the existence of some incorporations under Gilbert's Act in that neighbourhood. The new Unions would have been formed in a more satisfactory manner if some of the townships now in those Incorporations could have been added to them; and we observe that the Guardians of one of those Unions have lately brought under the attention of Parliament the inconveniences which result from the continuance of those Incorporations.

We have also formed a new Union in South Wales of six parishes detached from two existing Unions (the Cardiff and Merthyr Tydfil Unions), in which the population had so largely increased as to render a new and separate Union more convenient for the good administration of relief to the poor in the district. The particulars of the new Union, termed the "Pontypridd Union," will be found in the Appendix, p. 334.

Extra-parochial places.

Several places formerly extra-parochial have been, by orders of the Board, added to the adjoining Unions, a list of which appears in the Appendix, p. 328. A question has been raised as to the power of the Board to issue such orders, and was brought before the Courts of Queen's Bench and Exchequer in Hilary Term and in Trinity Term of the present year. In both cases the Court held that the order had been legally issued. See E. P. Boteler, 32 L.J.R.M.C. 91, and The Overseers of Staple Inn v. The Guardians of the Poor of the Holborn Union, 9 Jur. 652.

Workhouse Chaplain. Power of the Board to remove him.

In the Sudbury Union, in consequence of serious differences which had arisen between the Board of Guardians and the Chaplain of the Workhouse, we deemed it necessary to require him to resign. This he refused to do, and we were compelled to issue an order for his removal, and for the appointment of his successor by the Guardians. He disputed the power of the Board to remove a Chaplain, and applied to the Court of Queen's Bench in last Hilary Term for a certiorari to bring up the order of the Board to be quashed. But that Court, after hearing counsel in support of the application, refused the rule. The Guardians proceeded to appoint a successor, but the late chaplain, being incumbent of the parish in which the Union Workhouse is situated, prohibited the newly appointed chaplain from exercising the duties of his office in the Workhouse. As this prohibition was disregarded, he took proceedings in the Episcopal Court of Ely for a breach of ecclesiastical law, and the cause having been removed into the Court of Arches, the judge of that Court, Dr. Lushington, dismissed the cause, holding that the chaplain of a Workhouse appointed to perform the duties assigned to him by the Poor Law Commissioners in their General Order did not require the consent of the incumbent of the parish in which the Workhouse is situated to enable him to do so. See Molyneux v. Bagshaw, 9 Jur. (n. s.) 553.

New workhouses.

We have issued Orders for the erection of new workhouses for several Unions, according to plans which we have approved under our seal; and we have likewise approved of plans for the enlargement and improvement of the workhouses of various other Unions or Parishes, a list of which is given in the Appendix, pp. 326–7.

New Statutes affecting the administration of relief to the poor.

Besides the Act for affording temporary aid to the Unions in the manufacturing district to which we have already adverted, five Acts were passed in the last session of Parliament, the provisions of which either wholly or in part are connected with the administration of the laws for the relief of the poor, 25 & 26 Vict. cc. 43, 61, 103, 111, and 113. We have explained in circular letters the subjects and provisions of most of these Acts so fully that we need do little more than refer to the letters which are inserted in the Appendix, p. 26.

Education of pauper children. 25 & 26 Vict. c. 43.

The first of them is "The Act to provide for the education "and maintenance of pauper children in certain schools and "institutions;" 25 & 26 Vict. c. 43.

This Act enables the Guardians to contract with the managers of any school supported wholly or in part by voluntary subscriptions, and certified by the Poor Law Board as fit for the purpose, for sending to the school children chargeable upon the poor rates who may be orphans or deserted by their parents, or whose parents may consent to their being so sent, and to pay for their maintenance and education, a sum not exceeding what would have been the cost of their relief in the workhouse. The second section empowers the Poor Law Board, on the application of the managers of any such school, to cause an examination to be made into its condition, and, if satisfied with it, to grant a certificate that it is fitted for the reception of such children or persons as may be sent there by the Guardians. In pursuance of these provisions we have received applications from the managers of several such schools; and after making inquiry by our inspectors into the arrangements, objects, and mode of management of the schools, we have granted the requisite certificates in the case of six schools. The objects of five of these schools is to train up young girls for domestic service. The sixth is the Yorkshire Institution for the instruction of the deaf and dumb established in the neighbourhood of Doncaster. We insert in the Appendix, p. 324, a statement showing the situation of the schools, and the number of children that they are severally calculated to accommodate.

It should be observed that the word school as used in the Act not only applies to any school for the education of poor children, but is construed to extend to any institution established for the instruction of blind, deaf, dumb, lame, deformed, or idiotic persons.

Management of highways. 25 & 26 Vict. c. 61.

The Act, 25 & 26 Vict. c. 61., termed "An Act for the better "management of highways in England," is only so far connected with the laws for the relief of the poor that it provides in cases where it is adopted (section 21) for the payment of the expenses of the highways out of the poor rate, the highway boards being empowered by their precepts to direct the overseers to pay to the treasurer of the Highway Board such sums as may be required by them. This provision will accordingly make a material addition to the amount of the sums already levied as poor rate for objects not in any way relating to the relief of the poor.

Union assessments. 25 & 26 Vict. c. 103.

With regard to the Act of 25 & 26 Vict. c. 103., "An Act "to amend the law relating to parochial assessments in Eng- "land," the objects and provisions of which are stated fully in our circular letter of the 17th October 1862,* we have to observe that almost all the Boards of Guardians of Unions throughout the country have appointed assessment committees: and we have reason to believe that the committees so appointed have duly applied themselves to the discharge of the important functions confided to them, and have either completed or have made considerable progress in a revision of the valuations of the several parishes in their respective Unions.

As the statute requires the Boards of Guardians to make a report of the proceedings of the committees to us in the month of April, we framed a tabular form in which the information might be supplied, and transmitted a copy to every Board of Guardians. We have received a report in that form from almost all the Unions where the committees were appointed.

Removal of English and Scotch paupers. 25 & 26 Vict. c. 113.

The Act of 25 & 26 Vict. c. 113. relates to the removal of Scotch paupers from England to Scotland, and of English paupers from Scotland to England, and it contains provisions similar to those prescribed in the Act of 24 & 25 Vict. c. 76.

* See Appendix, page 30.

relating to the removal of Irish poor from England, which is adverted to in our last Report. The principal object of the Act is to ensure regularity in the proceedings connected with such removals, and to prevent the hardships which were sometimes suffered under the previous law by such persons under removal.

Pauper lunatics. 25 & 26 Vict. c. 111.

The only other Act which remains to be mentioned is "The Act "to amend the law relating to lunatics," 25 & 26 Vict. c. 111. We have drawn the attention of the Guardians in our Circular Letter of 15th December 1862* to the provisions of this Act which relate to pauper lunatics, and to the duties of the Guardians and their officers in respect to such paupers. It will be observed that section 8. of the Act renders it lawful for the visitors of any asylum and the Guardians of any Parish or Union within the district for which the asylum has been provided to make arrangements for the reception and care of a limited number of chronic lunatics in the workhouse of such Parish or Union. These arrangements are to be subject to the approval of the Commissioners in Lunacy and of the President of the Poor Law Board. Several applications have been made both to the Commissioners in Lunacy and to the Poor Law Board for their sanction to the removal of chronic lunatics from lunatic asylums to wards fitted up for their reception in the workhouse under the provisions of this section; and we have been in communication with the Commissioners in Lunacy as to the conditions on which our assent should be given to such a measure.

The crowded state of some of the county asylums may render it expedient that when proper accommodation is provided in a workhouse for cases of imbecile and harmless chronic lunatics they should be removed from the asylum to such workhouse in order that room may thus be left for the acute cases in which the treatment provided in a lunatic asylum is more important and necessary. Much care will, however, be required in carrying this measure into operation, and the arrangements for the purpose will receive our earnest attention.

We think it right to add that these arrangements will not authorize the detention in the lunatic wards of a workhouse of any dangerous or violent lunatic, and that those wards will not in our opinion be lunatic asylums within the meaning of the 24 & 25 Vict. c. 55. s. 6. Consequently the cost of lunatics maintained in them will not be chargeable under that provision upon the common fund of the union, but to the parishes to which they respectively belong.

Select Committee on Poor Relief.

We have only further to state that the Select Committee of the House of Commons which was re-appointed at the commencement of the last session of Parliament to inquire into the administration of the relief of the poor under the orders, rules, and regulations issued by the Poor Law Board pursuant to the provisions of the Poor Law Amendment Act, and into the operation of the laws relating to the relief of the poor, continued their sittings until the close of the session, and reported from time to time to the House the evidence which they had taken, but they have not as yet made a general report on the subjects submitted to them.

* See Appendix, page 35.

All which we humbly present to Your Majesty.

C. P. VILLIERS,
President.

UNION RELIEF AID ACT, 25 & 26 Vict. c. 110.—CIRCULAR LETTER from the POOR LAW BOARD to BOARDS OF GUARDIANS of the UNIONS AFFECTED BY THE ACT.

Poor Law Board, Whitehall,

SIR,

I AM directed by the Poor Law Board to transmit to the Guardians a copy of the Act to which the Royal Assent has been just given (25 & 26 Vict. c. 110.), for affording aid to those parishes and Unions in the counties of Lancaster, Chester, and Derby which are so severely suffering at the present time from the unfortunately distressed state of the operative classes engaged in the Cotton manufacture.

The Board do not think it necessary to do more at present than direct the attention of the Guardians to the general provisions of the Act.

These provisions have in view, first, the relief of parishes in Unions; and, next, of Unions themselves:—

First, as regards parishes. If it shall be found that any parish in a Union situated in one of the above counties shall during the quarter ending at Michaelmas or Christmas next have incurred in the relief of its poor a cost exceeding the amount of 3*s.* in the pound per annum, or 9*d.* in the pound for the quarter, upon its annual rateable value, that excess, whatever it may amount to, is to be borne by the other parishes in the Union in proportion to their annual rateable value. When the sum charged upon every parish amounts to the prescribed limit, then all expenditure above that limit is to be defrayed out of the common fund of the Union.

Secondly, as respects Unions. If it shall appear at either of the same quarter days that the total expenditure of any such Union in and about the relief of the poor exceeds the same amount of 3*s.* in the pound per annum upon the annual rateable value of all the parishes in the Union, it will be competent for the Guardians, after special notice, and under the order of the Poor Law Board, to borrow a sum of money sufficient to meet the excess, and to charge the common fund with its repayment by not more than seven annual instalments.

If it shall appear that the expenditure exceeds the rate of 5*s.* in the pound per annum, the Guardians may, in lieu, obtain, and under an order of the Poor Law Board, a contribution from the other Unions and separate parishes in the same county, to meet such excess. Any Union or parish, however, which shall be at the same time suffering from demands on their own rates to an amount exceeding three shillings in the pound per annum, is to be exempted from contribution.

The Board will not enter further into detail as to any of the provisions of the Act. They request, however, that if the Guardians anticipate that at Michaelmas-day the condition of the Union will be such as to render aid necessary, they will report to the Board, a short time previously to that day, the state of their funds, and the demands upon them, as well as their prospects for the ensuing quarter. The Board will then be prepared to consider what course will be most advisable for the Guardians to adopt under the circumstances.

The Legislature having made these exceptional provisions to meet the present extraordinary emergency, the Board entertain no doubt that the destitution of the labouring classes of the district will receive all due consideration at the hands of the Guardians.

The Board would of course not think themselves justified in giving their sanction to the charge of any unnecessary expenditure upon the funds of neighbouring Unions, or the rates of future occupiers.

And they feel assured that the Guardians will not relax in their endeavours to administer relief to the destitute poor, not only with due regard for their necessities, but also with the same care and judgment as they would have exhibited if they had no other resource open to them than the current rates of their own Union.

I am, &c.

Acts of 25 & 26 Vict. cc. 43, 103, and 113.—Circular Letter from the Poor Law Board to Boards of Guardians.

Poor Law Board, Whitehall, S.W.,
Sir, 29th August 1862.

I am directed by the Poor Law Board to draw the attention of the Board of Guardians to the Acts 25 & 26 Vict. cc. 43, 103, and 113, passed in the last Session of Parliament.

The Act 25 & 26 Vict. c. 43. enables the Guardians to provide for the maintenance and education of poor children in schools and public institutions in certain cases, and subject to particular regulations. It will be desirable that the Guardians who may wish to avail themselves of the provisions of the Act should communicate with the Poor Law Board for their instructions, before they enter into any engagement under it.

The Act 25 & 26 Vict. c. 103. provides for the establishment of assessment committees in Unions, whereby the poor-rate valuations in the parishes comprised therein may be brought into a better state than exists at present, as regards their intrinsic correctness and their fairness and uniformity with reference to those of neighbouring parishes.

The Board will not at present enter into the details of this Act, but will in the course of the ensuing month address another communication upon the subject to the Guardians.

The Act 25 & 26 Vict. c. 113. relates to Scotch paupers whom it is sought to remove from England to Scotland, and of English paupers in Scotland who are to be removed to England.

The number of cases to which this Act, so far as it relates to England, will apply, is not likely to be considerable; and it may be sufficient to state that the proceedings required in the removal of Scotch poor to Scotland, and of English poor from Scotland to England, are much the same as those prescribed by the Act 24 & 25 Vict. c. 77. relating to Irish poor, which was passed last year. They are intended mainly to prevent the hardships which sometimes accompanied the removal of those classes of paupers under the previous law.

EDUCATION of PERSONS in receipt of OUT-DOOR RELIEF.—CIRCULAR LETTER from the POOR LAW BOARD to BOARDS OF GUARDIANS.

Poor Law Board, Whitehall, S.W.,

SIR,

I AM directed by the Poor Law Board to state that their attention has been directed to the statute which enables Boards of Guardians to grant relief to poor persons out of the Workhouse, to enable them to provide education for their children (the 18 & 19 Vict. c. 34.) The Board have learnt, with much satisfaction, that several Boards of Guardians in Lancashire and Cheshire, where the present distress among the manufacturing classes is very severe, have to a considerable extent availed themselves of the power conferred upon them by this Statute.

But some difficulty has, it is alleged, occurred in regard to certain schools which receive assistance from the Government out of the Parliamentary grant in aid of public education, by reason of the scholars whose fees are paid by the Board of Guardians not being reckoned among the number of those entitling the school managers to capitation grants.

To remove this difficulty, and to prevent the Guardians from being restrained in the exercise of the powers of the Act, the Board have to inform you that they have received a communication from the Committee of Council on Education referring to the Boards of Guardians in the Cotton districts, in which they state that "their Lordships are "prepared to regard all payments of this kind which the Guardians "may see fit to make on behalf of children attending schools under "inspection as equivalent to the same amount paid in fees by the "parents themselves, or by those standing to the children in loco "parentis, wherever such fees enter into the condition of a grant."

The Board take this opportunity of forwarding a copy of their circular letter, dated 9th January 1856, upon the subject of the abovementioned Act.

Enclosure to No. 3.

EDUCATION of Children in receipt of Out-door Relief.—Letter from the Poor Law Board to Boards of Guardians.

Poor Law Board, Whitehall,
9th January 1856.

SIR,

I AM directed by the Poor Law Board to bring under the notice of the Guardians the provisions of the Statute, passed in the last Session of Parliament, to provide for the education of children in the receipt of out-door relief (18 & 19 Vict. c. 34.)

Sect. 1. After reciting that it is expedient that means should be taken to provide education for the young children of poor persons who are relieved out of the Workhouse, proceeds to enact, that the Guardians of any Union or any parish in England, wherein the relief is administered by a Board of Guardians, may (if they deem proper) grant relief for the purpose of enabling any poor person lawfully relieved out of the Workhouse, to provide education for any child of such person between the ages of four and sixteen in any school, to be approved of by them, for such time and under such conditions as they shall see fit.

Sect. 2. provides that the Poor Law Board may issue their order to regulate the proceedings of the Guardians, with reference to the mode, time, or place in or at which such relief shall be given or such education received.

Sect. 3. provides that the Guardians shall not impose as a condition of relief that such education shall be given to any child of the person requiring relief.

Sect. 4. provides for the charge of the cost of this relief, and enacts that the costs of the relief so given for the education of any such child shall be charged to the same account as the other relief granted by the said Guardians to the same poor person, and may be given and recovered by them as a loan, under the same circumstances and in like manner as such other relief.

Sect. 5. enables the Guardians in the case of any child of such age as aforesaid relieved out of the Workhouse, which child has been deserted by its parents or surviving parent, or both, whose parents are dead, in their discretion and with the like power of regulation on the part of the Poor Law Board as aforesaid, to grant relief for the purpose of providing education for such child in any such school as aforesaid.

The 6th and last section requires the words used in the Act to be construed as in the 4 & 5 Will. 4. c. 76.

The Board do not propose at present to issue any regulations to the Guardians by their order, but they think that it may prove convenient if they make a few remarks upon the Statute for the information of the Guardians.

The Guardians will observe that they are to exercise a discretion as to the granting of this relief, and they are not bound to grant it at all, or to grant it to any pauper or class of paupers. But, looking to the language of the recital, it is clear that the Legislature contemplated that the Guardians would avail themselves to some considerable extent of the power conferred upon them by the Act. The Board trust, therefore, that the Guardians will endeavour to give full effect to the spirit of the enactment, and not suffer it to be neglected.

It is desirable that they should make known, as generally as possible, their willingness to aid those who are in receipt of relief in obtaining education for their children. This aid is, however, to be treated entirely as relief; it must be given as such to persons receiving other relief, with the like consequences and under the same conditions. It can only be given in cases were relief is lawfully given out of the workhouse, and for such time only as the same shall be granted; so that when the relief to the parent ceases, the grant of this aid for the purpose of the child's education must cease likewise.

The Guardians will also perceive that there is a limit as to the ages within which this education may be supplied,—namely, between 4 and 16,—and that they are to approve of the school wherein the education is to take place. They can also impose such conditions as they shall see fit, upon the providing of the education.

The Board are not prepared to prescribe any particular course which the Guardians should adopt to satisfy themselves that the school proposed is one of which they can approve; but there are now so many schools established throughout the country under good and well-defined management, and most of them open to inspection and supervision by competent authorities, that the Board think that generally the Guardians will not find much difficulty in arriving at a proper conclusion on this point.

They must remember, however, that while they have to approve of the school where the pauper's child is to receive education, they are not required to select any particular school for the child nor to enforce any particular kind of education. Hence it is most essential that they should avoid every act which might be construed to evince a desire on their part to use this authority as a means of interference with the dictates of the religious tenets of the poor persons to whom this relief is to be supplied, or of giving undue preference to any particular school over others.

It must also be borne in mind that the parent must be wholly unconstrained in seeking this aid, the Act having expressly provided that the Guardians shall not make the providing of the education a condition previous to their grant or continuance of the other relief; and the Guardians will not be justified in deducting from the ordinary relief the amount which they may grant for this purpose.

The Act contemplates principally the education of the children of persons in receipt of relief, but as it also provides for orphan children and children deserted by their parents, where such children are not maintained in the workhouse, but are living with relatives or friends, the Guardians may take the like means of providing an education for them as for children living with their parents; and in these cases it seems that, as the children are deprived of parental care, the attention of the Guardians to this matter will be even more imperatively required than in ordinary cases.

The most important point for the consideration of the Guardians in carrying this Act into operation will be to determine how to pay this relief. The statute does not require the amount to be paid to the parent; it must be awarded to the parent, and the amount should therefore be entered in the Relief Order book and in the Application and Report book; but there is no need that it should be paid to the parent. The Board think that in general this should not be done.

It will generally prove most convenient that when the Guardians shall have agreed to grant the relief for the education of the child, and shall have approved of the school, they should arrange with the trustees or managers or master, who may receive the payments from the other scholars for an account to be supplied to the Guardians, either at the end of the quarter or of the half year, and then settle the same as in the case of other accounts, by an order on their Treasurer.

The Guardians must require to be satisfied of the due attendance of the child at the school. With this object it may, in many cases, be reasonable to call for the production of the school registers of attendance, and require a given number of attendances to be shown with respect to pauper children, as the condition of any payment on account of such children to the managers or master of the school; and the Board also think that the relieving officer might be directed, from time to time, to give his attention to this subject, and ascertain whether the child is punctual and regular in attendance, or is suffered by its parent to neglect the school.

The Guardians of the parish where the child resides may also be requested to exercise a supervision in the case, so as to ascertain that the relief thus granted is not abused.

The Board have made these general observations upon the Act, and will be most ready to consider and to advise upon any matters of practical detail which the Guardians may find it necessary to bring under their notice.

UNION ASSESSMENT COMMITTEE ACT, 1862, 25 & 26 VICT. c. 103.—CIRCULAR LETTER from the POOR LAW BOARD to BOARDS OF GUARDIANS.

Poor Law Board, Whitehall, S.W.,

SIR,

THE Poor Law Board, in pursuance of their letter of the 29th August last, have directed me to make the following communication to the Guardians on the subject of the Union Assessment Committee Act of the last Session.

The object of the Act is stated in the preamble to be "the making "more effectual provision for securing uniform and correct valuations "of parishes in Unions of England."

To effect this object, the settling of the valuation of parishes for assessment of the poor rate is confided to a committee of Guardians, to be appointed for every Union.

Accordingly, the Act provides that the Board of Guardians in every Union formed under the 4 & 5 W. 4. c. 76. shall appoint a committee from themselves, to be called "the Assessment Committee of the Union," for the investigation and supervision of the valuations of the parishes of such Union.

The appointment, in the first instance, is to be made as soon as convenient after the passing of the Act, and afterwards at the first meeting of the Guardians after the election in each year.

The number of the members must be not less than six and not more than twelve, and they are to consist of ex-officio and elected Guardians, with one third at least of the former, if the adequate number of ex-officio Guardians exist in the Union.

There is, therefore, considerable latitude given to the Guardians, and they must exercise their judgment carefully in this respect, giving due attention to the state of their Union, as regards the number of parishes comprised therein. The Committee should not be too large, else the attendance will be frequently slack; nor too small, otherwise the work will not be done at all, or not done properly.

Special provision is made for Unions which are coterminous with municipal boroughs.

If at the annual meeting the Guardians neglect, or are prevented from making the appointment, the Poor Law Board are required to appoint some other day for that purpose.—Sect. 4.

Provision is made for the supply of vacancies, and for the power of the Committee during the same.—Sects. 5 and 6.

The authority of the Committee is to extend over every parish comprised in the Union.—Sect. 7.

The Board of Guardians are to fix the day of the first meeting of the Committee; but the Committee are to fix the times and places of their subsequent meetings, and at these meetings any Guardian of the Union may be present, though he will not be entitled to take part in the proceedings.

The quorum of the meetings is fixed at not less than three members, and not less than one third of the whole number.—Sect. 9.

The Committee are required to employ the clerk or assistant clerk of the Board of Guardians as their clerk, with such remuneration for his services as the Poor Law Board shall sanction.—Sect. 10.

Upon this provision the Board will remark, that as it is quite impossible to determine what amount of labour will be imposed upon the clerk, it is not desirable to fix any sum as his remuneration at the present time. The Board will postpone their decision upon any proposition which shall be made to them until the experience of a few months shall show what will be a fair compensation for the additional labour caused by this Act, and in what manner it will be best to award it in the different Unions.

When the Committee meet, it will be most advisable that they should appoint a chairman, to act for the residue of the year, and in making choice they should endeavour to obtain the services of a gentleman whose own engagements will not be likely to prevent his giving punctual and constant attention to his duties in the chair.

Provision is made for the keeping of the minutes of the Committee, for making the entries thereof evidence in courts of law, and for allowing the same to be inspected by the ratepayers of the Union.—Sect. 11.

The Board of Guardians are required in April of every year to report the proceedings of the Committee to the Poor Law Board.—Sect. 12.

The powers which are given to the Committee are extensive, but only such as are necessary to enable them to discharge their duties with effect.

They may require overseers and other officers having the custody of books of assessment of taxes or rates, parliamentary or parochial, to make returns to them of the particulars relating to such rates, taxes, or property included therein so far as relates to their Union, and to make and transmit extracts therefrom to them. They may require the persons having custody of such books to attend and produce all such books, valuations, and other public documents, and may examine all persons who so attend before them.

But no valuation or assessment is to be produced, which by any provision of law at present is not suffered to be made public.

The statute then provides for the supervision of the valuations of parishes by the Committee, in the following manner —

The overseers of every parish in a Union are required within three months after the appointment of the Committee to prepare a valuation list according the 6 & 7 W. 4. c. 96. of the rateable hereditaments in the parish, and unless they consider the existing valuation to be correct, they shall revise it, and when corrected shall sign the list so made. A form of this list is supplied in a schedule to the Act.

As there is no definition of the term "Gross Estimated Rental" in the 6 & 7 W. 4. c. 96., and there is to be a column for it in the valuation list, a definition is supplied in the following terms: "The gross esti-"mated rental for the purpose of the schedule to this Act shall be the "rent at which the hereditament might reasonably be expected to let "from year to year, free of all usual tenant's rates and taxes, and tithe "commutation rentcharge, if any." But the definition of the net annual value of the hereditaments contained in the 1st section of that Act is reserved so as not to be repealed or interfered with.—Sect. 15.

As the overseers will not necessarily know of the appointment of the Committee, the Board recommend that either the Board of Guardians should send notice of the appointment, or that the Committee themselves, at their first meeting, should send such notice, pointing out to the overseers what they are required to do.

The Committee may, by an order, enlarge the time within which the first valuation lists are to be made.

The Board think that this power should be exercised with much caution, as there may be some apprehension that if the Committee grant the extension of time too readily more delay will occur in the exercise of their own functions than will be desirable.

The Committee may also direct any existing valuation to be revised, or a new valuation to be made by the overseers ; or

They may, with the consent of the Board of Guardians after notice to every Guardian, appoint some other person either to revise the existing valuation or to make a new one, and may direct such person to make and sign such valuation list instead of the overseers to whom it is to be delivered.—Sect. 16.

The Guardians will observe that the Committee cannot make any such appointment of a valuer without the consent of the Board of Guardians, who must be summoned to discuss the question of this appointment by a special notice.

The valuation list when made is to be deposited in a place indicated in the parish, and to be open to the inspection of the ratepayers of the parish for fourteen days, at the expiration of which time it shall be transmitted to the Committee, and any Overseer or other ratepayer in the parish may inspect and copy the list so transmitted.—Sect. 17.

Any overseer of any parish in the Union, or any person aggrieved by the valuation list may, within twenty-eight days after the notice of the deposit, give notice of objection thereto to the Committee, to the overseers of the particular parish, and to any other person the valuation of whose property is objected to.—Sect. 19.

Provision is then made for the hearing and deciding of such objections by the Committee. In this respect they will exercise judicial functions, and due care must be observed in the discharge of this duty.

The Committee may make alterations in the valuation list, and correct names, descriptions, and particulars in the same, upon such information as to them may seem sufficient.

But they may also, with the consent of the Guardians as before provided, appoint a person to value the rateable hereditaments comprised in the lists, or omitted therefrom, or take such other means as they may think necessary for ascertaining the correctness thereof.

The previous provision referred to the action of the Committee before the valuation list had been transmitted to the Committee, but this applies to their proceeding, if, after having received the list, they find it necessary to have either an entire new valuation of the parish, or a valuation of some part of it, as may become requisite in cases where objections are made to particular valuations only.

When the Committee have heard and determined all objections, and made such alterations, insertions, and corrections as to them shall seem proper, they shall approve of the list, and three members of the Committee shall sign it, adding the date of the approval,—Sect. 20.

When the Committee after the valuation list they shall cause it, thus altered, to be deposited for inspection in the manner before described, and appoint a day, not less than seven nor more than fourteen days from the re-deposit, for hearing objections to this altered list.

And when they have heard and determined all such objections, and made all such farther alterations as may be necessary, they shall approve the same in the manner before provided.—Sect. 21.

This will conclude the labours and duties of the Committee in regard to the first valuations of the parishes in their Union.

But if on an appeal to the Sessions against a poor rate the same shall be amended, the Assessment Committee are required to alter the valuation list accordingly.—Sect. 22.

The valuation list when approved is to be delivered to the overseers of the parish, to be preserved by them, and to be subject to the like resort as the poor rate is now, and shall be produced by the overseers when requisite. It is to be the valuation list in force in the parish, and, subject to alterations by supplemental lists, shall continue to be such until a new valuation list, approved of and delivered in like manner as the former, shall be substituted for it.—Sects. 23, 24.

Provision is then contained in the statute for a supplemental valuation list being made by the overseers in cases where new property becomes rateable, or the occupation of property is altered, or any increase or diminution occurs in the value.—Sect. 25.

The Committee may from time to time, either upon application or where they think it expedient, direct new valuations to be made of all or some of the rateable hereditaments in any parish of the Union.

Where the Board of Guardians give their consent the Committee may in this case also appoint the valuer.—Sect. 26.

All the previous provisions relative to the first valuation list are applicable to the new and supplemental list.

The valuation list having been duly approved, and delivered to the overseers, must be strictly acted upon by them in making the poor rate; and if departed from, except in certain special cases, the rate will be of no force (sect. 28); but the poor rate made by any bodies or officers under the authority of a local act is exempted from the operation of this section.—Sect. 29.

Guardians of Unions will observe an important result to follow from this revision of the parochial valuations.

The statute of last year (24 & 25 Vict. c. 55. sect. 9.) provided a new basis upon which the Guardians were to calculate the contributions of the parishes in the Union to the common fund, namely, the annual rateable value of those parishes respectively estimated according to the existing assessments for the county and borough rates.

Much dissatisfaction has been felt in many Unions at this arrangement, in consequnce of the state of the county and borough valuations, as applied to the several parishes therein. Great inequalities existed among the several parishes in many counties, and thus in numerous Unions complaints have been made.

This will, however, be removed by the enactment in sect. 30, which provides, that when the Assessment Committee for any Union shall have approved lists for all the parishes in the Union the computations of the contributions of the several parishes to the common fund shall be based upon the valuation lists lastly approved of for such parishes.

As the Assessment Committee will have equal jurisdiction over all the parishes in their Union, it might be expected that a just and uniform system of valuation would be adopted, and that no complaint of unfairness or inequality would arise.

Nethertheless, to meet the possibility of any grievance between the several parishes in a Union, it is provided that a copy of the valuation list in force for every parish in the Union shall be deposited in the board-room or other convenient place in the Union, and be open to inspection (sect. 31), and a power of appeal to the quarter sessions is given to the overseers of any parish in the Union in a manner similar to that which exists in the case of a county rate. The justices at these sessions are to hear and determine the appeal, and may, if they see fit, order a valuation to be made of any parish, which is the object of the appeal. The costs of such appeal, and of the valuation made under the order of the court, are provided for in sects. 32, 33, 34.

It is now necessary to advert to the Expenses to be incurred in carrying this Act into execution.

It is provided that the Committee may allow compensation for returns, copies, extracts, valuations, valuation lists, and other things done in pursuance of their order as they shall see just (sec. 37). In issuing their orders, they must therefore bear in mind that they will incur the responsibility of settling the compensation for the services which they require, and that the remuneration paid to their clerk, and all expenses incurred for the common use and benefit of all the parishes in the Union, will be chargeable upon the common fund (sect. 38). But the expenses of making valuations and valuation lists are to be charged upon the poor rate of the parishes for which they are made, unless in the case where a valuation made under the order of the Committee does not exceed by one sixth the valuation list delivered by the overseers, when the expense is to be borne by the common fund of the Union (sect. 39).

Although it is not to be expected that the important work to be performed under its provisions, which will effect a minute supervision of nearly all the rateable property in the country, can be carried into execution without some charge, the Board trust that the Boards of Guardians and the Assessment Committees will give their most earnest attention to avoid all unnecessary expenditure.

The 40th sect. enacts penalties to enforce the powers confided to the committees, and sects. 41, 42 provide for the formal authentication and service of the orders and notices of the Committee, and of notices and statements upon the Committee.

In the schedule, as already noticed, is given the form in which the valuation list is to be made out.

The whole of the provisions have been framed with reference to the Unions formed under the 4 & 5 W. 4. c. 76.; but as in some other Unions, whether formed under Gilbert's Act (22 G. 3. c. 83.) or under special or local Acts, there may be a wish to introduce the same system of valuation, provision is contained in this statute (sect. 45), which enables it to be adopted by the governing body of such Unions, with the consent of the Poor Law Board.

Finally, the Board recommend the Board of Guardians to proceed, with as little delay as the circumstances of their Union render necessary, to appoint the Committee, so that the overseers, whose office will commence next year, may be in possession of proper revised valuations, and the Guardians themselves be able to calculate their next Lady Day contributions upon a correct and uniform basis. In selecting the members of the Committee the Board will do well to make choice of those Guardians whose general acquaintance with parochial matters, and whose habits of business, will enable them to apply themselves with earnestness to the discharge of the onerous duties imposed upon them; and as, at least in the beginning, there must be some considerable demand upon the time of the Committee, such Guardians should be chosen as can best afford in this respect to attend the meetings with regularity.

Should any question of doubt or difficulty arise, either to the Guardians or to the Committees, in the application of the Act, I am directed to state that the Board will at all times be ready to give such advice as it may be in their power to afford to those who apply for it.

No. 5.

PAUPER LUNATICS, 25 & 26 VICT. c. 111.—CIRCULAR LETTER from the POOR LAW BOARD to BOARDS OF GUARDIANS.

Poor Law Board, Whitehall, S.W.,

SIR,

THE Poor Law Board desire me to bring under the notice of the Guardians certain provisions contained in "Lunacy Acts Amendment Act, 1862," 25 & 26 Vict. c. 111., which relate to pauper lunatics, and affect the Guardians in the discharge of their duties.

Section 19. directs so much of the statute 16 & 17 Vict. c. 97. sect. 67. as requires the relieving officer, and overseer, when there is no relieving officer, who shall have knowledge that any pauper resident in a parish is or is deemed to be a lunatic, and a proper person to be sent to an asylum, to give notice thereof to a justice of the peace, to be construed as if the words in italics had been omitted.

Henceforth it will suffice for the relieving officer or overseer to have knowledge that there is a pauper resident in the parish who is a lunatic, and it will not be necessary that he should have knowledge that the lunatic is a proper person to be sent to an asylum.

The same clause in the statute 16 & 17 Vict. c. 97. requires the justices to be satisfied that the lunatic is a proper person to be sent to the asylum, and this provision remains unaltered.

Section 20. of the new Act prohibits the detention in a Workhouse of any lunatic or alleged lunatic beyond the period of fourteen days, unless in the opinion of the medical officer such person is a proper person to be kept in a Workhouse, and the accommodation therein is sufficient for his reception.

And any person detained in a Workhouse in contravention of this section (that is, without such opinion, or where the accommodation is insufficient,) shall be deemed to be a proper person to be sent to an asylum, within the meaning of 16 & 17 Vict. c. 97. sect. 67.

The section also declares that the medical officer shall, for all the purposes of that Act, be deemed to have knowledge that a pauper resident within his district is a lunatic, and a proper person to be sent to an asylum, and that it shall be his duty to act accordingly, and further to sign such certificate as is contained in Schedule F., No. 3., to the above statute, 16 & 17 Vict. c. 97.

Section 21. makes an addition to the form for the quarterly list of lunatic paupers made out by the medical officers, by providing for a return of those who may be in the Workhouse, as to whom the medical officer is to certify whether the Workhouse is or is not sufficient for the accommodation of the lunatics detained therein, and whether or not the lunatics detained therein are proper persons to be kept in a Workhouse.

Section 25. requires that in the order of admission of a lunatic into an asylum, registered hospital, or licensed house, the name and address of one or more of the relations of such lunatic shall, wherever it is possible be inserted, to whom notice of his death shall be sent in a prepaid letter.

The 31st section gives power to two or more commissioners in lunacy, where upon their visitation of any Workhouse it appears to them that any lunatic or alleged lunatic therein is not a proper person to be kept in a Workhouse, to direct by an order under their hands such lunatic to be received into an asylum, and their order is to have the same effect as that of a justice under the 16 & 17 Vict. c. 97. sect. 67.

An appeal to the Secretary of State for the Home Department against such order is given to the Guardians, and his order shall be binding on all parties concerned.

By the 32d section a similar power is given to such commissioners to visit any pauper lunatic not in the Workhouse, and, after the same examination as is required to be made by a justice, to direct such lunatic to be received into an asylum.

According to section 33. their order may authorize the admission into any asylum other than that of the county or borough in which the parish is situate from which the lunatic is sent, and into any registered hospital or licensed house, under the same circumstances and subject to the same conditions as are provided for in statute 16 & 17 Vict. c. 97. sect. 72.

Section 34. requires the superintendent of every asylum, once at the least in each half-year, to transmit to the Guardians of every Union and parish a statement of the condition of every pauper lunatic chargeable to such Union or parish. This return will enable the Guardians to determine whether they should exercise the power given to them by the statute 16 & 17 Vict. c. 97. sect. 65. of sending a physician or other medical practitioner, or a committee of themselves, to visit and examine any or all the pauper lunatics chargeable to the Union in the asylum. In the event of a committee being sent, the Board recommend that only a limited number should be appointed for the purpose, so that there be no unnecessary expense incurred in the visit. Considerable discussion has arisen between the Guardians and the auditors in several Unions, where the latter have objected to the number of Guardians sent on such visits, and the amount of the expenses incurred in their visits. The Board think that, as a general rule, a committee of three or at the most five Guardians would be sufficient for the purposes of the contemplated examination.

The attention of the Guardians is particularly directed to section 37., which requires the visiting committee of every Union and of every parish under a Board of Guardians, once at the least in each quarter of a year, to enter in a book to be provided and kept by the master of the Workhouse, such observations as they may think fit to make respecting the dietary, accommodation, and treatment of the lunatics or alleged lunatics for the time being in the Workhouse, and farther requires that the book containing the observations made in pursuance of this section by the visiting Guardians shall be laid by the master before the commissioners on their next visit.

The Board recommend the Board of Guardians to provide this book for their Workhouse as soon as they conveniently can do so.

Section 38. contains the following provisions in reference to the pauper lunatics under confinement:—

Two of the commissioners in lunacy, as regards any hospital or licensed house, and two of the committee of governors of any hospital, and two of the visitors of any licensed house as regards any licensed house within their jurisdiction, may permit any pauper patient therein to be absent therefrom upon trial for such period as they may think fit, and may make or order to be made an allowance to him not exceeding his charge in such hospital or house which shall be charged for him, and be payable as if he were actually therein, but shall be paid to him or for his benefit as they may direct.

If he do not return at the expiration of the time, and a medical certificate that his detention as a lunatic is no longer necessary be not sent to the proprietor or superintendent, he may at any time within fourteen days after the expiration of the period be retaken.

This corresponds with the provision contained in the 16 & 17 Vict. c. 97. sect. 79., in regard to pauper lunatics in asylums.

Section 45. contains a special provision as to the chargeability of pauper lunatics whose settlements cannot be ascertained in certain boroughs, but as its application is very limited the Board do not consider it necessary to enter into any detail in regard to it.

The Board will only refer to one other section. The 8th section empowers the visitors of any asylum, and the Guardians of any parish or Union within the district for which the asylum has been provided, if they shall see fit, to make arrangements, subject to the approval of the commissioners in lunacy and the president of the Poor Law Board, for the reception and care of a limited number of chronic lunatics in the Workhouse of such parish or Union, to be selected by the superintendent of the asylum, and certified by him to be fit and proper so to be removed.

The Board are at present not aware of any Workhouse in which any such arrangements could conveniently be made ; but they will be ready to consider any proposals on the subject when the visitors and the Board of Guardians of any Union shall find it convenient or practicable to act upon this clause.

Small-pox—Circular Letter from the Poor Law Board to Boards of Guardians in the Metropolis.

Poor Law Board, Whitehall, S.W.,

Sir, 30th April 1863.

I am directed by the Poor Law Board to forward to you, for the information of the Guardians of the Union, a copy of a Letter which the Board have received from the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council, together with a copy of a report from Dr. Buchanan respecting the prevalence of small-pox in and near the Metropolis.

I am directed to state that it will be satisfactory to the Board to find that the Guardians have taken this communication into immediate consideration, with a view of giving practical effect to it whenever the circumstances of their Union may render it necessary.

The Guardians are doubtless aware that they may, with the consent of the Poor Law Board, take temporarily such premises as may be required for the reception of the destitute poor attacked by contagious or infectious disease. In every case, however, in which the Guardians should determine to exercise this power, or should propose to make other arrangements to meet the existing difficulty, it will be desirable that they should in the first instance communicate with the Board on the subject.

I am, &c.

Enclosure (a) to No. 6.

Medical Department of the Privy Council Office,

SIR,

I AM directed by the Lords of Her Majesty's Council to transmit to you, for the information of the Poor Law Board, the enclosed copy of a report received from Dr. Buchanan, who (with particular reference to the present epidemic of small-pox) is now acting as their Lordships Inspector of Public Vaccination in London.

My Lords direct me to state, that, under the circumstances set forth in Dr. Buchanan's report, their Lordships regard it as in the highest degree desirable that Boards of Guardians in those districts of London where small-pox is prevailing should, either separately or conjointly, provide temporary hospitals for the exclusive reception of their cases of small-pox; and I am to state that, in a circular letter which my Lords have this day addressed to the Metropolitan Boards of Guardians on the subject of the prevailing epidemic, their Lordships have expressed to the Board their opinion to that effect.

My Lords hope that the Poor Law Board will concur with them as to the expediency of the measure which they recommend, and that the Board, in its communications with Boards of Guardians, may be able to promote the adoption of the measure.

I am, &c.
JOHN SIMON.

The Secretary of the Poor Law Board.

Enclosure (b) to No. 6.

SIR,

20th April 1863.

AT an early period of the investigation which I am making by your instructions into the state of Public Vaccination in London, with especial reference to the present prevalence of small-pox, I am desirous of drawing your attention to the inadequacy of the existing hospital accommodation in London for cases of small-pox.

The deaths from this disease have averaged thirty-two a week for the first quarter of the present year, and in the last two weeks have averaged 65. The disease has not for many years been so fatal in London as at the present time. On the proportion already ascertained to exist in some Unions of one death to ten attacks, sixty-five deaths represent 650 new cases of small-pox that have occurred in London in each of the last two weeks. A great proportion of these cases, one half at the most moderate estimate, occur among paupers, or in families of the class that usually seek aid from dispensaries and hospitals. In such instances removal of the sick to hospital would usually be recommended by the medical attendant, and would gladly be adopted by the relatives. But to meet this great demand for the accommodation of small-pox cases, London has only the Small-pox Hospital at Highgate, for other hospitals, and all (or nearly all) workhouses, are not constructed for the reception of small-pox cases. The Small-pox Hospital is able to receive about thirty-two cases weekly, or about one in ten of those for whom treatment in hospital would be sought.

From this insufficient provision for the treatment of small-pox in hospital it results that multitudes of those attacked by the disease are being treated at their own homes under circumstances that favour to an extreme degree the propagation of the disease.

If from a small room inhabited day and night by a whole family a case of small-pox be not removed, the disease spreads with great certainty through the family, through the house, and through the neighbourhood, and, gathering in intensity, soon attacks vaccinated persons quite as numerously as unvaccinated. As the smaller evil, removal to the parish infirmary has been effected in some Unions, but the isolation that can be obtained in such establishments is scarcely ever effectual to prevent the spread of small-pox to other inmates, and accordingly in some instances persons resident in Workhouses have been (though vaccinated) attacked, and have even died of small-pox.

Furthermore, into several general and other hospitals patients affected with small-pox have been received, owing to the impossibility of admitting them at Highgate, but generally in violation of an express rule for their exclusion; and the disastrous result has been witnessed of communication of small-pox to the patients, convalescents, and attendants on the sick. For persons attacked in public establishments there is no resource but to be treated on the spot, and thus in their turn to endanger their neighbours.

The establishment in the present emergency of temporary hospitals, into which it would be possible for parishes, public institutions, employers of labour, and others, to send patients affected by small-pox, would in my opinion conduce more than any other means to the speedy arrest of the present epidemic. The eastern districts of London particularly, and also now the southern (where the epidemic appears on the increase), are those which most urgently require a place for the reception of their small-pox cases.

I have, &c.

The Medical Officer of the Privy Council. GEORGE BUCHANAN.

DISTRESS IN THE COTTON MANUFACTURING DISTRICTS.

No. 7.

LETTER addressed to the POOR LAW BOARD by the GUARDIANS of the LANCASTER UNION.

MY LORDS AND GENTLEMEN, Lancaster, 23d April 1863.

ON the 7th May last I sent you a statement setting forth the opinions of mill owners and managers as to the ability of mill operatives to perform out-door work; and on the 16th August I forwarded a minute (a copy of which is enclosed) of the Guardians of this Union on the employment of recipients of relief. The views expressed in the minute have been uniformly carried out here. The continuance of the cotton distress, and the vital necessity for every effort to prevent the demoralization of the unemployed operatives, induces me to lay before you a few facts on the subject of the minute, as every additional fact must be important at present.

The Guardians and the Relief Committee, of which I am a member, act in entire accord. Every unemployed person in the receipt of relief is set to work, except for a very special reason. The females attend sewing schools. About 90 per cent. of the men are employed in forming and repairing footpaths, removing hills from roads, &c. The quantity of work executed is not, of course, equal to that of experienced labourers, but several great improvements have been effected near Lancaster by the men. About 10 per cent. of the feeblest men are considered unfit for out-door work, and are therefore required to pick oakum.

All work under superintendents employed by the Guardians, and no distinction is made between the Guardians' and the Committee's recipients of relief. The hours at present are from 8 A.M. to 5 30 P.M., an hour and a quarter being allowed for dinner. The work has been continued without intermission for upwards of a year.

The men have generally submitted to the regulations of the Guardians without complaint. Slight appearances of insubordination have been manifested, chiefly by men who came from places where work in return for relief is not strictly enforced; but as the Guardians and the Committee acted with discretion and firmness, they were immediately suppressed.

In addition to the work performed for the Guardians and the Committee, a number of the men were employed for several weeks last winter by the Morecambe Board of Health in repairing a road which had been washed away by a stormy tide. They were paid two shillings per day each, and were conveyed by railway to and from work, a distance of four miles, at 3*d.* each; the charge being defrayed by the Board of Health and the Relief Committee in equal proportions. The following certificate was given to me on the completion of the work:—

"Local Board of Health for Poulton Bare and Torrisholme.

"We hereby certify that the men employed in repairing the road "on the sea shore at Morecambe have done a fair quantity of work "in a proper manner, and conducted themselves to our entire satis-"faction."

"(Signed) C. T. CLARK, Chairman.
"WILLIAM ATKINSON, Surveyor."

"Morecambe, 14th Nov. 1862."

Through the kindness of W. J. Garnett, Esq., M.P., trenching was provided during several winter months for a number of men on the Quernmore Park estate near Lancaster. They worked by the piece at a liberal price, and averaged about 12*s.* per week each. The following is an extract from a note to me from Mr. Garnett's land steward:—

"Quernmore Park near Lancaster, 23d April 1863.

"The men who were employed in trenching, &c. on the Quernmore "Park estate for several months last winter were very orderly, and "attended diligently to their work. The work was difficult to "perform, the ground being in part covered with heather and full of "large stones. The men were not, of course, equal to agricultural "labourers, but they performed a fair quantity of work. The price "paid by Mr. Garnett was liberal, and, as you are aware, the workmen "averaged about 12*s.* per week each. The earnings, considering the "short days, I consider were good.

"The situation where they were employed was very exposed, but I "believe they did not sustain any harm."

(Signed) "THO. CRANSTON."

All the persons set to work have had a warm mid-day meal provided by the Committee, the cost thereof being under 2*d.* per head each.

The system adopted by the Guardians and the Committee has been unattended with any ill effect, and the results have been very favourable; great efforts are made to obtain employment, and although the mill work has not materially improved, the number requiring relief has very greatly decreased.

It is not known that any of the men have sustained bodily injury by their change of employment; in many cases a decided improvement is strikingly observable.

Some of our men, after having been engaged in wheeling barrows and using the hack and spade for many months, have resumed their mill work. I am informed by the mill owners and managers that the out-door work has not unfitted such men for their ordinary work; and that after a short practice they perform it with unimpaired capacity.

The number of mill operatives in this Union is comparatively small; but as several hundred persons have been set to work by the Guardians and the Relief Committee, the above facts fully indicate the soundness and practicability of the system adopted by them.

I have, &c.

Enclosure to No. 7.

(From the Lancaster Guardian, 23d August 1862.)

WE extract the following statement from the minutes of the Lancaster Board of Guardians on Saturday last:—

On the motion of Mr. Moss, seconded by Mr. Storey, it was resolved unanimously (twenty Guardians being present) that the following minute be entered upon the proceedings of the Board:—

"The Guardians have observed with much regret that considerable efforts have been made of late in various parts to set aside the law which requires from able-bodied men in the receipt of relief the performance of work in return; and that some Boards of Guardians have, during the present depression in the cotton trade, hesitated to carry out such law.

"The Guardians therefore deem it advisable to record their views on the subject, as they consider it to be intimately connected with the well-being of every class of the community, especially of the poor.

"The term 'labour test' has often been improperly used lately. On occasions like the present, when the work of cotton mill hands has failed and they have no other means of support, their destitution in most cases needs no testing. The out-relief regulation order requires that able-bodied men receiving relief be set to work, and surely it is most reasonable that they should make such return as they are able for the support afforded them by others, many of whom possess their means by arduous labour and with difficulty pay the rates; and it is absolutely necessary for the interests of all that the working population should not have within their reach even scanty means of support at the public expense with less effort than is necessary to win their subsistence by independent means.

"The Poor Laws wisely and humanely provide for the relief of destitution from whatever cause it may have arisen, and the Guardians, as the administrators of those laws, desire in the first place to act upon that principle, especially as regards those who are unavoidably deprived of work, but another and almost equally important principle of a wise and humane poor law is that the condition of recipients of relief shall not on the whole be, or appear to be, superior to that of independent labourers of the lowest class. The maintenance of this sound principle is not always easy and agreeable; but any departure from it, which the allowance of a bare subsistence without work or restraint would be, is productive of results which all deplore.

"It is objected that to set the factory men to work, which many call the 'labour test,' is degrading to them; that it destroys their self-respect and lowers their social position. It must, however, be apparent to every reflecting mind, that the mere change of employment and the reduction of income do not in any measure degrade the industrious man, who, by adverse events beyond his control, is deprived of his usual means of support; and that to live upon the bounty of other persons without making every return in his power would be really a degradation.

"It is also objected, and with more plausibility, that out-door work is injurious to factory operatives, damages their health, and unfits them for their ordinary occupation. Experience has, on many occasions and in many places, proved that this objection is altogether untenable, and that the men generally benefit by the change of employment. It is, of course, incumbent on the Guardians to see that the work required is not, in kind or quantity, beyond the capacity of those employed, and to make proper arrangements against undue exposure to inclement weather. Mill operatives not unfrequently voluntarily turn to out-door work, and again engage in mill work with unimpaired capacity for it.

"It must be evident that to leave large numbers of men who are unaccustomed to anything but manual labour entirely unemployed would not mitigate but rather aggravate and intensify the evils under which they suffer; and it has been found in many instances that such a state of things has produced great disorders.

"It is also clear that a life of inaction is calculated to lead to vicious pursuits, to debase and enervate the character, and to undermine industrious habits. The views of the Guardians in these respects are entertained by other experienced persons and supported by positive evidence.

"The Guardians believe that the cotton operatives generally would not, if not incited thereto, object to work for their relief, and that he who expects support without work affords some evidence of the necessity for its enforcement. Employment must be more agreeable to a man of proper principles than idleness, and even a partial return for support than entire dependence; and it is the bounden duty of the Guardians to encourage the inculcation of these principles.

"In furtherance of this object it is their intention as it is also their duty to require the performance of work during the present crisis, but they wish to do it considerately and humanely, and in such a manner as is consistent with the interests of both the poor and the ratepayers, which they believe to be identical.

"Although the distress in the Lancaster Union has not hitherto been as severe as in some other parts, the want of work has in many cases been severely felt. The comparatively small increase in the number of applicants for relief, and the efforts made by the operatives who are wholly or partially out of work, strikingly manifest their desire to avoid reliance upon the rates, and enable the Guardians to join in the general testimony as to their exemplary conduct under the trying circumstances.

"The men who have become chargeable to this Union have been set to work under superintendence to repair and form roads and remove earth. They have not been unduly taxed, and provisions have been made against exposure to wet weather. They have generally performed the allotted work without complaint. The Guardians have good reason to believe that the out-door exercise has been an actual benefit to them, and has not unfitted them for their usual occupation. This experience confirms the opinion of the mill owners in the Union expressed several months ago.

"The Guardians feel their responsibility and the importance of the duties assigned to them, especially at present. They believe the resources of the Union, and the power vested in them by law, with the disposition manifested by the inhabitants, fully adequate to meet the emergency. It is their earnest desire to carry out the law in a judicious and sympathizing spirit, and with a view to the present and ulterior welfare of all concerned. They confidently look for the support and co-operation of those whom they represent; and they reasonably expect, amidst their onerous and painful duties, that it will be remembered by those who are disposed to criticise their proceedings, that they are influenced by views and considerations founded on experience, knowledge, and information peculiarly within their own reach. They are at all times ready to attend to any representation or complaint made to them through their clerk, and are desirous of acting in unison with the promoters of any scheme of private benevolence.

"They venture to record their opinion that any system of private aid to be truly benevolent in its results ought to be not only guarded with sufficient checks against imposition, but also associated, as far as possible, with employment.

"The labour of the men may, in this neighbourhood, be remunerative by its being rendered contributory to the convenience and enjoyment of the inhabitants, as it has already been; and if the work of women be not equally beneficial, it may be made highly advantageous to themselves as a means of instruction in domestic requirements and otherwise, which is so urgently needed by many of the female mill hands.

"The Guardians trust that the law relating to the employment of able-bodied recipients of relief will therefore be strictly maintained by the Poor Law Board. They are glad to find a general and growing opinion in its favour in this Union; and they hope that whilst during the present season of adversity suitable relief is afforded to those who are unable to help themselves, such relief, whether public or private, will be prudently administered. They believe that thus the moral and social health of the poor will remain undeteriorated by the calamity; and that on the return of prosperity, although bereft of their savings and many necessary effects, they will still retain their vigorous self-reliance and industrious habits, instead of being left demoralized and dependent paupers, as on former occasions, and under evil influences which the lapse of years would fail to eradicate.

"It appears to the Guardians that the greatest difficulty in meeting the present distress, and that which will require the most careful attention, consists, not in the raising of funds, but in the proper distribution of them. The best systems of relief, whether legalized or otherwise, are productive, to some extent, of imposture, and are liable to engender a spirit of deception, indolence, improvidence, and pauperism, which are immeasureably greater evils than the simple absorption of funds. It becomes, therefore, the duty, as it must be the earnest desire, of those who with self-sacrificing efforts seek to ameliorate the condition of their less favoured fellow-men, to beware that the needed aid be not also a medium for the infusion of moral poison.

"The evils of a former vicious system of parochial relief are still, to some extent, manifest in the condition of the poor, particularly in some parts of England.

"Some of the mill hands may, by vigorous and persevering efforts, obtain other kinds of work; and as the period of the cotton dearth is indefinite, they who do so will act wisely. By this means many may help themselves, and thus decrease the number requiring aid. It is highly important that nothing be done which may tend to undermine such efforts.

"The moral and social improvement of the working classes is strikingly exhibited by the facts set forth in the pamphlet recently published by the Guardians, and they confidently hope that the present calamity may pass away without the progress of improvement being materially arrested."

Resolved, on the motion of Mr. Wearing, seconded by J. S. Harrison, esq., "That a copy of the foregoing minute be sent to the "editors of the Lancaster newspapers and to the Poor Law Board."

LETTER addressed to the POOR LAW BOARD by the GUARDIANS of the LANCASTER UNION.

MY LORDS AND GENTLEMEN, Lancaster, 7th May 1862.

A REMARK having been made to me a day or two ago by a member of the House of Commons, in reference to the employment of able-bodied mill men in return for out-door relief; and much having been stated in the newspapers on the subject, I deemed it advisable to obtain the opinion of the mill owners and managers here as to the ability of mill hands to perform ordinary out-door work, and as to whether such work would be likely to unfit them for their usual occupation.

With the concurrence of the Chairman, Vice-chairman, and several other Guardians of this Union, I beg respectfully to forward the enclosed written statement on the subject, which has been signed by all the mill owners in the Union several of whom have employed a large number of hands for many years.

The Guardians generally would, I have no doubt, approve of the maintenance of the out-door relief regulation order, as it is much more easy for them to refrain from allowing out relief to able-bodied men, except in return for work, than it would be if the provisions of the order were abolished.

At the request of the Chairman and other Guardians, a copy of the mill owners' statement has been sent to each of the members for the borough of Lancaster.

I have, &c.

To the Poor Law Board, J. GRANT,
Whitehall, London. Clerk.

Enclosure to No. 8.

We, the undersigned owners and managers of cotton and silk mills in Lancaster and its neighbourhood, do hereby certify that we are of opinion that out-door work at this season of the year would not be injurious to able-bodied men usually employed in mills, nor, except long continued, unfit them for their ordinary occupation, provided that such men be not kept at work in wet weather nor required to perform an unreasonable task of work.

We are also of opinion that it is advisable to require from able-bodied men who derive support from the poor rate on account of want of employment, the performance of a proper quantity of work in return for the aid afforded them, rather than that such men be supported in a state of inaction.

No. 9.

Reports of H. B. Farnall, Esq., Special Commissioner, to the Right Honourable C. Pelham Villiers, M.P.

Sir, Manchester, 20th October 1862.

In accordance with your instructions, I have now the honour of presenting to you the following report upon those Unions in the counties of Lancaster, Chester, and Derby which form the cotton manufacturing district.

These Unions are twenty-four in number, and I now enumerate them, giving priority to the most deeply pauperized:

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| Ashton-under-Lyne. | Haslingden. | Macclesfield. |
| Preston. | Todmorden. | Lancaster. |
| Blackburn. | Bury. | Wigan. |
| Glossop. | Prestwich. | Chorlton. |
| Manchester. | Oldham. | Warrington. |
| Stockport. | Chorley. | Bolton. |
| Rochdale. | Salford. | Barton-upon-Irwell. |
| Burnley. | Clitheroe. | Leigh. |

These Unions contain 386 townships, the population of which in 1861 was 1,927,151.

Their net rateable value in 1856 was 5,308,735.

In the first week of October 1861 the total pauperism of these Unions was 43,335, or 2·3 per cent. on their population; but in the first week of October 1862 their total pauperism was 168,038, or 8·7 per cent. on the population.

The present pauperism, therefore, of these Unions shows an increase of 124,703, or 287·5 per cent. as compared with the corresponding period of last year.

The cost of out-door relief in these Unions for the first week of October 1861 was 2,268*l.* 9*s.* 7*d.*; the cost of out-door relief for the first week of October 1862 was 10,029*l.* 10*s.* 2*d.*, being an increase of 7,761*l.* 0*s.* 7*d.* per week, or 342·2 per cent.

The cost of in-maintenance and out-door relief for the half-year ended September 1861, based upon the expenditure for the first week in October 1861, was 93,096*l.*, or 4¼*d.* in the pound on the net rateable value of the 24 Unions above named; but the cost of in-maintenance and out-door relief for the half-year ended September 1862, based upon the expenditure for the first week in October 1862, was 305,292*l.*, or 1*s.* 1¾*d.* in the pound on the net rateable value of the same Unions.

The increase, therefore, of expenditure in in-maintenance and out-door relief for six months may be estimated at 212,196*l.*, or 9½*d.* in the pound on the net rateable value of these Unions.

The above facts and figures represent the condition of these 24 Unions collectively; but it is necessary, as it seems to me, that I should show you the exact position of each of these Unions, and I therefore beg to refer you to the annexed table, marked "A," which will give you the information relative to the position of each of these Unions which I have set forth above as a whole.

I now pass from the pauperism of this district to the condition of the workpeople who are being aided by Local Committees of charity.

I have received authentic reports from 47 Local Committees of charity, and I am therefore enabled to inform you that within these districts the following state of affairs at present exists:—

There are usually 352,240 operatives and workpeople employed.

At present there are 79,654 of these persons in full work.

There are 129,414 of these persons now working short time.

There are 143,172 of these persons now wholly unemployed.

The weekly loss of wages is 117,112*l.*

The 47 Local Committees are formed of the principal landowners, the ministers of religion, and the employers of labour.

They are at present aiding 174,317 persons, about one-third of whom are also receiving parochial relief.

You will observe, therefore, that the total number of persons who are either receiving parish relief or who are being charitably aided by the Local Committees is 284,249 or 14·8 per cent. on the total population of the 24 Unions to which this report applies.

I am enabled to state that the treasurers of these Unions have at present 63,923*l.* 2*s.* 5*d.* in hand, and further that the Central General Committee of Relief at Manchester have at their disposal upwards of 140,000*l.*, a fund which is almost daily increased by large contributions.

There is also a fund at the disposal of the Lord Mayor of London amounting at present to about 45,000*l.*

In addition to these sums, the Local Committees have received about 98,000*l.*, and the contributions from local sources are coming in weekly.

I annex a copy of the Report of the Central Executive Committee at Manchester, dated 30th September 1862; Copy of an instructional letter from the same Committee to the Local Committees of Relief, dated 29th September 1862; Copy of a circular from the same Committee relative to vagrancy, dated September 1862; Copy of a letter from the same Committee, dated 8th September 1862; Copies of tables prepared by myself showing the pauperism and its cost in the cotton manufacturing district from week to week; also seven tables showing the form in which applications for grants are made to the Central Committee; and also copy of a letter and a form of queries which I forwarded to the Local Relief Committees, dated 10th September 1862.

I have the satisfaction of adding that the great majority of the Boards of Guardians and of the Local Committees recognize and act upon the principles of the Poor Law Amendment Act.

I have also to add that the spirit and conduct of the unemployed workpeople is good, that their health is as good as usual, and that crime is not on the increase.

I have, &c.

To the Right Hon. C. P. Villiers, M.P. H. B. Farnall,

Sir, Manchester, 6th December 1862.

I beg to present you with the following report on the state of the cotton manufacturing districts, which I have drawn up as concisely as possible, but which will, as it seems to me, accurately convey to you the present position of the districts adverted to.

The names of the distressed Unions are as follows :—

|---|---|---|
| 1. Ashton-under-Lyne. | 10. The Fylde. | 19. Preston. |
| 2. Barton-upon-Irwell. | 11. Garstang. | 20. Prestwich. |
| 3. Blackburn. | 12. Glossop. | 21. Rochdale. |
| 4. Bolton. | 13. Haslingden. | 22. Saddleworth. |
| 5. Burnley. | 14. Lancaster. | 23. Salford. |
| 6. Bury. | 15. Leigh. | 24. Stockport. |
| 7. Chorley. | 16. Macclesfield. | 25. Todmorden. |
| 8. Chorlton. | 17. Manchester. | 26. Warrington. |
| 9. Clitheroe. | 18. Oldham. | 27. Wigan. |

The names of the above Unions which are the most distressed are as follows :—

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| 1. Ashton-under-Lyne. | 5. Glossop. | 9. Preston. |
| 2. Blackburn. | 6. Haslingden. | 10. Rochdale. |
| 3. Burnley. | 7. Manchester. | 11. Stockport. |
| 4. Bury. | 8. Oldham. | 12. Todmorden. |

The total net rateable value of the 27 Unions which I have named was, in the year 1856, 5,545,111*l.*

The population of the same Unions in 1861 was 1,984,955.

The total number of paupers who were relieved by the guardians of the above 27 Unions for the week ended the 22d ultimo was 259,385, and the total number who were so relieved in the corresponding week of last year was 53,206, so that there was an increase at the date first named of 206,179, or 387·5 per cent.

The present per-centage of pauperism on the population of these Unions is 13·1 ; in the corresponding week of last year it was 2·7.

The per-centage of pauperism on the population of each of the Unions named as the most distressed is as follows :—

|---|---|---|---|
| Ashton-under-Lyne | 25·1 | Manchester | 19·9 |
| Blackburn | 19·4 | Oldham | 14·6 |
| Burnley | 11·2 | Preston | 20·4 |
| Bury | 11·7 | Rochdale | 15·0 |
| Glossop | 16·1 | Stockport | 12·8 |
| Haslingden | 16·4 | Todmorden | 16·5 |

The classes of the total pauperism are,—

|---|---|
| Old and infirm | 36,815 |
| Able-bodied adults | 97,796 |
| Persons under 16 years of age | 124,774 |
| Total | 259,385 |

The total weekly cost of out-door relief for the week ended the 22d ultimo was 17,681*l.* 7*s.* 8*d.*; in the corresponding week of last year it was 2,604*l.* 16*s.* 1*d.*; so that there is an increase, weekly, in out-relief of 15,076*l.* 11*s.* 7*d.*, or 578·0 per cent.

The total weekly cost of in-maintenance, at the rate of 3*s.* per head, was, at the date named, 1,881*l.*; in the corresponding week of last year it was 1,556*l.*; so that there is an increase, weekly, of 332*l.* in in-maintenance, or 21·3 per cent.

The total weekly cost, therefore, of out-relief and in-maintenance is now 19,569*l.* 7*s.* 8*d.*, which is at the rate of 1,017,585*l.* per annum, or 3*s.* 8*d.* in the pound for relief alone on the total net rateable value of the whole of the Unions named, but it is necessary to deduct 25 per cent. from this net rateable value for irrecoverable rates, empty property, &c., and therefore the annual expenditure above named is at the rate of 4*s.* 10¾*d.* in the pound on the total net rateable value of the 27 Unions, after the necessary deduction of 25 per cent.

The present total weekly cost of out-relief and in-maintenance in each of the 12 Unions named as the most distressed, if continued through a year, would be as follows :—

| | £ | | £ |
|---|---|---|---|
| Ashton-under-Lyne | 121,992 | Manchester | 157,196 |
| Blackburn | 68,172 | Oldham | 64,220 |
| Burnley | 33,696 | Preston | 96,356 |
| Bury | 40,508 | Rochdale | 59,228 |
| Glossop | 16,796 | Stockport | 58,396 |
| Haslingden | 45,240 | Todmorden | 18,720 |

The following is the rate in the pound on the net rateable value of each of the 12 Unions just named, after deducting 25 per cent., which would meet the above annual expenditure :—

| | s. | d. | | s. | d. |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Ashton-under-Lyne | 11 | 4¾ | Manchester | 5 | 8¼ |
| Blackburn | 7 | 7½ | Oldham | 8 | 2½ |
| Burnley | 5 | 4½ | Preston | 8 | 2 |
| Bury | 4 | 6 | Rochdale | 6 | 5¾ |
| Glossop | 12 | 8½ | Stockport | 6 | 8½ |
| Haslingden | 9 | 3¼ | Todmorden | 6 | 4¾ |

But, under ordinary circumstances, the total cost of out-relief and in-maintenance for a year, based on the expenditure for the week ended the 22d November 1861, in these 12 most distressed Unions, was as under :—

| | £ | | £ |
|---|---|---|---|
| Ashton-under-Lyne | 8,268 | Manchester | 37,752 |
| Blackburn | 12,012 | Oldham | 8,320 |
| Burnley | 6,760 | Preston | 17,264 |
| Bury | 8,632 | Rochdale | 8,840 |
| Glossop | 1,144 | Stockport | 8,632 |
| Haslingden | 3,484 | Todmorden | 3,536 |

The following is the rate in the pound on the net rateable value of each of the 12 Unions named, (without deducting 25 per cent., which is unnecessary in ordinary times,) which would meet the above expenditure :—

| | s. | d. | | s. | d. |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Ashton-under-Lyne | 0 | 7 | Manchester | 1 | 0¼ |
| Blackburn | 1 | 0 | Oldham | 0 | 9½ |
| Burnley | 0 | 9¾ | Preston | 1 | 1¼ |
| Bury | 0 | 8¾ | Rochdale | 0 | 8¾ |
| Glossop | 0 | 7¾ | Stockport | 0 | 8⅞ |
| Haslingden | 0 | 6½ | Todmorden | 0 | 10⅞ |

The very moderate rate in the pound, therefore, usually expended in relief in one year by these 12 now distressed Unions, renders it at once obvious that they could avail themselves of the borrowing powers contained in the Union Relief Aid Act, and repay any sums borrowed without entailing a real burden upon the ratepayers.

The total amount of cash in the hands of the treasurers of the 27 Unions was, on the 22d ult., 54,354*l.* 1*s.* 5*d.*

|---|---|---|---|
| 1st week in October 1862 | 74,921 | 2 | 7 |
| 2d ditto | 63,923 | 2 | 5 |
| 3d ditto | 60,261 | 4 | 4 |
| 4th ditto | 57,052 | 8 | 7 |
| 1st week in November 1862 | 48,986 | 3 | 7 |
| 2d ditto | 64,638 | 3 | 7 |
| 3d ditto | 58,793 | 9 | 4 |
| 4th ditto | 54,354 | 1 | 5 |

During the same eight weeks the expenditure of these 27 Unions in out-relief was as follows :—

|---|---|---|---|
| 1st week in October 1862 | 10,029 | 10 | 2 |
| 2d ditto | 10,648 | 13 | 8 |
| 3d ditto | 11,626 | 10 | 9 |
| 4th ditto | 13,156 | 19 | 8 |
| 1st week in November 1862 | 14,411 | 5 | 4 |
| 2d ditto | 15,672 | 11 | 3 |
| 3d ditto | 16,646 | 0 | 7 |
| 4th ditto | 17,681 | 7 | 8 |

The average weekly balance, therefore, in the treasurers' hands, during the last eight weeks, was 60,366*l.* 4*s.* 6*d.*, and the average weekly expenditure in out-relief for the same period was 13,734*l.* 2*s.* 4*d.*

It will be observed that the rate of expenditure has gradually and continually increased during the last eight weeks, but it is satisfactory to add that, notwithstanding the additional pauperism and expenditure, the Guardians of the 27 Unions have increased the rate of out-door relief to each recipient, as compared with the rate in the corresponding week of last year, by 2¾*d.* per head, which increase costs 2,824*l.* per week ; the average relief per week to each out-door pauper in the Unions adverted to is now 1*s.* 5¼*d.* ; in the corresponding week of last year it was 1*s.* 2½*d.* ; there is therefore an increase of 19·0 per cent.

I have the satisfaction of informing you that neither the Executive Committee nor I have hitherto received any complaints from the poor of insufficiency of relief or charitable aid.

I now beg to direct your attention to the position and proceedings of the Central Executive Relief Committee, of which I am a member.

The financial position of this Committee is as follows :—

| Balance in the hands of their treasurer this day | 218,300 |
| Cash in the hands of Liverpool Committee, but voted to this Committee, say | 40,000 |
| Cash in the hands of the Bridgewater House Committee, but voted to this Committee, say | 50,000 |
| Manchester subscriptions promised and now being collected, say | 55,000 |
| | 363,300 |

|---|---|
| Subscriptions promised from Edinburgh, Leeds, Halifax, Bradford, &c., at the very least - - - | 80,000 |
| | 443,300 |
| The Committee have expended up to this day - | 104,000 |
| Independently of the above sums, the various resident Local Committees of charity have raised in their own localities for the relief of their own poor - - - - - - - | 220,000 |
| The Lord Mayor of London has received, say - | 250,000 |
| | £1,017,300 |

It thus becomes evident that upwards of a million of money has up to this date been subscribed, while at the same time it is to be remembered that both the funds of the Central Committee and the funds of the Lord Mayor of London are being daily and very largely augmented.

I am enabled to state that of the total sum which is placed at the disposal of the Central Committee at Manchester the county of Lancaster has contributed upwards of 400,000*l.*

The amount of grants made by the Executive Committee to the local resident Committees for the last eight weeks is 88,275*l.* 8*s.*

The amount of out-relief given by the guardians of the poor in the 27 distressed Unions for the same period is 109,872*l.* 19*s.* 1*d.*

The number of resident Local Committees, through whom the grants of the Executive Committee are at present disbursed, is 105.

I have received returns up to the 22d ultimo from 78 of these Committees, and I am enabled to report that they were then aiding 172,010 persons who were not also receiving parochial relief from the guardians of the poor, and that the expenditure of the 78 Local Committes for the week ended the 22d ultimo was 15,863*l.* 14*s.* I think it right to observe that some of the 105 Local Committees have not as yet applied to the Executive Committee for aid, and that most of those from whom I have not yet received returns have only been lately formed.

The total number of persons included in this report who are either receiving parochial relief or are aided only by the Charitable Committees is 431,395, or 21·7 per cent. on the population of the Unions adverted to in this report.

The present total weekly expenditure by the guardians in out-relief and by the Committees of Charity is 33,545*l.* 1*s.* 8*d.*, or 1*s.* 7¼*d.* per week to each recipient.

The number of operatives usually employed in the cotton manufacturing district is, in round numbers, 355,000.

Of whom 40,000 are in full work.
135,000 are on short time.
180,000 are wholly unemployed.

I must observe, however, that change of employment amongst these operatives is so frequent as to render it almost impossible to readily ascertain their exact position.

The estimated weekly loss of wages by them is about 137,000*l.*

I will now exemplify the action of the Executive Relief Committee more in detail.

On Monday the 1st instant, 24 resident Local Committees applied to the Executive Committee for grants of money; each of them obtained a sufficient grant, but before they did so the following facts were ascertained by the Committee; viz., that the population of the 24 districts was 253,920; that they contained 483 mills; that in those mills 8,043 operatives were working full time, that 33,535 were working short time, and that 44,409 were wholly unemployed; that 33,432*l.* had been subscribed from local sources within the 24 districts; that 25,572*l.* had been sent into those districts; that the 24 Committees had then in hand 16,624*l.*, and that they had been promised 15,630*l.* which they had not then received; and further than this, confidential written communications as to the condition of the 24 districts were laid before the Executive Committee.

I am very anxious to give you some prospect of an amelioration of the calamity which at present pervades this district, and therefore I beg to inform you that those members of the Executive Committee who are in a position to know most concerning the cotton trade, express a hope, but with diffidence, that in the first or second week in March next the supply of cotton (independently of that from America), and the price of it, will enable manufacturers to open their mills for three or four days a week during the remainder of the year.

The expression of this opinion leads me to endeavour to estimate the probable means and cost of relieving and aiding the operatives and others from this date to the 14th of March next, a period of, say, 13 weeks :—

|---|---|
| At present the number of persons receiving out-door relief from Boards of Guardians is - - | 256,390 |
| Estimated increase of pauperism during the above period 50,000, or, say, 4,000 per week - - | 4,000 |
| Total number of paupers to be relieved weekly | 260,390 |

The cost of maintaining the above paupers at the rate of 2*s.* per head per week for 13 weeks is 338,507*l.*, or 1*s.* 7⅝*d.* in the pound on the net rateable value of the 27 Unions, after deducting 25 per cent. from that value.

I am of opinion that this expenditure can be easily met by the rates of these Unions, assisted, as they now are, by the Union Relief Aid Bill.

I now pass on to the number of operatives who are at present aided by the Local Resident Relief Committees, and who are not at the same time relieved by Boards of Guardians :—

| On the 22d ultimo the number of persons who were thus aided was - - - - | 172,010 |
| But as in the case of the paupers it will be necessary to add 4,000 per week - - - | 4,000 |
| Number of operatives who are not pauperised, but who are aided by the Committees - - | 176,010 |

The cost of aiding the above operatives at the rate of 2*s.* per head per week, and 6*d.* each per week for fuel and clothing, is 22,001*l.* per week, or 286,013*l.* for 13 weeks.

If you will revert to the statement of accounts at page 3 of this report, you will find that the Executive Committee has now available funds amounting to 443,300*l.*, and I am able to inform you that the Resident Local Committees have now in hand fully 60,000*l.*, and further, that on the 29th ultimo the Lord Mayor of London held a similar balance, so that there is an available fund of 563,300*l.* to meet an estimated cost of, say, 300,000*l.*

I must, however, beg you to remember that such a contingency as a wide-spread fever or other disease springing out of poverty is not included in the above estimate, and also that there is no certainty of the whole of the operatives obtaining three days' work per week in March next, or that such work will continue for the remainder of the year; it should also be kept in mind that, in the event of a great number of the operatives being without work, their emigration may become necessary, so that in either of the above events a heavy balance in the hands of the Executive Committee may be of vast importance to the country at large.

I have, &c.

To the Right. Hon. C. P. Villiers, M.P. H. B. Farnall,
&c. &c. &c. Special Commissioner.

11. Stockport.
12. Todmorden.

The total net rateable value of the 27 Unions named was, in the year 1856, 5,545,111*l.*

The population of these Unions in 1861 was 1,984,955.

In my last Report to you, dated the 6th ult., I showed you that the total number of paupers who were relieved by the Guardians of the above 27 Unions for the week ended the 22d November last was 259,385. The following table will give you the total number of paupers so relieved weekly from that date up to the 10th instant:—

| Week ended. | In-door Paupers. | Out-door Paupers. | Total Paupers. |
| 1862. | | | |
| 29th November | 12,579 | 256,390 | 268,969 |
| 6th December | 12,527 | 259,456 | 271,983 |

| 10th January | 12,075 | 232,232 | 244,307 |

You will observe that the maximum number of paupers was attained by these Unions in the week ended the 6th ult., when 271,983 paupers were relieved. Since that date the number of paupers has gradually decreased; and on the 10th instant there were 244,307 persons in the receipt of parochial relief, so that a decrease of 27,676 has taken place.

This decrease is mainly attributable to the re-employment of some of the workpeople, excepting in the case of the Blackburn Union, where 5,000 operatives who were in the receipt of parochial relief have been transferred from the books of the Blackburn Board of Guardians to those of the Blackburn Local Relief Committee.

In my last Report to you, at page 5 [50], paragraph 1 [3], I ventured to estimate the average weekly number of out-door paupers from the date of that Report up to the 14th of March next, at 260,390. The weekly average, however, since the date of that estimate, has been only 249,601, and there is therefore some assurance that in all probability the estimate then formed will not be exceeded.

The per-centage of pauperism on the population of these Unions on the 10th instant was 12·3. In the corresponding week of last year it was 3·4.

The following Table gives you the per-centage of pauperism on the population of each of the 12 most distressed Unions as it stood on the 22d of November last, and on the 6th of December last, and also on the 10th instant.

| Name of Union. | Week ended 22d of November 1862. | Week ended 6th of December 1862. | Week ended 10th of January 1863. |

| Stockport | 12·8 | 12·7 | 8·6 |
| Todmorden | 16·5 | 16·7 | 15·2 |

The total weekly cost of out-door relief in the 27 Unions adverted to for the week ended the 10th inst. was 16,633*l.* 15*s.* 1*d.*; in the corresponding week of last year it was 3,406*l.* 11*s.* 0*d.*; so that there is an increase in out-relief of 13,227*l.* 4*s.* 1*d.*, or 388·6 per cent.

On the 6th ultimo the total weekly cost of out-door relief was 18,728*l.* 8*s.* 10*d.* Comparing this expenditure with that for the week ended the 10th inst. there is a decrease of 2,094*l.* 13*s.* 9*d.*

The total cost of in-maintenance, at the rate of 3*s.* per head per week, was on the 10th inst. 1,811*l.*; in the corresponding week of last year it was 1,748*l.*, so that there is an increase weekly of 63*l.*, or 3·6 per cent.

The total weekly cost, therefore, on the 10th instant, both of out-relief and in-maintenance, was 18,445*l.*, which is at the rate of 959,140*l.* per annum, or 3*s.* 5½*d.* in the pound for relief alone, on the total net rateable value of the whole of the twenty-seven Unions named; but it is necessary to deduct 25 per cent. from this net rateable value for irrecoverable rates, empty property, &c., and therefore the annual expenditure above-named is at the rate of 4*s.* 7¼*d.* in the pound on the total net rateable value of the 27 Unions, after the necessary deduction of 25 per cent.

The following table will show you the total annual cost of out-relief and in-maintenance in each of the 12 most distressed Unions, if based on the expenditure for the week ended the 22d of November last, and if based on the expenditure for the week ended the 10th instant :—

| Name of Union. | Annual Expenditure based on that for the Week ended 22d of November 1862. | Annual Expenditure based on that for the Week ended 10th of January 1863. |

The following table will show you the rate in the pound on the net rateable value of each of these 12 Unions, after deducting 25 per cent., which would meet the above expenditure :—

But under ordinary circumstances the total cost of out-relief and in-maintenance for a year, based on the expenditure for the week ended the 22d of November 1861, in these 12 most distressed Unions, was as under :—

The total amount of cash in the hands of the treasurers of the 27 Unions on the 10th inst. was 52,227*l.* 8*s.* 11*d.*

Looking back at the treasurers' accounts for the same Unions during the last seven weeks, I find that the average balance in their hands was 63,110*l.* 5*s.* 9*d.* per week; and I also find that during the same seven weeks the average weekly expenditure of these 27 Unions in out-relief was 18,058*l.* 4*s.* 8½*d.*

The average relief per week to each out-door pauper in these Unions, for the week ended the 10th inst., was 1*s.* 5⅛*d.*; in the corresponding week of last year it was 1*s.* 2½*d.*; there is, therefore, an increase of 2⅝*d.*, or 18·1 per cent.

I have reason to believe that this average amount of relief, viz., 1*s.* 5⅛*d.*, is increased to 1*s.* 9*d.*, by the partial employment of certain members of the families relieved; it is, however, to be remembered that the persons thus relieved are, for the most part, unemployed skilled workpeople, whose usual wages are high, and commensurate with their industry and ability.

Under this scale of relief a family of five persons would be in the receipt of 8*s.* 9*d.* per week; but the same family would, under ordinary circumstances, where three of them were capable of earning awges, be in the receipt of 1*l.* 10*s.* per week; a fact which justifies me in assuming that the amount of parochial relief which they are now receiving is not calculated to demoralize them.

I have the satisfaction of again informing you that neither the Executive Committee nor I have received any complaints from the poor, and I am also enabled to inform you that the health of the people has been sustained. In connexion with this subject I beg to bring under your notice a copy of a Report which I made to the Central Executive Relief Committee on the 19th inst., relative to the existence of typhus fever in the cotton districts.

"On the 8th inst. I issued a circular to each of the 157 medical "officers in the 27 Unions, requesting them to answer the following "questions:—

"1. Are you at present attending cases of typhus fever in your "district?

"2. If so, do they exceed those you were attending this time last "year? and state the number in excess.

"3. Is this typhus fever of a malignant and dangerous character, "and does it originate in a want of food and clothing?

"The medical officers have returned to me 141 of my forms of "queries, duly filled up; and I am now enabled to report that 111 of "these districts are wholly free from typhus fever; that in 17 other "districts typhus fever in a mild form exists; and that in 13 other "districts typhus fever of a malignant character exists; there being "105 of these cases, of which 27 are in the Fever Hospital at Preston, "24 are in the Manchester Fever Hospital, 14 are in the Farnworth "Workhouse, 10 are in the Hyde district, and 10 are in the Accring-"ton district; while the remaining 20 cases are in 8 districts, which "need not be specified.

"The excess of these cases, as compared with those in the corre-"sponding week of last year, is 94.

"Mr. Ridley, the medical officer of the Preston Fever Hospital, "informs me, that 'the fever has probably originated in want of food "'and clothing, and in mental depression,' and 'that to these causes "'and its very contagious character may be attributed its rapid spread "'in low, dirty, and poor neighbourhoods;' he also says, 'there is a "'considerable decrease; the number on the books on the 12th of "'January is 27; on the 29th of November last it was 68.'

" Six of the medical officers of districts where malignant typhus " fever exists are of opinion that it did not originate in a want of " food and clothing; six other medical officers are of the same opinion " as Mr. Ridley, and they state that low diet and insufficient clothing " are strong pre-disponents; and they call my attention to the sanitary " condition of the districts in which this form of fever is found.

" I trust that these remarks will induce every Board of Guardians " and every Local Committee to take care that the scale of relief so " frequently and so strongly recommended by your Committee shall be " invariably adopted and maintained."

I beg now to direct your attention to the operations of the Central Executive Relief Committee, of which I am, ex officio, a member.

The financial position of this Committee is as follows:—

The amount of grants made by the Executive Committee during the last eight weeks to the local resident committees is 112,015*l.*, being an average of 14,002*l.* per week.

The number of resident local committees reported to the Central Executive Committee as being in operation on the 26th ult. is 141; and their returns then showed that they were aiding 181,573 persons, who were also receiving parochial relief; and that they were further aiding 236,310 persons, who were not in the receipt of parochial relief; making together 417,883 persons.

At page 4 [49] of my last Report to you I stated that 78 of these local committees were then aiding 172,010 persons, who were not also receiving parochial relief. I have, therefore, to direct your attention to the fact that this Report refers to 141 local committees who are relieving 236,310 persons who are not also receiving parochial relief; and I have further to observe, that 36 of these local committees have come under the notice of the Central Executive Committee since the date of my last Report to you.

Within the districts, under the superintendence of these 141 local committees, there are 533,959 workpeople, of whom, speaking in round numbers, 355,000 are cotton operatives, the remaining 178,959 being persons whose means of livelihood depend mainly on the prosperity of the former class.

In order to estimate the total number of persons whom these 533,959 workpeople represent, it will be necessary to multiply that number by two, which gives a product of 1,067,918 souls.

Of these 533,959 workpeople, 121,129 are working full time; 165,600 are working short time; 247,230 are wholly unemployed; and the 141 local committees estimate the weekly loss of wages at 169,744*l.*, or 8,826,688*l.* per annum.

The Guardians are now granting out-door relief to 232,232 persons, and the local committees are aiding 236,310 persons who are not also receiving parocial relief, making a total of 468,542 persons; so that 23·6 per cent. of the entire population of the 27 Unions adverted to in this Report are now receiving parochial relief or aid from the local relief committees.

I have already stated that there are 468,542 persons in the receipt of either parochial relief or of charity; and I have now to state that the weekly expenditure of the 141 local committees, in ordinary relief, was reported on the 26th ult. to be 24,743*l.* 6*s.* 9*d.*, and the amount of out-door relief by the Guardians is 16,633*l.* 15*s.* 1*d.*, so that there is a total weekly expenditure of 41,377*l.* 1*s.* 10*d.*, or 1*s.* 9¼*d.* to each recipient per week.

The above result should, as it seems to me, remove those apprehensions which have been expressed lest the scale of relief should assume excessive proportions, and so enervate the industry of a usually highly paid workpeople.

If you will revert to my statement of accounts at page 12,* you will find that the Executive Committee have available funds amounting to 719,931*l.* 2*s.* 3*d.*, from which, however, must be deducted 14,530*l.* 17*s.* 10*d.* on account of the New South Wales fund, which is dedicated to school purposes, so that the net balance for general purposes amounts to 705,400*l.* 4*s.* 5*d.*

Supposing, therefore, that the present weekly expenditure, viz., 24,743*l.* 6*s.* 9*d.* of the 141 local committees, and adding thereto 3,000*l.* per week for clothing, should be the average weekly expenditure of the committees for the future, it becomes apparent that the present funds of the Executive Committee will meet that expenditure for about 26 weeks.

In the last Report which I had the honour of presenting to you, I stated that those members of the Executive Committee who are in a position to know most concerning the cotton trade expressed a hope that the supply of cotton and the price of it would enable manufacturers to open their mills for three or four days a week during the present year.

I now beg to lay before you the grounds upon which that hope was based, and through which it is now, in all probability, to be realized.

I cannot do this more concisely or clearly than by quoting the words of the Report on this subject, which was presented by Mr. Edmund Ashworth to the Central Executive Committee, on the 6th instant:—

"Our weekly consumption during 1862 has averaged 22,990 bales, "which, compared with 1860, the last year of full working, when the "weekly average was 48,700 bales, gave a little short of three days "a week. If the American blockade continues we may fairly assume "that the supply of 1863 will be similar to that of 1862, with such "additions only as may be caused by increase of growth, stimulated "by high prices. These supplies, the growth of 1862, are now "gathered and being packed or brought to market. I take the esti-"mates of Messrs. Stead Brothers of Liverpool. It appears we "received from Egypt, Brazils, West Indies, &c., 300,907 bales, and "from India 1,071,768. The estimated increase from the first-named "places is 50 per cent., or 150,000 bales; and from the East Indies "25 per cent., or 250,000; total, 400,000 bales. From this we must "deduct the less amount of stock in Liverpool now, as compared with

* This Statement is omitted.

" January 1862, being 265,350 bales. The probable increase for 1863 " will thus be 134,650 bales. It is here assumed that the Indian crop " about to arrive will exceed that of last year as 1,000,000 is to " 1,250,000 bales. In comparing the consumption of 1862 with that " of 1860, due allowance is to be made for the difference in weight " and quality of the bales. East India bales average about 384 lbs., " American about 444 lbs., and East India cotton contains 10 per cent. " more dirt and waste. Taking 1860 as the gauge of consumption, " and measuring last year's consumption of 22,990 bales weekly with " the heavy bales of 1860, we shall find they barely represent 19,000 " bales per week. In like manner, adding the estimated 134,650, we " shall make the weekly supply of 1863 into 21,000 bales, against the " 48,700 of 1860. The inquiries I have made convince me that all " funds intrusted to this Committee should be carefully husbanded."

After this Report had been submitted to the Committee, a conclusion was unanimously adopted that there would be amply sufficient cotton for half-time employment this year.

I annex a copy of the Report of the Central Executive Committee to the General Committee ;* also a memorandum drawn up by Lord Derby, and adopted by the Central Committee ; also a statement of grants from the general fund, and the New South Wales fund to 31st December 1862 ; and also a balance sheet of the accounts of the Central Executive Committee to the same date.

I am, &c.

H. B. Farnall,

Sir, Manchester, 12th March 1863.

I beg to present you with the following Report on the state of the Cotton Manufacturing Districts which are included within the following Unions, viz. :—

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| 1. Ashton-under-Lyne. | 10. Fylde, The. | 19. Preston. |
| 2. Barton-upon-Irwell. | 11. Garstang. | 20. Prestwich. |
| 3. Blackburn. | 12. Glossop. | 21. Rochdale. |
| 4. Bolton. | 13. Haslingden. | 22. Saddleworth. |
| 5. Burnley. | 14. Lancaster. | 23. Salford. |
| 6. Bury. | 15. Leigh. | 24. Stockport. |
| 7. Chorley. | 16. Macclesfield. | 25. Todmorden. |
| 8. Chorlton. | 17. Manchester. | 26. Warrington. |
| 9. Clitheroe. | 18. Oldham. | 27. Wigan. |

The total net rateable value of the 27 Unions named was, in the year 1856, 5,545,111*l.*

The population of these Unions in 1861 was 1,984,955.

There are now 535,182 operatives and other workpeople dependent on the Cotton Trade within these Unions.

| During the same week the several Local Committees of Charity aided within the same Unions 226,452 persons who were not in the receipt of parochial relief - - - - - - - - | 226,452 |

| Total - - - | 480,617 |

There is, therefore, a decrease of 38,947 persons who were either receiving parochial relief or were aided by Committees of Charity.

There are now 153 Local Committees of Charity acting within the Unions to which I have adverted; but when last I reported to you there were 141 Local Committees.

| The cost of relief administered by the Guardians for the week ended the 28th ult. was - - - - | 15,925 |

| Total - - - | £38,710 |

|---|---|
| For the week ended the 10th of January last the cost of relief administered by the Guardians was - | 18,445 |
| And the weekly relief administered by the Local Committees was - - - - - - - | 24,743 |
| Total - - - | £43,188 |

There is, therefore, a decrease in the weekly expenditure by the Guardians and the Local Committees of 4,478*l.*

Of the 535,182 workpeople to whom I have already adverted, 139,746 are now working full time; 161,594 are working short time; 233,842 are wholly unemployed; and the 153 Local Committees estimate the weekly loss of wages at 182,897*l.*, or 9,510,644*l.* per annum.

In my last Report to you, dated the 21st of January 1863, I showed you that on the 26th of the previous month 121,129 persons were working full time; 165,600 were working short time; 247,230 were wholly unemployed, and that the weekly loss of wages had been estimated by the 141 Local Committees at 169,744*l.*, or 8,826,688*l.* per annum.

You will, therefore, now observe that I have on the faith of those returns to report, for the week ended the 28th ult. (as compared with the week ended the 26th of December last), an increase of 18,617 persons in full work; a decrease of 4,006 persons working short time; a decrease of 13,388 persons wholly unemployed; and an increase in the weekly loss of wages of 13,153*l.*, or 683,956*l.* per annum. It is, however, to be remembered that my Report for the 26th of December last embraced returns from 141 Local Committees, and that my present Report embraces returns from 153 Local Committees.

I have further to report to you that the 153 Local Committees spent during the week ended the 28th ult. 4,655*l.* in clothing, and that their incidental expenses amounted to 643*l.* during the same week.

I now proceed to give you the position of each of the 27 Unions named in this Report on the 28th ult.

In my last Report I showed you, at page 4 [55], that, on the 17th of January last, the available resources of the Central Committee amounted to 719,931*l.*

I am supplied weekly with reports from the Clerks of each of the Unions and from the Secretaries of each of the Local Committees, and none of them convey to me intelligence that the people are suffering in any way from ill health.

In my last Report to you, dated the 21st of January 1863, I showed you that the total number of paupers who were relieved by the Guardians of the above 27 Unions for the week ended the 6th of December last was 271,983. The following Table will give you the total number of paupers so relieved weekly from that date up to the 28th ultimo :—

| Week ended. | In-door Paupers. | Out-door Paupers. | Total Paupers. |

| 28th February - - | 11,454 | 203,764 | 215,218 |

Thus the total decrease of pauperism has been 56,765, and to this number may be added a decrease of 9,858 in the numbers aided by the Local Committees of Charity, making a total of 66,623 ; there can be no doubt that this result is attributable to increased employment, but, at the same time, it will not escape your observation that, although this decrease has taken place, there are still 215,218 paupers, and 226,452 persons not in receipt of parochial relief, who are still being relieved by the Local Committees of Charity, making a total of 441,670 persons who subsist at present either on the poor rates or on charity ; while, under ordinary circumstances, the total number of paupers at this season of the year in the 27 Unions, comprising the cotton manufacturing district, is only 48,948.

Those persons who estimate the cotton supply at from 20,000 to 21,000 bales per week against 48,000 bales per week in 1860 are probably as nearly right as possible, and therefore a sufficient supply is apparently forthcoming to employ the people half time during the remainder of the current year, and is adequate, as it is supposed, to meet the demand anticipated.

But although this supply of the raw material is attainable, it does not follow that the mill-owners will work it up ; that is a matter which very much depends upon price and upon the steadiness of the market, and at present the market is subjected to frequent and great fluctuations and to very sudden checks.

That there is an increase of employment there can be no doubt, but the prospects of the cotton operatives cannot be considered good until the supply of cotton is both larger and cheaper; and unless some other permanent resource is found from which they can themselves derive their substance, those operatives will require continuous relief.

In conclusion, I beg to inform you that the Central Executive Committee here are acting cordially with me in stimulating the Relief Committees and the Boards of Guardians to find manual and useful work for the able-bodied men whom they relieve; and it is my intention to visit the Relief Committees and the Boards of Guardians (as soon as they shall have considered the valuable information you have forwarded to them relative to rates of wages in the agricultural and manufacturing districts), and to assist them in organizing systems of manual work for all able-bodied men who are in the receipt of either parochial or charitable relief.

I annex a copy of the last Report of the Central Executive Committee to the General Committee,* and also a Tabular Statement, showing the pauperism and its cost, &c., &c., in the Cotton Manufacturing Districts for the weeks ended 7th of February 1863 and the 7th February 1861.

I am, &c.
H. B. Farnall,

SIR, Manchester, 10th April 1863.

I BEG to present you with the following Report on the state of the Cotton Manufacturing Districts which are included within the following Unions, viz. :—

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| 1. Ashton-under-Lyne. | 10. Fylde, The. | 19. Preston. |
| 2. Barton-upon-Irwell. | 11. Garstang. | 20. Prestwich. |
| 3. Blackburn. | 12. Glossop. | 21. Rochdale. |
| 4. Bolton. | 13. Haslingden. | 22. Saddleworth. |
| 5. Burnley. | 14. Lancaster. | 23. Salford. |
| 6. Bury. | 15. Leigh. | 24. Stockport. |
| 7. Chorley. | 16. Macclesfield. | 25. Todmorden. |
| 8. Chorlton. | 17. Manchester. | 26. Warrington. |
| 9. Clitheroe. | 18. Oldham. | 27 Wigan. |

The total net rateable value of the 27 Unions named was, in the year 1856, 5,545,111*l.*

The population of these Unions in 1861 was 1,984,955.

There are now 536,635 operatives and other workpeople reported by the Local Relief Committees to be dependent on the Cotton Trade within these Unions.

| For the week ended the 28th ultimo the Guardians relieved 209,872 paupers - - - - | 209,872 |
| During the same week the several Local Committees of Charity aided within the same Unions 216,084 persons who were not in the receipt of parochial relief - - - - - - | 216,084 |
| Total - - - - - | 425,956 |
| For the week ended the 28th of February last the Guardians relieved 215,218 paupers, and the Local Committee 226,452 (see my report dated 12th March 1863) - - - - - | 441,670 |
| Decrease for the week ended 28th March, as compared with the week ended the 28th of February 1863 - - - - - - | 15,714 |

There are now 158 Local Committees of Charity acting with the Unions to which I have adverted, but when I last reported to you there were 153 Local Committees.

| The cost of relief administered by the Guardians for the week ended the 28th ultimo was - - - | 14,199 |
| The average weekly expenditure by the 158 Local Committees in relief during the month ended the 28th ultimo was - - - - - | 22,660 |
| Total - - - - | 36,859 |
| For the week ended the 28th of February last the cost of relief administered by the Guardians was 15,925*l.*, and the weekly relief administered by the Local Committees was 22,785*l.* (see my report dated 12th March 1863) - - - - | 38,710 |
| Decrease for the week ended 28th March as compared with the week ended 28th February 1863 - | 1,851 |

Of the 536,635 workpeople, to whom I have already adverted, 156,594 are now working full time, 145,095 are working short time, and 234,946 are wholly unemployed.

In my last report to you, dated the 12th of March 1863, I showed you that on the 28th of the previous month 139,746 persons were working full time, 161,594 were working short time, and 233,842 were wholly unemployed.

You will, therefore, now observe that I have, on the faith of those returns made by the several Local Committees, to report, for the week ended the 28th ultimo (as compared with the week ended the 28th February last), an increase of 16,848 persons in full work; a decrease of 16,499 persons working short time, and an increase of 1,104 persons wholly unemployed.

I have further to report to you that the average weekly expenditure of the 158 Local Committees in clothing during the month ended the 28th ultimo was 2,208*l.*, and that their average weekly incidental expenses amounted to 640*l.*

The cash in the hands of the treasurers of the 27 Unions named in this Report was on the 28th ultimo 70,709*l.*

In my last Report I showed you at page 5 [62], that, on the 21st February last, the available resources of the Central Committee amounted to 688,765*l.*

I have the satisfaction of informing you that the health of the people continues good.

In my last report to you, dated 12th March 1863, I showed you that the total number of paupers who were relieved by the Guardians of the above 27 Unions for the week ended the 6th of December last was 271,983. The following table will give you the total number of paupers so relieved weekly from that date up to the 28th ultimo.

| Week ended | In-door Paupers. | Out-door Paupers. | Total Paupers. |
| 1862. | | | |
| 13th December | 12,522 | 257,058 | 269,580 |
| 20th December | 12,463 | 251,954 | 264,417 |
| 27th December | 12,327 | 248,179 | 260,506 |
| 1863. | | | |
| 3d January | 12,163 | 241,937 | 254,100 |
| 10th January | 12,075 | 232,232 | 244,307 |
| 17th January | 11,958 | 227,442 | 239,400 |
| 24th January | 11,979 | 223,146 | 235,125 |
| 31st January | 11,824 | 216,200 | 228,024 |
| 7th February | 11,705 | 210,401 | 222,106 |
| 14th February | 11,646 | 206,720 | 218,366 |
| 21st February | 11,552 | 204,834 | 216,386 |
| 28th February | 11,454 | 203,764 | 215,218 |
| 7th March | 11,452 | 202,253 | 213,705 |
| 14th March | 11,450 | 198,944 | 210,394 |
| 21st March | 11,537 | 200,633 | 212,170 |
| 28th March | 11,458 | 198,414 | 209,872 |

Thus the total decrease of pauperism has been 62,111, and to this number may be added a decrease of 20,226 in the numbers aided by the Local Committees of Charity, making a total of 82,337; there can be no doubt that this result is attributable to increased employment, but, at the same time, it will not escape your observation that, although this decrease has taken place, there are still 209,872 paupers, and 216,084 persons not in receipt of parochial relief, who are still being relieved by the Local Committees of Charity, making a total of 425,956 persons who subsist at present either on the poor rates or on charity; while, under ordinary circumstances, the total number of paupers at this season of the year in the year 27 Unions comprising the cotton manufacturing district is only 48,553.

|---|---|---|---|
| Presuming that the present weekly expenditure by the Guardians in relief should be continued for 52 weeks, the amount in the £ on the net rateable value of 1856 required to meet such expenditure would be | 0 | 3 | $0\frac{1}{4}$ |
| The amount in the £ for all other expenditure out of the poor rates other than in-maintenance and out-relief (based on the expenditure for 1861) would be | 0 | 1 | $3\frac{1}{4}$ |
| Total | £0 | 4 | $4\frac{1}{2}$ |

But while this amount in the pound represents the average burden which would be imposed upon the ratepayers of the 27 Unions in the cotton manufacturing district there are certain of those Unions which would be more heavily taxed, viz. :—

| | £ | s. | d. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Ashton-under-Lyne would require for relief | 0 | 6 | $0\frac{3}{4}$ |
| For all other expenditure | 0 | 0 | 9 |
| Total | £0 | 6 | $9\frac{3}{4}$ |
| Blackburn would require for relief | 0 | 3 | $9\frac{3}{4}$ |
| For all other expenditure | 0 | 1 | 2 |
| Total | £0 | 4 | $11\frac{3}{4}$ |
| Glossop would require for relief | 0 | 9 | 2 |
| For all other expenditure | 0 | 2 | $2\frac{1}{4}$ |
| Total | £0 | 11 | $4\frac{1}{4}$ |
| Manchester would require for relief | 0 | 4 | $6\frac{3}{4}$ |
| For all other purposes | 0 | 2 | $4\frac{1}{4}$ |
| Total | £0 | 6 | 11 |
| Oldham would require for relief | 0 | 3 | $8\frac{7}{8}$ |
| For all other purposes | 0 | 0 | $10\frac{7}{8}$ |
| Total | £0 | 4 | $7\frac{3}{4}$ |
| Preston would require for relief | 0 | 5 | $5\frac{3}{4}$ |
| For all other purposes | 0 | 1 | $0\frac{5}{8}$ |
| Total | £0 | 6 | $6\frac{3}{8}$ |

The ratepayers are, however, relieved from a serious amount of expenditure through the medium of the funds which are distributed by the Central Executive Committee at Manchester, the Lord Mayor's Committee, and by local subscriptions.

I have already shown you that 158 Local Committees are now spending weekly, in relief alone, 22,660*l.*, a sum equal to 1,178,320*l.* per annum, which, if it had been paid out of the poor rates, would have required a further sum of 4*s.* 3*d.* in the £ on the net rateable value of the 27 Unions, and which added to the 4*s.* 4½*d.*, as shown above, would amount to 8*s.* 7½*d.*

But while this expenditure by the Local Committee saves the ratepayer of the district an average rate of 4*s.* 3*d.*, there are certain Unions within the district which are benefited to a greater extent, viz. :—

|---|---|---|---|
| Ashton-under-Lyne is benefited to the amount of | 16 | 4 | in the £. |
| Blackburn | 6 | 11 | „ |
| Glossop | 14 | 9½ | „ |
| Haslingden | 8 | 8½ | „ |
| Oldham | 6 | 3¾ | „ |
| Preston | 6 | 3⅛ | „ |
| Stockport | 8 | 11 | „ |
| Rochdale | 4 | 7¾ | „ |
| Burnley | 5 | 5⅛ | „ |
| Bury | 5 | 5½ | „ |
| Todmorden | 4 | 4⅛ | „ |

It is a satisfaction to me to inform you that the Local Committees do not benefit the ratepayers solely by pecuniary aid, but also by means of the system of employment of the poor persons whom they are aiding.

Of the 216,084 persons whom the Committees are aiding, the following numbers are employed, either in work or educational classes, viz. :—

|---|---|
| Men | 23,420 |
| Boys under 15 | 16,465 |
| Women and Girls | 40,147 |
| Children at school for whom the Committees pay | 53,199 |
| Total | 133,231 |

The estimate which I gave you at page 6 of my last Report, of the probable supply of cotton for this year may, be relied on ; but I am informed, on good authority, that the millowners will work up the whole of that supply during the current year, and therefore, as the greater proportion of that supply has not hitherto been worked up, and will not (it is said) be worked up during the summer months, but will accumulate, it will afford all the cotton operatives from four to five days per week during the autumn and winter months.

There is now an increase of employment, but, if the best authorities in these matters may be relied on, employment will greatly fluctuate during the summer ; during the autumn and winter, however, the whole supply of the raw material will be worked up by the millowners, and thus give employment to the operatives when they will most require it.

I have been unremitting in my endeavours to stimulate Boards of Guardians and Local Committees to find manual and useful work for the able-bodied men whom they relieve ; and it is a gratification to me to state, that both the Boards of Guardians and the Local Committees have cordially adopted my suggestions. That, however, which would be acceptable to the workpeople, advantageous to the ratepayers, and serviceable to the interests of the community at large, would be to supply the unemployed hands with work for wages ; they have no interest in work which they are forced to perform in return for parish relief or charitable aid, and they long for remunerative employment.

I am fully aware that the counties of Lancaster and Chester, and the towns in the cotton district, present available and profitable resources for the employment of the people on public and private works of utility; but, hitherto, no corporation, no public body, no great landed proprietors have attempted to convert these resources into a means of setting the able-bodied men to work for remunerative wages.

I have now been in this district for nearly one year as Special Commissioner, I may, therefore, perhaps be permitted to state shortly the results which have been obtained.

The Guardians of 27 distressed Unions, representing a population of 1,984,955 persons, resident within 433 townships, have been brought into systematic and cordial co-operation with 158 Local Relief Committees acting within those townships.

The expenditure in relief by the Guardians has increased 480·0 per cent. as compared with former years, which increase is represented in round numbers by a weekly expenditure of above 11,800*l.* in feeding and clothing about 164,000 persons in excess of the usual pauperism of the district, an excess of 337·0 per cent. on the usual pauperism.

On the other hand, the Local Relief Committees have received from all sources upwards of 900,000*l.*, and they have maintained weekly, upon an average, upwards of 226,000 persons who were not in receipt of parochial relief, and they have aided upwards of 133,000 persons weekly, who were also in the receipt of parochial relief, so that at least 390,000 persons have been fed and clothed weekly by the Guardians and the Relief Committees in excess of the average pauperism of the district.

I look back with satisfaction at these proceedings, and, had it not been for the transient riot at Staleybridge, I could have reviewed without a single regret the great work which, by public means and the good conduct of the operatives, has been accomplished in Lancashire.

I am aware that the deep distress which has prevailed here has, as usual under such circumstances, been an opportunity for the practice of imposture, but I am justified in stating that every means which could be adopted by the Guardians and by the Relief Committees, and by the Central Executive Committee at Manchester, to prevent and punish imposition has been adopted, and, in my opinion, there has been a singularly small amount of imposition as compared with the great amount of real distress which has so long prevailed.

Crime has diminished throughout the whole of the district; the health of the people has been maintained; and, with the exception of the deplorable event which I have named, the peace of the district has been preserved.

I now proceed to give you the position of each of the 27 Unions, named in this report on the 28th ultimo.

The population of these Unions in 1861 was 1,984,955.

There are now 522,871 operatives and other workpeople reported by the Local Relief Committees to be dependent on the cotton trade within these Unions.

| Decrease for the week ended 25th April as compared with the week ended 28th March 1863 - - | 55,893 |

There are now 158 Local Committees of Charity acting within the Unions to which I have adverted.

Of the 522,871 workpeople to whom I have already adverted, 189,593 are now working full time, 124,067 are working short time, and 209, 211 are wholly unemployed.

In my last Report to you, dated the 10th of April 1863, I showed you that on the 28th of the previous month 156,594 persons were working full time, 145,095 were working short time, and 234,846 were wholly unemployed.

You will, therefore, now observe that I have, on the faith of those returns made by the several Local Committees, to report for the week ended the 25th ultimo (as compared with the week ended the 28th March last) an increase of 32,999 persons in full work, a decrease of 21,028 persons working short time, and a decrease of 25,735 persons wholly unemployed.

I have further to report to you that the average weekly expenditure of the 158 Local Committees in clothing during the month ended the 25th ultimo was 1,294*l.*, and that their average weekly incidental expenses amounted to 511*l.*

On the 25th ultimo the treasurer of the Central Executive Committee in Manchester reported as follows :—

The cash in the hands of the treasurers of the 27 Unions named in this Report was, on the 25th ultimo, 60,043*l.*

In my last Report dated the 10th April 1863 I showed you that the available resources of the Central Executive Committee amounted to 670,552*l.*

I have again the satisfaction of informing you that the health of the people continues good.

In my last Report, dated 10th April 1863, I showed you that the total number of paupers who were relieved by the Guardians of the above 27 Unions for the week ended the 6th December last was 271,983. The following table will give you the total number of paupers so relieved, weekly, from that date up to the 25th ultimo.

| Week ended | In-door Paupers. | Out-door Paupers. | Total Paupers. |
|---|---|---|---|
| 1862. | | | |
| 13th December | 12,522 | 257,058 | 269,580 |
| 20th December | 12,463 | 251,954 | 264,417 |
| 27th December | 12,327 | 248,179 | 260,506 |
| 1863. | | | |
| 3d January | 12,163 | 241,937 | 254,100 |
| 10th January | 12,075 | 232,232 | 244,307 |
| 17th January | 11,958 | 227,442 | 239,400 |
| 24th January | 11,979 | 223,146 | 235,125 |
| 31st January | 11,824 | 216,200 | 228,024 |
| 7th February | 11,705 | 210,401 | 222,106 |
| 14th February | 11,646 | 206,720 | 218,366 |
| 21st February | 11,552 | 204,834 | 216,386 |
| 28th February | 11,454 | 203,764 | 215,218 |
| 7th March | 11,452 | 202,253 | 213,705 |
| 14th March | 11,450 | 198,944 | 210,394 |
| 21st March | 11,537 | 200,633 | 212,170 |
| 28th March | 11,458 | 198,414 | 209,872 |
| 4th April | 11,368 | 193,013 | 205,381 |
| 11th April | 11,250 | 191,235 | 202,485 |
| 18th April | 11,236 | 186,845 | 198,081 |
| 25th April | 11,204 | 181,504 | 192,708 |

Thus the total decrease of pauperism has been 79,275, and to this number may be added a decrease of 58,955 in the numbers aided by the Local Committees of charity, making a total of 138,230 ; there can be no doubt that this result is attributable to increased employment ; but, at the same time, it will not escape your observation that, although this decrease has taken place, there are still 192,708 paupers, and 177,355 persons not in the receipt of parochial relief, who are still being relieved by the Local Committees of charity, making a total of 370,063 persons who subsist at present either on the poor rates or on charity ; while, under ordinary circumstances, the total number of paupers at this season of the year in the 27 Unions, comprising the cotton manufacturing districts, is only 49,271.

On the 1st of October last the number of bales of cotton, of all sorts, in Liverpool was 150,000 ; since then the imports, from all sources, have averaged 30,800 bales weekly. Upon an average 24,650 bales have been purchased weekly, 6,500 of which were for exportation, leaving 18,150 for home consumption per week. There has been, therefore, a weekly accumulation of stock amounting to 6,150 bales, and it is estimated that there are now 340,650 bales in stock in Liverpool. This accumulation in stock of the raw material has occurred through its high price, which has prevented the manufacturers from working it up with profit to themselves.

I have, &c.

H. B. Farnall,

Thus the total decrease of pauperism has been 102,386, and to this number may be added a decrease of 107,517 in the number aided by the Local Committees of Charity, making a total of 209,903. There can be no doubt that this result is attributable to increased employment; but, at the same time, it will not escape your observation that although this decrease has taken place, there are still 169,597 paupers, and 128,793 persons not in the receipt of parochial relief, who are still being relieved by the Local Committees of Charity, making a total of 298,390 persons who subsist at present either on the poor rates or on charity; while, under ordinary circumstances, the total number of paupers at this season of the year in the 27 Unions, comprising the cotton manufacturing districts, is only 47,169.

The Cotton Trade is greatly affected by the deep anxiety which is felt regarding events in America. All who are engaged in that trade act with the utmost caution. It is asserted that the India merchants are discouraged by their advices that stocks have not been by any means reduced to the anticipated extent, while the buyers for home consumption are at present checked in their disposition for a moderate business by the circumstances to which I have referred.

Poor Rate Return.—Remarks on the Annual Poor Rate Return, Year ended Lady-day 1862. [No. 324. (D.) Sess. 1861.]

Series of Returns.

The present Return is the fifty-fifth annual publication of the Poor Rate Returns.

Parishes included in the Return.

This Return is, in respect of the number of places which it represents, the most complete of the Statistics of pauperism; for in it the sums levied and expended as Poor Rates throughout the whole of England and Wales are exhibited; excepting only some small Parishes, which are stated by the overseers either to have "No poor," or to make no levy "yet."

The number of Parishes maintaining or liable to maintain their own poor is printed in the following Table, which relates to the parochial year under consideration.

| Authority. | Description. | Number of Parishes. |

Parochialization.

"Extra-parochial" places were not, heretofore, liable to maintain their own poor; but they are now becoming Parishes, under the operation of 20 Vict. c. 19. (Extra-parochial Places Act.) The ultimate addition, however, which this will make to the existing Parishes is not at present known.

Valuations to the Poor Rates.

The net annual value of property assessed to the Poor's Rate has been returned in respect of four parochial years. "The Gross Estimated Rental" is also returned for the last of these years.

* The details of these Valuations will be found in the following papers, printed by order of the House of Commons, viz., No. 235 "Real Property," 1842; No. 735 "Poor Rates, &c.," 1848; No. 539 "Poor Rate Assessment," 1852; No. 63 "Population, &c. of Parishes," 1858; and No. 251 "Population, Inhabited Houses, &c.," 1859. The "Gross Estimated Rental," and the "Rateable Value" for each Parish is given with respect to the Parochial year 1856 in No. 491 "Poor Rates, &c.," Session 1861.

Receipts and Expenditure in 1860, 1861, and 1862.

The Returns, in a contracted shape, are exhibited in the next Table, for the last three years, with the rate per head, on the estimated population, of the amount levied as Poor's Rate, and of the amount expended in relief:—

Large proportion of expenditure for purposes unconnected with relief.

Four fifths of the expenditure, described in the last Table as for "All other Purposes," consists of payments which have no connexion whatever with relief to the poor. This part of the Poor Rate Expenditure, which is foreign to the object originally contemplated in the enactment of the rate, has greatly increased since the passing of the Poor Law Amendment Act in 1834, in consequence of the imposition of new and the augmentation of old charges. The next Table exhibits, separately, all the charges referred to, so far as the returns permit. The heaviest item is the disbursement in respect of the "County, Hundred, or Borough Rate, or Police Rate."

Considerably more than one fourth of the whole Poor Rates now levied are expended for purposes unconnected with relief to the poor. Besides the charges here shown, there are some others paid out of the Rate, but which are not discriminated, such as the expenses incurred for sanitary purposes, and the cost of providing new burial grounds.

Principal Charges which constitute Relief to the Poor.

The principal heads of expenditure, which constitute "Relief to the Poor," are shown in the next Table, together with the average price of wheat for the three years.

The column in the Return, which succeeds that of "Total Expenditure," contains the expense of Medical Relief only; this consists of salaries to the Medical Officers; extra Medical Fees paid to them under the General Consolidated Order; also, the cost (if any) of medical and surgical appliances, and drugs. The sums in this column are not additional to those given in Column 4. § A, of the Return; because, the various items of Medical Relief are included in sub-columns (e) or (f), as forming a portion of the "Relief to the Poor:" the "Medical Relief" is printed separately, as indicating an important and special subject of Poor Law administration. Medical Relief.

The sums expended under this head during the last three years were as follows :

Twenty-six Unions and single Parishes, chiefly Metropolitan, are combined into School Districts; the contributions which each Union makes to the treasurer of its district are included in the other items of relief, and, as such, entered in the proper columns of the Poor Rate Return; this, then, like the Medical Relief, does not represent any additional expenditure, having been heretofore properly included in the amounts printed opposite to the respective Unions concerned, at pages 16, et seq.* School Districts.

The sums contributed by each Union to the School District; and, the sums expended by each district and for each Union during the parochial year 1861–62, are contained in the subjoined Table :—

IN-MAINTENANCE AND OUT-DOOR RELIEF.—REMARKS on the Returns of In and Out door Relief, Half Year ended Lady-day 1862. [No. 324 (c. 1.) Sess. 1861.]

Number of Unions returned.

THE Returns of In-maintenance and Out-door Relief, printed at pp. 18–60,* have been received from 649 Unions and single Parishes under Boards of Guardians; but two of that number, namely, Shrewsbury, and Montgomery and Pool, give the cost of In-maintenance only; and two, namely Wetherby and Wharfedale, are now entered for the first time in this statement.

The amount expended in the 649 Unions and Parishes during the half-year was, for—

| In-maintenance. | Out-door Relief. | Total. |
|---|---|---|

The population of the places referred to was 19,814,000, according to the Census of 1861; the entire population of England and Wales being 20,066,224.

Irremovable Paupers.

The sum expended for irremovable paupers can be shown for 610 Unions and Single Parishes only, as the other places keep no separate account of their disbursements in respect of this class of poor.

The 610 Unions and Parishes contain about 15-17ths of the entire population of the Kingdom; the sum expended in them for relief during the half-year was, in respect of—

| | In-maintenance. | Out-door Relief. | TOTAL. |
|---|---|---|---|
| | £ | £ | £ |
| Irremovable Paupers - | 93,698 | 415,204 | 508,902 |
| Other Paupers - - | 378,250 | 1,055,925 | 1,434,175 |
| TOTAL - | 471,948 | 1,471,129 | 1,943,077 |

The cost of relief to the Irremovable Paupers was 35·5 per cent. on the cost of relief to the other Paupers during the half-year; but during the half-year ended at Lady-day 1861, the ratio was 32·2 per cent.; so that the proportion has risen 3·3 per cent. comparing the former period with the latter.

Expenditure, Lady day half-years 1861 and 1862.

No. 20.

IN-MAINTENANCE AND OUT-RELIEF.—REMARKS on the Returns of In-maintenance and Out-door Relief, Half Year ended Michaelmas 1862. [No. 307 (c.) Session 1862.]

Number of Unions returned.

THE Returns of In-maintenance and Out-door Relief, printed at pp. 18–60*, have been received from 651 Unions and single Parishes under Boards of Guardians; but two of that number, namely, Shrewsbury, and Montgomery and Pool, give the cost of In-maintenance only; and two, namely Wetherby and Wharfedale, are now entered for the first time in this statement.

The amount expended in the 651 Unions and Parishes during the half year was, for—

| In-maintenance. | Out-door Relief. | Total. |
|---|---|---|

The population of the places referred to was 19,833,000, according to the Census of 1861; the entire population of England and Wales being 20,066,224.

Irremovable Paupers.

The sum expended for Irremovable Paupers can be shown for 610 Unions and single Parishes only; as the other places keep no separate account of their disbursements in respect of this class of poor.

The 610 Unions and Parishes contain about 15-17ths of the entire population of the Kingdom; the sum expended in them for relief during the half year was, in respect of—

| | In-Maintenance. | Out-Door Relief. | TOTAL. |
|---|---|---|---|
| | £ | £ | £ |
| Irremovable Paupers - | 95,378 | 514,840 | 610,218 |
| Other Paupers - - | 322,318 | 1,011,730 | 1,334,048 |
| TOTAL - | 417,696 | 1,526,570 | 1,944,266 |

The cost of relief to the Irremovable Paupers was 31·4 per cent. on the cost of relief to the other Paupers during the half year; but during the half year ended at Michaelmas 1861, the ratio was 33·1 per cent.; so that the proportion has fallen 1·7 per cent., comparing the former period with the latter.

Expenditure, Michaelmas half years 1861 and 1862.

The following Table is a comparative statement of the expenditure for the half years ended at Michaelmas 1861 and 1862, in 649 Unions and single Parishes.

No. 24.

REMARKS ON THE RETURNS OF PAUPERISM.—SUMMARY of Returns of the Number of Paupers relieved on the 1st July 1862. [No. 307 (B.) Sess. 1862.]

THE present publication contains the Tabulated Returns of 651 Unions and Single Parishes under Boards of Guardians; but in respect of two places, namely, the Incorporation of Shrewsbury and that of Montgomery and Pool, the Returns are limited to the number of In-door paupers relieved.

Pauperism, 1st July.

The aggregate population of the 651 places by the Census of 1861 is 19,833,064; and the total number of paupers on the 1st July 1862 is,

| In-door. | Out-door. | Total. |
|---|---|---|
| 123,432 | 802,826 | 926,258 |

This gives the proportion of paupers as 1 in 21, or 4·7 per cent. on the actual population.

Comparison of 1st July 1862 and 1861.

Comparing the numbers returned on the 1st July 1862 with those at the same date in 1861, the figures stand thus:—

| DATE. | | Number of Unions, &c. | In-door Paupers. | Out-door Paupers. | TOTAL. |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| 1st July - | 1861 | 649 | 116,012 | 735,562 | 851,574 |
| | 1862 | 649 | 123,432 | 801,878 | 925,310* |

First Table.

The first table exhibits the number of males, females, and children, and the number of vagrants, the latter being returned without distinction of sex, relieved in-door and out-door.

The third table exhibits the able-bodied, not able-bodied, and insane paupers, classed as males, females, and children under 16; the vagrants not being returned in this manner are excluded; children relieved with "able-bodied" parents are classed as able-bodied; but children relieved without their parents, or relieved with parents who are "not able-bodied," are classed as not able-bodied. Third Table.

WEEKLY RETURNS OF PAUPERISM FOR THE YEAR ENDING JANUARY 1863, AND FOR THE CORRESPONDING WEEKS OF THE PREVIOUS YEAR.

[No. 324. (A. X.), Session 1861, and No. 307. (A. to A. IX.), Session 1862.]

MEMORANDUM as to the ARRANGEMENT of the WEEKLY RETURNS of PAUPERISM.

THE Returns of the Number of Paupers relieved on the last day of each Week do not include the "Lunatic Paupers in Asylums and Licensed Houses," nor the number of "Vagrants" relieved. These classes form only a small portion of the entire pauperism of the country. According to the latest Returns (1st January 1861), the number contained in the two classes was 2·3 per cent. of the total pauperism.

The Pauper Lunatics in Asylums are not generally subject to variations in number to the same degree as the other classes of Paupers, and the number of Vagrants relieved by the Unions throughout the country has become too small to need a return so frequently as once a week. These considerations led to the exclusion of the two classes.

There are at present 14,816* parishes in England and Wales maintaining or liable to maintain their own poor: returns of pauperism are received weekly in respect of 14,567 of that number; 249 parishes, incorporated under Gilbert's Act, or still under the provisions of the 43d Elizabeth, make no return of the number of paupers which they relieve.

The Returns are arranged under eleven divisions. The Union-counties which fall under each are shown in the following view:—

* Many places not heretofore liable to maintain their own poor are becoming parishes under the operation of the Extra-parochial Places Act; to what extent this will ultimately increase the number of parishes in England and Wales cannot, at present, be stated; since the publication of the Return for December 1858, 154 new parishes have been recorded here.

The following is a Tabular Statement of the Number of Unions and Parishes; and the Area and Population ascribable to each Division; but so far only as represented by the Weekly Returns.

The numbers in the Table of Industrial Statistics represent complete divisions, as it was impossible, from the manner in which the census of occupations was compiled, to make the same adjustment in respect of the unreturned parishes as that effected for the first Table.

Poor Law Board, Whitehall,
31st March 1862.

FREDERICK PURDY,
Principal of the Statistical Department.

*At the present date there are 649 Unions; two new ones, namely, the Wetherby and the Wharfedale, containing together 37 parishes, having been declared to take place from the 15th February 1861. The particulars are not included above, because, until these Unions have made a Return of Pauperism for 12 months, they cannot be entered in the Comparative Tables. The population of 1861 is given to the fourth figure, as at present, it must be regarded as a very close approximation only.

* In this Division a sudden increase of the numbers relieved took place in Liverpool, to the extent of 22,233. This augmentation is ascribed by the vestry clerk to the prevalence of easterly winds, which kept ships out of that port.

Quarterly Statement as to Pauperism.—Lady-Day 1862.

(Paupers in Lunatic Asylums and Vagrants not included.)

The Return now published completes this portion of the Series for the parochial year 1861-62. The four following Tables are given in continuation of those prefixed to the monthly publication for December last.

The Tables are—

1st. England and Wales; the pauperism in the consecutive weeks of the quarter.
2d. ——————————— the comparative pauperism of the quarter.
3d. North Midland, North Western, and York Divisions; the comparative pauperism of the quarter.
4th. The Metropolis; the comparative pauperism of the quarter.

1. In the 1st Table each week is compared with the one immediately preceding it. The last week of the parochial year is higher than the last week of the Christmas quarter by 63,926 paupers. But the maximum number was reached in the first week of March, namely, 984,237, being an increase of 91,247 paupers in ten weeks.

| Fourth week - - | 956,916 | — | 3,310 |

* Exclusive of the number returned for the Wetherby and Wharfedale Unions, as given at the foot of the Weekly Statements.

† The cause of increase in the last week of February and the first one of March was the prevalence of easterly winds, which prevented ships entering the port of Liverpool. Moreover, it appears from the clerk's letter of the 12th March, that the number of cases of relief, instead of the number of persons relieved, was entered during the pressure of those two weeks; thereby one individual figured two or three times in the same return. This source of error was, however, eliminated in the second week of March.

2. The next Table exhibits the comparative pauperism of 1860, 1861, and 1862.

The paupers in receipt of relief on the last day of the last week of March were—

|---|---|
| In 1860 | 835,614 |
| „ 1861 | 852,980 |
| „ 1862 | 956,916 |

The paupers in 1862, as compared with those in 1861, have increased 103,936, or 12·19 per cent.; but compared with 1860 the increase was 121,302 or 14·52 per cent.

3. The third Table comprises the three divisions of England and Wales in which the principal manufactures are carried on. Taking the returns of paupers relieved on the last day of the last week of March, the numbers were—

|---|---|
| In 1860 | 185,503 |
| „ 1861 | 192,060 |
| „ 1862 | 260,883 |

The increase in 1862, compared with 1861, was 68,823 or 35·83 per cent.; but in comparison with 1860 there was an increase of 75,380 or 40·64 per cent.

In 1862 the increase in the paupers, as compared with those in 1861, was 6,074 or 6·50 per cent.; but on a comparison with 1860, the increase was 9,511 or 10·56 per cent.

QUARTERLY STATEMENT AS TO PAUPERISM.—MIDSUMMER 1862.

(Paupers in Lunatic Asylums and Vagrants not included.)

The present Return completes the Monthly Series for the Quarter ended at Midsummer 1862. The four following Tables are given in continuation of those prefixed to the monthly publication for March last.

The Tables are—

1st. ENGLAND and WALES; the pauperism in the consecutive weeks of the quarter.

2d. ——————————— the comparative pauperism of the quarter.

3d. NORTH MIDLAND, NORTH WESTERN, and YORK DIVISIONS; the comparative pauperism of the quarter.

4th. THE METROPOLIS; the comparative pauperism of the quarter.

1. In the first Table, each week, compared with its predecessor, with two exceptions, shows a decrease in the number of paupers: 957,676 were the numbers relieved in the last week of March (Lady-day); but in the fourth week of June (Midsummer) they had fallen to 890,328, which is a decrease of 67,348, or 7·0 per cent. less at Midsummer than Lady-day.

 The Numbers given for 1861 and 1862 respectively, differ slightly from the Totals entered in the Returns for April, May, and June; this arises from the circumstance of Wetherby and Wharfedale being excluded from Table II., as those places were not in the Returns for 1860.

3. The third Table comprises the three divisions of England and Wales in which the principal manufactures are carried on. Taking the returns of paupers relieved on the last day of the last week of June, the numbers were—

QUARTERLY STATEMENT AS TO PAUPERISM.—MICHAELMAS 1862.

(Paupers in Lunatic Asylums and Vagrants not included.)

The present Return completes the Monthly Series for the quarter ended at Michaelmas 1862. The four following Tables are given in continuation of those prefixed to the monthly publication for June last.

The Tables are—

1st. ENGLAND and WALES; the pauperism in the consecutive weeks of the quarter.

2d. ——————————— the comparative pauperism of the quarter.

3d. NORTH MIDLAND, NORTH WESTERN, and YORK DIVISIONS; the comparative pauperism of the quarter.

4th. THE METROPOLIS; the comparative pauperism of the quarter.

1. In the first Table each week is compared with the one immediately preceding it: 890,328 were the numbers relieved in the last week of June (Midsummer); but in the fourth week of September (Michaelmas) the numbers were 943,655, which is an increase of 53,327, or 5·99 per cent. more at Michaelmas than Midsummer.

The paupers in 1862, as compared with those in 1861, have increased 135,407, or 16·77 per cent.; but compared with 1860 the increase is 177,964, or 23·27 per cent.

 The Numbers given for 1861 and 1862 respectively, differ slightly from the Totals entered in the Returns for July, August, and September; this arises from the circumstance of Wetherby and Wharfedale being excluded from Table II., as those places were not in the Returns for 1860.

3. The third Table comprises the three divisions of England and Wales in which the principal manufactures are carried on. Taking the returns of paupers relieved on the last day of the last week of September, the numbers were—

|---|---|
| In 1860 | 171,284 |
| „ 1861 | 187,460 |
| „ 1862 | 314,448 |

The increase in 1862, compared with 1861, was 125,988, or 67·74 per cent.; but in comparison with 1860 it was 143,164, or 83·58 per cent.

 The Numbers given for 1861 and 1862 respectively, differ slightly from the Totals entered in the Returns for July, August, and September; this arises from the circumstance of Wetherby and Wharfedale being excluded from Table III., as those places were not in the Returns for 1860.

4. According to the last returns for the month of September in the three years last past, the number of paupers in the Metropolis was—

|---|---|
| In 1860 | 82,506 |
| „ 1861 | 85,220 |
| „ 1862 | 87,487 |

In 1862 the increase in the paupers, as compared with those in 1861, was 2,267, or 2·66 per cent.; but on a comparison with 1860, the increase was 4,981, or 6·04 per cent.

Quarterly Statement as to Pauperism, Christmas 1862.

(Paupers in Lunatic Asylums and Vagrants not included.)

The Return now published completes this portion of the Series for the year 1862. The four following Tables are given in continuation of those prefixed to the monthly publication for September last.

The Tables are—

1st. England and Wales; the pauperism in the consecutive weeks of the quarter.

2d. ———————— the comparative pauperism of the quarter.

3d. North Midland, North Western, and York Divisions; the comparative pauperism of the quarter.

4th. The Metropolis; the comparative pauperism of the quarter.

1. In the first Table, each week is compared with the one immediately preceding it. The last week of the year is higher than the last week of the Michaelmas quarter by 160,636 paupers.

No. 34.

Remarks on the Return of Insane Paupers, chargeable on the 1st January 1862. (No. 324. (E.) Sess. 1861.)

Source of Information.

1. The Statistics of Pauper Insanity contained in this paper have been compiled from the lists of "Lunatics, Idiots, and other Persons of Unsound Mind" who were chargeable to the Poor Rates on the 1st January 1862. These lists are made out annually by the Clerks to the Guardians, and transmitted to the Poor Law Board, in compliance with the 16 & 17 Vict. c. 97. s. 64., and in the form prescribed by Schedule D. of that Statute.

Places returned.

2. Returns have been received from 649 Unions and Single Parishes under Boards of Guardians; the Population of these places, according to the Census of 1861, is 19,813,984. The number of Insane Paupers chargeable to the Poor Rates in those places on that day is shown below :—

| Number of Paupers on 1st January 1862. | Whereof were Insane Paupers. | Namely :— | |
|---|---|---|---|
| | | Lunatics. | Idiots. |
| 946,166 | 34,271 | 22,960 | 11,311 |

Thus 3·62 per cent. of the pauperism on the 1st January last is ascribable to Insanity; the Lunatics being 2·43 per cent., and the Idiots 1·19 per cent.

Proportion of the Sexes.

3. In regard to the sexes, 14,936 were Males, and 19,335 Females :—

| Insane. | Males. | Females. | Total. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Lunatics - - | 9,825 | 13,135 | 22,960 |
| Idiots - - | 5,111 | 6,200 | 11,311 |
| Total - | 14,936 | 19,335 | 34,271 |

Note.—The Unions marked with an asterisk (*) in this and the three next Tables have not been regarded by the Poor Law Board as suffering any peculiar pressure in consequence of the derangement in the Cotton Trade.

No assessment has been made in Lancashire for the purposes of the County or Borough Rate since April 1854; the rate in the £ is computed on the valuation of that year. In Liverpool and Manchester, however, the valuation relates to the same period as the expenditure for relief. In the Michaelmas half-year 1861 the amount assessed in the former place was 1,190,864*l.*; and in the latter 808,202*l.*

The whole of the Union-County of Lancaster is given in the Table above, except the 26 parishes which are comprised in the Caton Incorporation, or which are still under the 43d Elizabeth; the population of these amounts to 11,293 only.

TO HIS EXCELLENCY GEORGE WILLIAM FREDERICK,
EARL OF CARLISLE, K.G.,

Lord Lieutenant-General and General Governor of Ireland.

Poor Law Commission Office,
Dublin, March 31st, 1863.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY,

We, the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland, submit to your Excellency this our Sixteenth Annual Report of our proceedings, under the Acts in force for the Relief of the Poor in Ireland.

1. We submit, in the first place, a Summary of Weekly Returns of the Persons relieved in the Workhouse and out of the Workhouse for 52 Weeks, from the Week ended 1st March, 1862, to the Week ended 21st February, 1863, both inclusive.

The law of relief having been altered by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, it became necessary to alter in some degree the forms of Weekly Return. This alteration took place in October, 1862; a portion, therefore, of the Weekly Returns has been tabulated as in previous Annual Reports, and the succeeding portion differently; and the latter will show the extent to which some of the changes made in the law of relief have operated up to the present time.

2. By the Act 25 & 26 Vic., cap. 83, several important changes were made in the law of relief, in accordance with the tendency of public opinion in Ireland, which, for many years past, has been in favour of a more liberal administration of relief. These changes, however, have been made within limits which previous, as well as subsequent experience, so far as it has yet gone, have shown to be safe.

3. In the first place, the class of persons—poor, though not destitute—which previously possessed the privilege of admission to the Workhouse Fever Hospitals, when suffering from dangerous contagious disease, under 6 & 7 Vic., cap. 92, are now legally admissible to the Workhouse Infirmary when suffering from accident, or illness not of a contagious character. By this provision, treatment in Hospital, which was formerly afforded only in thirty-two County Infirmaries, is now legally available in 163 Workhouse Infirmaries in addition to the county institutions; the latter having been always too few and far between to benefit more than a very small proportion of the population of the county when requiring Medical treatment in Hospital. Thus, the last link has been supplied in the connexion between the Poor Law and the older system of Medical Charities in Ireland.

The County Infirmaries, which were established in the middle of the last century, were subsequently found difficult of access to a large part of the population; and to remedy this in some degree Dispensaries were established for the administration of medical relief to extern patients, which was thus extended to some of the more remote parts of each county. This Dispensary system was reorganized and made complete in connexion with the Poor Law in 1851; but notwithstanding the great value of this branch of medical relief in ordinary cases, the want of Hospital treatment for cases of accident or non-contagious sickness of a serious nature, among the indigent classes, has been always greatly felt; and to such a degree have the Guardians of Unions recognised this want that, as already pointed out in former Annual Reports, the Workhouses have been used for many years past as supplementary Hospitals in such cases, without the direct sanction of law. The Legislature has at length, however, legalized the practice referred to; and there is now probably no country which possesses a more comprehensive or better organized system of intern and extern medical relief, established and secured by law, than Ireland.

4. This extension of medical relief has been combined with a system of payment, in the whole or in part, for the better circumstanced classes of patients. The extent to which this system of payment has been applied is at present very inconsiderable, as may be seen from the columns in the preceding table which are under the heading, "Number of Persons who were admitted to the Workhouse under the 3rd and 5th sections of 25 & 26 Vic., cap. 83." In the week ended 21st February, 1863, there were as yet but ninety-one persons of this class in the Workhouse Hospitals.

5. Another important change in the law of relief is that made by the 9th section of the recent Act, which permits the Guardians to place out at nurse, until five years of age, orphan or deserted children, in order to secure for them the best substitute for that maternal care and solicitude of which the loss of their mothers has deprived them, and for which it is difficult, if not impossible, to provide a substitute in the Workhouses. The operation of this section has not at present made any serious addition to the out-door relief lists; the whole numbers of this class of children out at nurse in the third week of February being only seventy-seven.

6. The 10th section of the 10th Vic., cap. 31, commonly called the Quarter Acre Clause, has been repealed, and there is now no class of persons in Ireland to whom relief is denied by law when actually destitute. The occupiers, however, of more than a quarter of an acre of land can be relieved, by the Guardians, only in the Workhouse; but the provisional powers of the Relieving Officer will enable him, in any case of sudden and urgent necessity, and in which removal to the Workhouse may be impracticable, to afford provisional relief out of the Workhouse until such removal can be safely effected. By this important alteration we believe the Irish Poor Law has been rendered sufficiently effective for the preservation of life in all extreme cases of privation or sickness, if duly administered.

7. We have explained in previous Reports the difficulties encountered by us in some Unions, in giving effect to that construction of the law by which Boards of Guardians have been required to register foundling children, the religion of whose parents was unknown, as being of the religion of the State—that is to say, Protestants of the Established Church; although the Poor Law Acts expressly prohibit the education of a child in any religious creed different from that of its parents, when known; and although in the Unions in which the difficulty referred to has occurred, the population has been, in a very large proportion, Roman Catholic.

We were anxious, in order to meet these difficulties, to give the privilege which would belong to the parent, if known, to the person last having lawful possession of the child before its admission to the Workhouse, as standing at that point of time in the nearest and most intimate relation to the child; but this course Parliament did not adopt, and as to the children of unknown parents admitted into the Workhouse without previous baptism, the difficulty remains precisely as it was; but children baptized before admission are now to be registered as orphans would be—that is to say, of the religion of the godfathers or godmothers. This state of the law will no doubt cause, in some cases, delay in presenting the child for admission, in order to have it first baptized, and, so far, is not in favorem vitæ.

8. The other alterations of the law enacted in the 25 & 26 Vic., cap. 83, relate chiefly to the making and collecting of the rates, the qualification of Guardians and the exercise of the privilege of voting in the election of Guardians, and need not be further alluded to here.

9. The General Order regulating the proceedings in the election of Guardians has been carefully amended, so as to meet the altered state of the law, and will be found in the Appendix.*

12. Upon a similar series of statistics contained in our last annual Report, we there observed how rapid and continuous had been the decline of pauperism in Ireland between the year 1850–51, and the year 1858–59; and how, on the other hand, between the year 1858–59 and 1860-61, there had been an increase of 16·8 per cent. in the average daily number relieved, and of 24·9 per cent. in the annual expenditure; the higher per centage of the latter being due, for the most part, to a rise in the cost of Workhouse maintenance. We also spoke of a further very considerable increase in the expenditure of the then current year as already being a matter of certainty, from the returns of pauperism received for the first twenty-five weeks of the year. The increase now actually ascertained to have taken place, as apparent from a comparison of the last two years in the above series is, in the average daily number of paupers, 22 per cent., and in the annual expenditure, 12 per cent., or an actual amount of £62,020. The per centage of increase between 1858–59, the most favourable year since the famine, and the year 1861–62, is 42 in average daily pauperism, and 40 in annual expenditure.

13. The following is a series of the out-door and in-door weekly relief returns for twenty-five weeks from the close of the year 1861–62, ended 29th September last, and the present time in comparison with the same for the four preceding years.

From these returns it may be again safely predicted that a further considerable increase in the average daily number of recipients of relief will be shown at the conclusion of the present year. There will not, however, it is apprehended, be much increase in the expenditure of this year, compared with that of the last, the cost of Workhouse maintenance being now less by 2*d.* per head per week than it was last year, thus compensating nearly for the difference in the number relieved.

14. Comparing the last year with the present in other respects, and keeping in view the condition of the indigent classes only, as distinguished from the lowest of the farming class, we have, during the present season, the advantages of much greater cheapness of food, abundance of fuel instead of great scarcity, and notwithstanding the stormy and wet weather in December and January, there has been, on the whole, a season free from any severe degree of cold, and the spring, so far as it has proceeded, has been unusually mild and fine. The favourable influence of these circumstances on the condition of the labouring poor is already observable in the progressive decline in the number in the Workhouses, the maximum number appearing to have been reached on the 14th February, 1863, or three weeks sooner than in 1862, and having since decreased from 66,976 to 64,619.

The sanitary condition also of the Workhouse inmates, has been as good, if not better, than last year; and there have been much fewer cases of alleged death from want of the necessaries of life.

Eight inquiries, in comparison with twenty in the same space of time last year, have been instituted, and not one has resulted in showing death by starvation.

Great security exists now in Ireland against the occurrence of such casualties, which are not likely to happen except through default of the parties themselves, in any season when food and fuel are cheap and abundant.

15. The following Table exhibits a classification of the causes of death in the Workhouses from the 15th February last, to the latest return made previously to the date of this Report.

It may be well to observe that these Tables, which have been given each year for several years past, were not constructed with any design to classify completely the causes of all deaths occurring in Workhouses, and that the specified causes have been limited to such only as concerned more directly the general sanitary state of the inmates, and, indirectly, the population at large.

16. On a review of the statistics of pauperism for the last five years, we trust there is ground for expecting that the unfavourable series will close with the present year, and that we are now at the commencement of a series like that which occurred from the year 1854–55 to the year 1858–59.

There is one useful effect of the recent reverse which will probably survive its duration, and be permanently established in the minds of the ex-officio and elected Guardians of the Poor in Ireland. We allude to the strong disposition shown during the series of favourable years to shut up Workhouses or to devote them to public uses, for which they were not intended by the Legislature, as barracks, reformatories, and lunatic asylums. We have a respite at length from the task of combating these propositions, which have sometimes found favour in very influential quarters, and we trust that after the lesson taught by the reverses of the last three years, they will never be revived. During that time the Workhouses of Ireland have not only served most opportunely and most beneficently in the alleviation of misery and the preservation of life, but must be regarded as having saved the country from a disastrous degree of financial loss in relief operations, accompanied by much social demoralization. Henceforth it will surely be thought that Workhouses, when empty or nearly so, are to be regarded with satisfaction, rather than with a feeling of discontent, and are no more to be parted with in a season of prosperity than fortifications in a time of peace.

17. A great tendency to insubordination, long unknown, almost, to the Workhouses of Ireland, has of late years shown itself from time to time, and occasionally assumed a very aggravated form. This has been more especially the case in the Workhouse of the South Dublin Union, where repeated attempts have been made to set fire to the premises, and these attempts have sometimes been attended by violent resistance to the officers, and by riot and tumult.

Very recently the exhibition of a similar spirit in other large

Workhouses, as Cork, Waterford, and Clonmel, gives an aspect of more than usual importance to the subject, and makes it necessary to consider what causes have been in any degree operative in producing such effects.

18. The irksomeness of life in a Workhouse to persons of adult or nearly adult age, and not incapacitated from labour by physical infirmity or temporary sickness, is chiefly caused by two circumstances;—the personal restraint and entire submission to authority, which are necessarily incidental to this mode of relief; and secondly, the absence of that stimulus to exertion, resulting in cheerful labour, and in contentment of mind while resting from it, which can alone be communicated to the labouring man, by allowing him to enjoy the fruits of his own labour, and to dispose of them in the way most pleasing to himself. The effect of this feeling of irksomeness on the minds of the adult, or nearly adult classes, is to create a wholesome desire to change the scene and go elsewhere; and to this effect we owe the inestimable advantage that all the better disposed class of adults, and a very large proportion of the less respectable class, prefer when they can obtain it, a life of labour and independence; and that we are enabled to assign so great a proportion of the accommodation in the Workhouse to the sick, the aged and infirm, and the young children. How great and injurious a change would be made in this respect from partly doing away with the feeling of irksomeness, by letting the inmates of Workhouses enjoy the fruits of their own labour, will certainly be seen if at any time the existing regulation which prohibits that arrangement shall be dispensed with.

19. To apply these observations in considering the origin of discontent and insubordination in South Dublin Workhouse, we believe that this spirit first exhibited itself several years ago in the class of young adult females, in consequence of a bitter feeling of disappointment in not being assisted by the Board of Guardians to emigrate, although this hope had been held out to them, and was withdrawn almost at the moment of accomplishment, through circumstances which it is not necessary here to detail. Not long after this event the first convictions took place of several young women for attempting to set fire to the Workhouse, and were followed in several cases by sentences of long terms of penal servitude. This punishment did not deter many others from committing the same offence from time to time. Ultimately a similar bad spirit extended itself to some of the adult males; and the attempts made by some of them to burn the Workhouse were accompanied sometimes by dangerous assaults on the Workhouse officers, and by scenes of tumult. Finally, it may be stated that so large a number as twenty-six males and nineteen females, from South Dublin Workhouse, have, in the course of the last three years, been sentenced for long terms of imprisonment to the convict prisons; and nine of both sexes under sixteen years of age have been sent to the reformatories.

It is satisfactory to state, that during all this time the due relief of the destitute or sick poor within the walls of this large Workhouse has been conducted with great efficiency; and that the mutinous spirit shown by very small classes of inmates has interfered scarcely at all with the due management and orderly conduct of the rest of the inmates.

20. In commenting on the crimes lately committed in South Dublin and other Workhouses in Ireland, we should not be justified in omitting reference to the fact, that many of the most serious offences have been committed by persons so anxious for change as to be apparently not unwilling to exchange life in the Workhouse for life even in the prison or reformatory. Not having sufficiently before his eyes the deterring influence of some of the incidents to a long term of imprisonment, the adult evil-disposed inmate of a Workhouse, weary of Workhouse life, has a lively perception of the advantages of change of scene, superior rations, and, more especially, of a system of labour which is not without remuneration, but which he knows may result, by careful conduct, in a proportion of his earnings being given him on his release, having been taught in the meantime some trade, which will raise him above the level of his previous means of life.

Notwithstanding the severity of the sentences which have followed conviction in these cases, many attempts to burn the Workhouses have been made, and more may occur; but as these occurrences have scarcely ever been connected with any complaint of ill-usage, or ground for personal discontent, on the part of individual inmates, or classes of inmates, which could be removed by any

It will be perceived, on examination of this Table, and comparing the numbers of patients relieved in successive years, that although there has been, occasionally, in all the provinces, a decrease in the number of persons seeking Dispensary relief, either those attending at the Dispensaries, or those attended at their homes, or change in the management of the Workhouses, it is difficult for us to apply or suggest any remedy; nor can the Boards of Guardians do more than guard, as far as possible, against the admission of persons, known to be thus ill-disposed, into the Workhouse.

21. We place in the Appendix* an abstract of the further cases of deportation of paupers from England to Ireland, in continuation of that given in our last Annual Report.

PROCEEDINGS UNDER THE MEDICAL CHARITIES ACT.

We now proceed to submit to your Excellency the Report of our proceedings, under the 14th and 15th Vic., cap. 68, the Medical Charities Act.

22. The following Table presents a summary for each province, and for the whole of Ireland, of the amount of Dispensary relief which has been afforded under this Act for the ten years during which it has been in full operation, the slighter cases prescribed for at the Dispensaries being distinguished from those of a more serious nature, in which the patients have been attended at their own homes.

both; yet that, reviewing the whole period, there has been a considerable increase in both classes of cases, so as to raise the total number of Dispensary cases for the year from 557,033 for 1853, to 660,456 for 1862, and the total number of cases attended on visiting tickets for the year from 133,378 for 1853 to 179,723 for 1862. So large an increase taking place concurrently with a decrease in the population, affords satisfactory evidence of a growing confidence on the part of the sick poor in the system of Dispensary relief under the Medical Charities Act, which an experience of ten years enables us to pronounce to have been signally successful, except in respect to vaccination.

The numbers of cases attended at the Dispensaries and at the patients' homes respectively, in each Dispensary district in Ireland, will be found as usual in the Appendix.*

23. In the next Table we give the annual expenditure for each province, and for all Ireland, under the Medical Charities Act, for the ten years it has been in full operation. For the three last of these years there is included, in addition, the expenditure incurred in carrying out vaccination at the Dispensaries and vaccination stations, under the Act for the further promotion of vaccination, of 1858.

The total expenditure, under the two Acts, for the last year exceeds that of the preceding year by £2,177; nearly three-fourths of the excess has fallen on Ulster and Munster. In the remaining provinces, also, there has been an excess, but one of small amount.

Expenses under the Medical Charities Act, year ended 29th September, 1862:—

|---|---|
| 1. Medicines and Medical appliances, | £19,710 |
| 2. Rent of Dispensary buildings, | 7,030 |

* Appendix D, No. 2, page 224.

The increased expenditure for the year ended September 29th, 1862, appears under each of the above six heads, but is of small amount for each, except for the items, medicines and medical appliances, and salaries of Medical Officers and Apothecaries. The increase under the former head, amounting to £1,206, is in part accounted for by the increased number of patients. As regards the salaries, there has been a steady increase in their amount, yearly, since the present Dispensary system was established. Their increase for last year is below the average of former years. There is a small increase under the sixth head in the amount of fees paid to Medical Officers for vaccinations, which seems inconsistent with the fact that the vaccinations have been fewer for the last than for the preceding year. The fees paid, however, are not the measure of the total vaccinations, but of those for the success of which the Medical Officers are able to certify, the subjects being resident in the Medical Officer's district. Occasionally the subjects of vaccination are not resident in the district; the operation fails in a certain proportion of cases ; in many cases children are not brought back for inspection, and the Medical Officer cannot certify to the success or otherwise of the operation. No fee is paid in any of these cases; and further, if in any Dispensary District there have been less than twenty vaccinations in the year, the Medical Officer receives no vaccination fee. All these cases, however, appear in the Vaccination Returns.

25. The average poundage on the valuation of Ireland, to provide for the year's total expenditure, was 2·04*d.* in the pound, which is slightly above that for the year before, which was 2·02*d.* in the pound.

26. The following alterations in Dispensary Districts have been effected in the course of the past year. The Castlederg and Killeter District, in the Castlederg Union, the area of which was greatly above average, was altered by separating from it the four Western Electoral Divisions, and constituting from them the Killeter Dispensary District, with a distinct Medical Officer; thus bringing medical aid within easier reach of the sick poor of this portion of the original District. In the Belfast Union the Guardians and Committees of three adjacent Dispensary Districts having represented to us that the sick poor of those Districts suffered great inconvenience from the uneven distribution of their poor population, and from their irregular and straggling form, rendered necessary in this case by the provision of the 6th Section of the Medical Charities Act, which directs, that in the formation of the Dispensary Districts, in no case shall an Electoral Division be divided; we acceded to the request of these bodies to constitute one District out of the three, thus putting in the power of the Committee of the newly-formed District to divide it among the three Medical Officers of the amalgamated Districts who were retained, in such manner as should be most conducive to the interests and convenience of the sick poor, without regard to the boundaries of Electoral Divisions.

In the spring of 1862, having ascertained that an unusual amount of sickness prevailed among the poor of the Islands of Innisboffin and Shark, at some distance from the coast of the Clifden Dispensary District, which comprises them, we called on the Guardians to fix a salary for a Medical Officer, to be temporarily appointed, who should have his residence in one of the Islands, and whose salary, we had been informed by a Committee of the Society of Friends, they were, with their usual benevolence and liberality, prepared to supplement. The Guardians having accordingly fixed a salary, we empowered the Committee to make the appointment. On the termination, however, of the temporary appointment, on consideration of the peculiar circumstances of the Islands, the position of which renders access to them by the boats of the coast, during a considerable portion of the year, dangerous or impossible, thus depriving them, often for long periods, of the benefit of the services of a Medical Officer resident on the mainland, we thought it right to press on the Guardians of the Union the propriety of appointing permanently a second Medical Officer for the Clifden District, with the condition of residence in the Island of Innisboffin. This proposal having been favourably received by the Guardians and Dispensary Committee, an order was issued authorizing the Committee to appoint a second Medical Officer. In the City of Cork Dispensary District, at the request of the Committee of Management, we sanctioned the appointment of a ninth Medical Officer; and in the Western District of the Galway Union, the area of which greatly exceeds the average, and in the eastern extremity of which the residence of the Medical Officer was placed, having ascertained that the sick poor of the Western portion of the District derived little benefit from the Dispensary under the then existing arrangements, we recommended to the Guardians and Dispensary Committee the appointment of a second Medical Officer, to have charge of the Western part of the District, having in view the election to this office, by the Committee, of the Medical Officer of the neighbouring District of Lettermore, whose residence was conveniently near to the western extremity of the western Dispensary District. We succeeded eventually in procuring the adoption of this arrangement, and do not doubt that it will prove materially beneficial to the sick poor of the part of the District affected by the change.

In the Cloonbur Dispensary District of the Oughterard Union, having dismissed the Medical Officer after inquiry, on sworn evidence, into a complaint of neglect of duty, and having repeatedly, but in vain, pressed on the Committee the appointment of another Medical Officer, this body not concurring in our decision, we were under the necessity, in exercise of the power conferred on us by the 8th Section of the Medical Charities Act, to provide against cases of this kind, of making the appointment ourselves. This is the only instance in which we have been obliged to exercise this power since the passing of the Medical Charities Act.

In the Kilfinnane Dispensary District, Kilmallock Union, in which there were two Medical Officers, at the request of the Committee of Management, we sanctioned the change to one Medical Officer, with the assistance of an Apothecary.

Midwives have been appointed in the course of the year in the Dingle and Clogher Dispensary Districts of the Union of the same name, and in the Castletown District of the Navan Union, and the Finglas and Glasnevin District of the North Dublin Union. In several Dispensary Districts the number of Members of Committees have been increased for the purpose of affording increased facilities to the sick poor for procuring tickets for Medical Relief.

27. A considerable period having elapsed since the issue of a list of Medicines for Dispensary use (in 1852), prepared with a view to the estimates of the Medical Officers, and the requisitions of Committees of Management, for occasional fresh supplies of medicines and medical and surgical appliances; some new remedies having in the interim come into general favour and use, and a number of others, not included in the original list, being frequently applied for in the requisitions sent to the Boards of Guardians, although remedies of similar virtues were to be found in our list, we prepared and issued on the 4th of July an enlarged list of medicines and medical and surgical appliances, containing a considerable number of articles in addition to those contained in the list of 1852. In forwarding this amended list to the Committees, we pointed out that in the event of the Medical Officers occasionally requiring the supply of medicines not contained in this list, they should be called on to make separate estimates and requisitions for such extras, stating at the same time the circumstances which led them to consider the supply of them necessary.

In contracting with druggists for the supply of medicines, the Boards of Guardians generally furnished them with our Dispensary list, requiring them to contract for those medicines only which were contained in it; and in many cases, when the requisition for medicines forwarded by the Dispensary Committees contained articles not appearing in this list, the Guardians complained that these articles, not being supplied under contract, were charged for at extravagant prices. For the purpose of obviating this evil, we prepared a second list of medicines to be used by the Boards of Guardians in contracting with druggists, and including all the medicines, simple and compound, which it was in the least degree probable that the Medical Officers would at any time require.

Copies of both lists will be found in the Appendix.*

28. For a considerable time past we had had under consideration the question as to the advisableness of altering and extending the clause of the Dispensary Regulations, prescribing the professional qualifications to be required of Dispensary Medical Officers. This clause, as at first framed, required on the part of the Medical Officers the possession of qualifications in surgery and midwifery, but did not require a special diploma in medicine, so that we had no assurance that all the Dispensary Medical Officers would bring to the discharge of their duties any greater acquaintance with purely medical diseases than is necessarily implied in the possession of diplomas or licences in surgery and midwifery.

Having regard, however, to the peculiar position in which the Dispensary Medical Officer is placed, and to the nature of his duties;—that in the great majority of instances there is but one Officer for each District, who is responsible for the treatment of every description of case, and that, in remote, rural, and mountainous Districts, he must rely altogether, in the ordinary performance of his duties, on his own unaided knowledge, in the treatment of every variety of disease, whether purely medical, or surgical, or obstetrical; in the treatment of fevers of various kinds, and often of the gravest character; of compound fractures and dislocations, or strangulated hernia; of cases of protracted or difficult labour, requiring the use of instruments to preserve the life of the mother or child, or both;—we could entertain no doubt as to the necessity of procuring, as far as possible, for the service of the Dispensaries, persons possessing diplomas testifying to their competency in each of the great branches of medical practice. Two difficulties only occurred to us as standing in the way of our requiring immediately the diploma in medicine, in addition to those already required, in future appointments of Dispensary Medical Officers. The first of these arose from the apprehension that it might prove impossible, in the case of remote rural districts, in which the salary is small and the private practice little or none, to find candidates possessed of the triple qualification; an apprehension justified by the occurrence of one such case already, in a late appointment of a second Medical Officer in the Clifden Dispensary District. The second difficulty alluded to above proceeds from the circumstance, that among the many bodies legally authorized to grant diplomas or licences in surgery, some submit the candidates for their diplomas to an examination embracing, in the practical part of it, surgery alone; while others, among which is the Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland, taking a sounder and more enlightened view respecting the extent of purely medical knowledge requisite to constitute a good surgeon, include the practice of medicine both in their curricula of education and in their examinations. Being well aware of the difference in value between these two descriptions of diplomas, we felt great reluctance to deal with them alike; yet we felt that we should be under the necessity, in the event of our requiring in future appointments of Dispensary Medical Officers the possession of strictly medical qualifications, of regarding all these surgical diplomas as being, what on the face of them they purport to be, viz., simply diplomas or licences to practise surgery.

In the consideration of the question respecting the qualification in practice of medicine, it was of importance to bear in mind, that a large proportion of the candidates for appointment as Dispensary Medical Officers in Ireland, present the diploma granted on the examination not including practice of medicine, which affords no guarantee that the holders of it possess any greater knowledge of the treatment of medical diseases than the limited amount that must be possessed by a person who has successfully undergone a purely surgical examination.

29. While this subject was still under consideration, we received two communications from the King's and Queen's College of Physicians, the object of which was to set forth the arguments which demonstrate the expediency of requiring the possession of diplomas in medicine on the part of Dispensary and Workhouse Medical Officers. Our attention was invited to the circumstance that such a diploma, or passing a special examination in the practice of medicine, is required from their Medical Officers by the Poor Law Board in England, and by the Medical authorities of the Army, Navy, and East India Services, and at the conclusion of their first letter, the College make the following statement:—

"The President and Fellows have lately been strongly impressed with the view now put forward, by the circumstance of several persons who possessed diplomas in surgery only, having come before them for examination in order to obtain a diploma in medicine, in compliance with the regulation of some of the official authorities or Boards above referred to, and being found on examination so deficient in the knowledge of the practice of medicine and of its collateral branches, that the College has been obliged to reject them."

30. Eventually, the above mentioned considerations, together with the arguments of the College of Physicians, determined us to alter the regulation prescribing the professional qualifications of Dispensary Medical Officers, and to require from them for the future that they should possess a diploma in medicine as well as in surgery and midwifery; with the precaution, however, of reserving to ourselves the power of dispensing with the diploma in medicine, in any case where candidates possessing it shall not present themselves.

The correspondence with the King's and Queen's College of Physicians on this subject, and the order prescribing the amended regulation, will be found in the Appendix.*

31. Soon after the publication of this order, the Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland, in addition to their licence in surgery, issued a diploma in medicine; and the Governors and Company of the Apothecaries' Hall in Dublin preferred a claim to have their licence accepted by us as equivalent to a diploma in medicine. On referring, however, to the Law Officers of the Crown the question as to the validity of these documents, we were advised that neither the charters of the College of Surgeons, nor the Act of Parliament of the Apothecaries, authorized the issue by them of diplomas in medicine.

Charities Act, and for the last four years under the same Act, and the Act for the Further Extension of Vaccination, passed in 1858, with the intention of remedying the failure of the former Act:—

| | | Number of Cases of Vaccination. |

| ,, ,, | 1861, | 90,256 |
| ,, ,, | 1862, | 89,863 |

33. The four years since the passing of the last Act show a very decided improvement compared with the six years from 1853 to 1858 inclusive. If we omit the year 1856, in which the number of vaccinations was exceptionally high, owing to panic caused by epidemic small-pox, which induced the poor to seek the protection of vaccination for their children in greatly increased numbers, the average vaccinations of the other five years in the table, before the passing of the Vaccination Extension Act, falls considerably short of half the average of the four years since the provisions of that Act became law. Notwithstanding the benefit secured by this Act, however, we are far from thinking the present state of vaccination at the Dispensaries and Vaccination Stations satisfactory. It may be safely asserted that much above 50,000 of the children born annually among the poorer classes in Ireland, are not vaccinated during the first year of their lives, and many not at all. We must, therefore, still feel earnestly anxious to press upon your Excellency, as we have often done before, the necessity for procuring the enactment of compulsory vaccination in Ireland, as it now exists in England.

34. The sanitary state of the country, as indicated by the Dispensary Returns, is not quite in so satisfactory a condition as it was at the date of our last Report. There has been, indeed, a diminution in the number of cases returned by the Dispensary Medical Officers for the year ended September 30th, 1862, compared with the year before, both of scarlatina and small-pox, notwithstanding outbreaks within limited bounds of both diseases during the year; but the cases of fever recorded considerably exceed those of the former year. The numbers of fever cases registered by the Dispensary Medical Officers for the years 1860 (from which year the increase dates), 1861, and 1862, have been respectively 10,822, 12,386, and 19,736. This increase is not greater than might reasonably have been anticipated, as a consequence of three successive bad harvests. Neither this, nor any other disease, has prevailed in an epidemic form through the country during the past year; nor has there been such an increase of fever as to give just grounds for apprehension that it is about to become epidemic.

DEPARTMENTAL ARRANGEMENTS.

35. In our last Annual Report it was stated that we had invested each of the four Medical Inspectors with the powers of a Poor Law Inspector, having obtained the assent of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to increase the number of the latter class of Inspectors in this manner with very little increase of expense to the public. This arrangement has, during the recent pressure, been found very useful in enabling us to conduct many of the inquiries arising under the Poor Law Acts, and involving medical questions, through the services of a Medical Inspector, and likewise in relieving some of the Poor Law Inspectors whose districts were the most extensive or the most burthened by pauperism, of the superintendence of some of the Unions included in them.

36. By the 26th section of the Act of last Session (25 and 26 Vic., c. 83), the powers of the Commissioners were continued until the 23rd July, 1863, and thenceforth until the end of the next session of Parliament.

We have the honour to be

Your Excellency's obedient, faithful Servants,

ORDERS AND CIRCULARS OF INSTRUCTIONS ISSUED BY THE COMMISSIONERS; CORRESPONDENCE, &c.

I.—Orders.

1.—STATEMENT (in pursuance of sec. 21 of 10 & 11 Vic. c. 90) OF ORDERS AND DIRECTIONS ISSUED BY THE COMMISSIONERS IN RESPECT TO OUT-DOOR RELIEF.

(In continuation of Statement in Appendix to Eighth Annual Report.)

Order authorizing Out-Door Relief to other Classes than those specified in Sec. 1 of 10 Vic. c. 31, issued by the Commissioners in pursuance of Sec. 2 of that Act.

Strokestown Union.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the Strokestown Union; to the Clerk and other Officers of the said Union; and to all other Persons whom it may concern:

Whereas, it has been shown to our satisfaction that, by reason of infectious Disease, the Workhouse of the Strokestown Union is at present unfit for the reception of Destitute Poor Persons being Children, and We deem it expedient to authorize and empower the Guardians of the said Union to administer Relief for a limited time, as hereinafter mentioned, to certain persons not being persons permanently disabled, or Destitute Poor Persons disabled by sickness or accident, or Destitute Poor Widows having two or more legitimate Children dependent on them.

Now, therefore, We, the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland, do hereby authorize and empower the said Guardians to administer Relief out of the Workhouse in Food to Destitute Poor Persons having a child or children dependent on them, and to Destitute Poor Children being Orphans, and to Deserted Children, for a period of Fourteen days from the date of this Order.

Sealed with our Seal, this Sixteenth day of June, in the Year of Our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-two.

(Signed,)

E. Senior.

J. M'Donnell, M.D.

An Order in the same terms was issued to the same Union on the 30th June, 14th July, 28th July, and 11th August.

2.—Order amending the General Regulations of 19th January, 1852, so far as relates to the Appointment and Continuance in Office of Collectors of Poor Rate.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the several Unions named in the Schedule hereunto annexed, and to all other Persons whom it may concern:

Whereas, by a General Order under Seal, bearing date the Nineteenth day of January, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Fifty-two, the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland did make certain Rules and Regulations relating to the Meetings and Proceedings of the Boards of Guardians of the several Unions in Ireland, and the Appointment and Duties of Union Officers:

And whereas, by Articles 25 and 41 of the said General Order it is, among other things, provided as follows, that is to say, by Article 25—

"In case any Collector of County Cess shall not offer to collect the Poor Rates in any Electoral Division or Divisions, in which or in any part whereof he is authorized to collect the County Cess, and be approved by the Commissioners as a fit person to collect Rates, or shall not give such security, or accept such salary or allowance as the Commissioners shall approve, the Guardians shall appoint one or more persons to act as Collectors of Poor Rates for such District or Districts as the Commissioners shall approve;"

And by Article 41—

"Provided always that no Collector of Poor Rates, appointed in any District under the provisions of this Order, shall be deemed to continue to hold such Office after the Guardians shall have withdrawn the Warrant by which he was authorized to collect Rates in such District."

And whereas, by reason of a recent amendment of the law the aforesaid provisions are no longer necessary, and it is expedient to make further regulation in lieu thereof:

Now therefore, in exercise of the powers vested in Us, We, the said Commissioners, do hereby rescind the provisions hereinbefore recited relating to the offices of Collector of County Cess and Collector of Poor Rates, except as to the appointments of Collectors made before the date of this Order; and with respect to Appointments which may be made hereafter of Collectors of Poor Rates, We do hereby Order, Direct, and Declare as follows, that is to say:—

The Board of Guardians of any Union shall, subject to our approval, appoint from time to time such and so many Persons as they may deem expedient to collect and levy the Rates made on the several Electoral Divisions of the Union.

And in all other respects We do hereby confirm the said General Order of the Nineteenth day of January, 1852, except where the same may be altered by this Order or any other Order under our Seal.

Provided that nothing herein contained shall apply to the District for the collection of Poor Rates as defined by the Act passed in the Session held in the Twelfth and Thirteenth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act to provide for the Collection of Poor Rates in the City of Dublin."

3.—General Order relating to the Relief of Orphan and Deserted Children out of the Workhouse.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the several Unions named in the Schedule hereunto annexed; to the Clerk or Clerks to the Justices of the Petty Sessions held for the Division or Divisions in which the Townlands and Places comprised within the said Unions are situate; and to all other Persons whom it may concern:

Whereas, by two several Orders under our Seal, bearing date the Nineteenth day of January, 1852, and the Eighth day of April, 1853, respectively; We, the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland, did prescribe the duties of Relieving Officers of all Unions in Ireland, and the Forms of Account to be kept by such Relieving Officers.

And whereas, by reason of certain changes in the Laws for Relief of the Destitute Poor in Ireland, it has become necessary to make further provision in that behalf, more especially in regard to the relief of orphan and deserted children out of the Workhouse.

Now, therefore, We do hereby Order and Declare that, when the Guardians of any Union shall place any child out at nurse, they shall assign the duty of attending to the relief of such child to some one Relieving Officer of the Union; and the duty of such Relieving Officer shall be:—

1. To see the child safely given over in charge to the person whom the Guardians shall have selected for the purpose.
2. To pay, by advance or otherwise, as the Guardians shall direct, but not less often than by monthly payments, the sums granted from time to time by the Guardians for the maintenance of the child, from the funds placed at his disposal by them for the purposes of out-door relief.
3. To cause such child, if not already successfully vaccinated, to be vaccinated by the Medical Officer of the Dispensary District in which the place of residence shall be situate.
4. To visit such child once at least in every month, and also when any special occasion shall arise for so visiting it, and to report immediately thereafter to the Board of Guardians on its health, cleanliness, and treatment, together with such other particulars as the Guardians shall at any time require.
5. In the event of the death of such child, to take steps for burying it, according to the directions of the Board of Guardians, applicable generally to such cases.

And, as regards the charging of the expenses incurred by the Guardians in relieving such child, We do Order and Declare as follows:—

1. The name of the child, together with the other particulars required by the regulations of the Commissioners shall, on its discharge from the Workhouse, be placed on the Out-door Relief Register, and on the Out-door Relief List; and the sums expended in the relief of all such cases shall be entered like other sums expended in out-relief, in the Relieving Officer's Weekly Relief and Expenditure Book.
2. The expenses of relieving such child, and of its burial in case of death, shall be charged to some Electoral Division, or to the Union at large, as the case may be, under the head of Out-door Relief, and entered in the Union accounts accordingly.

I, George William Frederick Earl of Carlisle, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, do hereby approve this Order.

By Command of His Excellency,

Thos. A. Larcom.

4.—Order amending the General Regulations of 19th January, 1852, so far as relates to the Qualification for the Office of Medical Officer of a Workhouse.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the several Unions named in the Schedule hereunto annexed; to the Clerk or Clerks to the Justices of the Petty Sessions held for the Division or Divisions in which the Townlands and Places comprised within the said Unions are situate; and to all other Persons whom it may concern:

Whereas, by a General Order under Seal, bearing date the Nineteenth day of January, 1852, the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland, did issue Rules and Regulations for conducting the Meetings and Proceedings of Boards of Guardians of the several Unions throughout Ireland, wherein are prescribed among other things the mode of Appointment of Union Officers, their Qualifications, and the duties to be performed by them.

And whereas, it is expedient to alter the Qualifications prescribed in the said Regulations for the Office of Medical Officer of the Workhouse, in regard to such Officers as may hereafter be appointed.

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers given to Us by the Acts in force for the Relief of the Destitute Poor in Ireland, We, the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland, do hereby Order, Direct, and Declare that, except as is hereinafter provided, the Qualifications of every Medical Officer of the Workhouse who may be appointed after the date hereof, shall be as follows, that is to say:

No. 1. He shall have obtained a Degree in Medicine, or a Diploma or Licence to practise Medicine, from some College or other Body that may be authorized to grant a Diploma or Licence to practise Medicine in Great Britain or Ireland, also a Diploma in Surgery or a Licence to practise Surgery from some College or other Body that may be authorized to grant a Diploma or Licence to practise Surgery in Great Britain or Ireland, and also a Certificate from some Board or Court of Examiners, or other Body duly authorized to grant the same, of his possessing a competent knowledge of Midwifery.

No. 2. He shall have reached the age of twenty-three years.

Provided, that under special circumstances affecting the particular Workhouse for which the appointment is made, that part of the above Qualification which requires a separate Medical Certificate or Diploma may be dispensed with by Us, the said Commissioners, if We shall deem it necessary to do so.

Provided also, that the foregoing Regulation shall not apply to any person holding the office of Medical Officer of the Workhouse at the date hereof, either in respect to his present appointment or any future appointment to the said office.

And We do hereby confirm the said General Regulations of the Nineteenth day of January, 1852, in reference to the Qualification for the said office in all respects except so far as they may be altered by this Order.

5.—ORDER extending the PROVISIONS of the ORDER of 10th October, 1862, relating to the QUALIFICATIONS of MEDICAL OFFICERS of WORKHOUSES.

To the GUARDIANS of the POOR of the several UNIONS named in the Schedule hereunto annexed; to the CLERK or CLERKS to the JUSTICES of the PETTY SESSIONS held for the Division or Divisions in which the Townlands and Places comprised within the said UNIONS are situate: and to all other Persons whom it may concern:

Whereas, by a General Order under our Seal, bearing date the Tenth day of October, 1862, We, the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland, did alter the regulations in reference to the Qualifications for the office of Medical Officer of a Workhouse, contained in a General Order under our Seal, bearing date the Nineteenth day of January, 1852, so far as the said Order might apply to future appointments.

6.—General Order for Regulating the Election of Guardians.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the several Unions named in the Schedule hereunto annexed; to the Returning Officer, and other Officers, in each of the said Unions respectively; and to all other Persons whom it may concern:

Whereas by a General Order under Seal, bearing date the 26th day of January, 1852, the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland, did make Rules and Regulations for the conduct of the Election of Guardians in the several Unions throughout Ireland. And whereas We, the said Commissioners, deem it expedient to alter the said Rules and Regulations, and to make further Rules and Regulations in that behalf.

Now, therefore, with respect to every future Election of Guardians, We, the said Commissioners, in exercise of the Powers vested in Us, do hereby rescind the said General Order of the 26th day of January, 1852, and every matter and thing therein contained, except so far as the said Order may have rescinded provisions contained in previous Orders therein referred to; and We do hereby rescind each and every part of the said previous Orders, except such portions thereof as may have appointed the Clerk for the time being to the Board of Guardians to be Returning Officer, and may not have been rescinded by any subsequent Order, and except such portions of the said previous Orders as may have fixed the value of the qualification for the office of Guardian, and may not have been rescinded or altered by any subsequent Order.

And We do hereby Order, Direct, and Declare, with respect to future Annual Elections in each and every of the Unions named in the Schedule hereunto annexed, as follows:—

Article 1.—The duties herein directed to be performed by the Returning Officer, and all other duties suitable to his Office, which it may be requisite for him to perform in conducting and completing the Election of Guardians from time to time in each of the Unions named in the Schedule hereunto annexed, shall be performed by the person already or hereafter appointed for the purpose by any Order of the Commissioners in force for the time being in such Union, and required or directed by such Order to perform the same: or by any person duly appointed to perform such duties in case of vacancy in the office of Returning Officer, or of his being prevented by sickness, accident, or other sufficient cause, from the performance of his duties. And in every case in which the Clerk for the time being to the Board of Guardians has been or shall be appointed Returning Officer, and the office of Clerk shall be vacant at any time when any proceeding is to be taken under this Order, or in case the Clerk shall be prevented by sickness or accident or other sufficient cause from the performance of his duties, the Guardians of such Union shall appoint some person to perform such of the duties imposed by this Order upon the Returning Officer as shall then remain to be performed, and the person so appointed shall perform such duties.

Article 2.—The Police Force employed in the Union are hereby appointed to be Assistants to the Returning Officer for posting the Notice of Election, and for distributing and collecting Voting Papers where necessary, as hereinafter directed. Provided always, that if in any case the services of the Police Force should not be available or sufficient for the purpose, the Returning Officer shall, on receiving information thereof, appoint a competent number of fit and proper persons to act as his Assistants instead of the Police so far as shall duly appear to be necessary.

Article 3.—The respective Collectors of Poor Rates in each Union are hereby appointed to be Assistants to the Returning Officer for the purposes hereinafter specified; and shall attend the Returning Officer on the days appointed for examining Nomination Papers and the Votes given at any Election of Guardians of the Union, bringing with them their respective Collecting Books, and shall assist such Officer in examining the Qualification of persons nominated for the office of Guardian or making Nominations, and the validity of the Votes.

Article 4.—Persons liable to pay or contribute Rate in respect of any property not in their actual occupation, or in respect of any interest equivalent to Profit-rent arising out of property occupied by them, or in respect of property for which they are rated under the provisions of the Act 6th and 7th Vic. c. 92, sections 1 and 4, or of the Act 12 and 13 Vic. c. 91, section 63, or of the Act 12 and 13 Vic. c. 104, section 10, may, in making Statements of their Claim to Vote, follow the Form A 1, A 2, or C 1, hereunto annexed, as the case may require; but any Statement which contains the particulars required by the 1st and 2nd Vic. c. 56, section 84, and the 25th and 26th Vic. c. 83, section 15, will be sufficient.

Article 5.—Rate-payers in appointing Proxies, and Proxies in making Statements of their claims to Vote, may follow the Forms marked B 1 and B 2, or C 2 and C 3, hereunto annexed, as the case may require; but any Statement which contains the particulars required by the 1st and 2nd Vic. c. 56, section 84, and the 25th and 26th Vic. c. 83, section 15, will be sufficient.

Article 6.—All such Statements of Rate-payers claiming to Vote, and Appointments and Statements of Proxies, shall be registered in Books to be kept for the purpose, according to the Forms annexed to this Order, and marked D 1, D 2, D 3, D 4, and D 5, respectively, as the case may require; and the Clerk shall enter in such Books all such Statements and Appointments as may be given to the Guardians; and the Returning Officer shall register therein all such Statements and Appointments received by him, and shall afterwards deposit the original Statements and Appointments with the Clerk, who shall carefully preserve all such Statements and Appointments as are received by him, together with the Registers thereof.

Article 7.—The Guardians and their Clerk shall permit the Returning Officer to have access, for the purposes of the Election of Guardians, at all reasonable times, to the Rates made for each Electoral Division of the Union, and to the Registers of Statements and Appointments heretofore required to be made, and hereinbefore required to be kept.

Article 8.—The Returning Officer, between the time of the receipt of this Order and the next Election of Guardians, and from time to time thereafter as occasion may arise, shall revise, amend, and perfect the several Registries of Claims, D 1, D 2, D 3, D 4, and D 5; and to this end, if he shall have reasonable cause to doubt the correctness of any claim to Vote, made by any person in respect of Rent received and retained by such person, he shall require such person to produce evidence of the amount of such Rent, to his satisfaction: and where such evidence shall have been given, he shall amend or affirm the entry of Net Annual Value of such Rent in the Register, according to his judgment; and shall record the same by a memorandum on the margin of the Register, dated and signed, making reference therein to the documents upon which his opinion is founded; and in every case in which evidence of the amount of the Rent shall not have been produced to his satisfaction, or in which he shall be satisfied that the claim to Vote is fictitious, or otherwise invalid, he shall record the fact, together with his opinion thereon, in like manner, as is above directed, by a memorandum on the margin of the Register, dated and signed, making reference therein to the documents, if any, on which his opinion is founded. He shall also note upon such Registries of Claims every claim which shall have ceased to be in force by reason of the expiration of five years from the date on which it was given; also the revocation of every appointment of a Proxy which shall have been revoked.

Article 9.—The Returning Officer shall, on the 25th day of February in every year, issue a Notice, according to the Form marked E, hereunto annexed; and shall cause Copies thereof to be posted at, on, or near the principal entrance of every Church and other house of Worship, and at every Court House, Police Station, Market House, and other usual place for posting Public Notices, in the Union. He shall, moreover, transmit by Post, at the charge of the Union, a Copy of the Notice to each of the Justices of the Peace resident therein, and to each of the Justices qualified to be ex-officio Guardians of the Union.

Article 10.—Any person entitled, at the time of Nomination, to Vote in any Electoral Division of the Union, or in any Ward of an Electoral Division, may propose in the manner following, for the office of Guardian of such Division or Ward, himself, if legally qualified, or any other person or persons (not exceeding the number of Guardians to be elected for such Division or Ward), legally qualified to be elected for that office.

Article 11.—Every Nomination shall be in writing in the Form marked F 1, or F 2, hereunto annexed, as the case may be, and shall be signed by the Rate-payer nominating, and shall be delivered to the Returning Officer, at such place as he shall appoint, or to such person as he may appoint to receive it, on any day from the date of the said Notice until the 4th day of March, both inclusive; but no Nomination delivered to the Returning Officer before the issue of such Notice, or after the hour of Five o'clock in the afternoon of the said 4th day of March, shall be valid.

Article 12.—The Returning Officer shall carefully preserve all Nomination Papers received by him; and on the receipt of each, shall mark thereon a number and date, according to the order and time of receipt of the same. He shall also compare each Nomination Paper with the Rate Book, or with the Registers of Statements and Appointments required to be kept; and, assisted by the respective Collectors with their Collecting Books, shall ascertain whether the several persons named in each Nomination Paper are in all respects duly qualified to nominate or be elected for the office of Guardian respectively.

Article 13.—If any person put in Nomination for the office of Guardian, shall, at any time previous to the preparation or signature of the List of Candidates as hereinafter directed, die, or tender to the Officer conducting the Election of Guardians, his refusal, in writing, to serve such Office, the Returning Officer shall omit or strike out the name of such person from the List of Candidates.

Article 14.—In any case in which no person shall have been put in Nomination for an Electoral Division, the Returning Officer shall, with the assistance of the Collector of the District, ascertain whether the Guardian or Guardians for such Electoral Division, whose year of office is expiring, continue to be in all respects duly qualified for the office of Guardian.

Article 15.—The Returning Officer shall prepare and sign a List according to the Form marked G, hereunto annexed, of the several qualified Candidates duly nominated as aforesaid, and whose names have not been omitted or struck out under Article 13 up to the 8th of March, and also the names of the Guardian or Guardians of those Electoral Divisions (if any) for which no Nomination shall have been made, and who continue to be in all respects duly qualified for the office of Guardian; and such List shall contain the names and residences of the Rate-payer or Rate-payers by whom the Candidates shall respectively have been proposed; but it shall not be necessary in any case to name in the List or in the Voting Papers hereinafter mentioned more than one Rate-payer as proposer of any Candidate.

Article 16.—The Returning Officer shall forward a Copy of such List on the 8th day of March, to the said Commissioners; and shall cause a Copy thereof to be laid before the Board of Guardians by the Clerk of the Union, at their first Meeting after the List is so completed and forwarded: and the Guardians to be elected for the Electoral Divisions and Wards of the Union, shall be chosen from the Candidates, being duly nominated and qualified, whose names are contained in such List.

Article 17.—If the Candidates for an Electoral Division or Ward shall not exceed the number of Guardians to be elected for the Division or Ward, such Candidates (excepting those who may in writing decline to act), shall be deemed to be the elected Guardians for such Division or Ward, and shall be certified as such in the Return to be made by the Returning Officer, as hereinafter provided.

Article 18.—When the number of qualified Candidates duly nominated for any Electoral Division or Ward, shall exceed the number of Guardians to be elected for any such Division or Ward, the Returning Officer shall thereupon forthwith prepare Lists, according to the annexed Forms H 1 and H 2, of the Rate-payers of such Division or Ward and of Proxies appointed; in which Lists the several particulars specified in such Forms shall be so stated as to show the total annual value of the several parcels of rateable property occupied by the same Rate-payer, or in respect of which the same Rate-payer shall have made a valid claim to Vote in such Electoral Division or Ward; also the total amount of Net Rents, or Net Annual Value, or of Tithe Rent-charges, set forth in Statements received, or in Appointments of Proxies, following the latest decision of any Returning Officer for the time being, in every case which shall have been dealt with under the provisions of Article 8: and the List of Rate-payers making such Statements, and of Proxies, shall be made up to one calendar month preceding the first day herein appointed for collecting Votes.

Article 19.—If at any time after the preparation and signature of the List of Candidates, and before the issue of Voting Papers as hereinafter directed, any of the persons put in Nomination shall tender to the Officer conducting the Election of Guardians, his or their refusal, in writing, to serve the office of Guardian, whereby the number of Candidates for any Electoral Division or Ward shall be reduced to or below the number of Guardians to be elected, then the remaining Candidates for such Division or Ward shall be certified in the Return to be made as hereinafter provided, as Guardians, and it will not be necessary to issue Voting Papers in any such case; but where the number of Candidates shall still exceed the number of Guardians to be elected, the Returning Officer shall cause Voting Papers, in the Form J 1, or J 2, as the case may require, to be printed for such Divisions or Wards; and he shall prepare Lists of the Voters for whom Papers are to be left by the persons who shall be employed to distribute them, in which Lists shall be stated the number of each Paper, and the name of the place at which it is to be left; and every Paper shall be folded and endorsed with its proper number; and the Voting Papers shall be arranged in parcels, according to Townlands, or Streets, or similar order, as far as practicable, and be delivered to the persons employed to distribute and collect the Papers so arranged, that they may distribute and collect them as nearly as possible in the order in which they receive them.

Article 20.—If at any time after the printing and before the issuing of the Voting Papers, any person put in Nomination shall die, or shall tender to the Officer conducting the Election of Guardians, his refusal, in writing, to serve the office of Guardian, but the number of Candidates shall still exceed the number of Guardians to be elected, the Returning Officer shall, before issuing the Voting Papers, erase the name of such person therefrom, by drawing a line through such name in ink.

Article 21.—The Voting Papers shall be issued on the 18th day of March, and if the whole cannot be issued on that day, the remainder shall be issued on the following day; but it shall not be necessary to deliver Papers in any Electoral Division or Ward, for which the number of Candidates shall, before the said 18th day of March, be reduced to or below the number of Guardians to be elected; in which case each remaining Candidate for such Division or Ward, duly nominated and qualified, shall be certified in the Return as a Guardian.

Article 22.—Every Collector of Rates for any Electoral Division, or for any Ward thereof, in which a contest for the office of Guardian may occur, shall attend to assist the Returning Officer in issuing Voting Papers, and shall compare the List of Occupiers, and of persons rated as Owners or Immediate Lessors under the provisions of the Act 6 and 7 Vic. c. 92, sections 1 and 4, or of the Act 12 and 13 Vic. c. 91, section 63, or of the Act 12 and 13 Vic. c. 104, section 10, with his Collecting Books, and set a mark opposite to the name of every Occupier, Owner, or Immediate Lessor, who shall have paid all Rates assessed on him, and against the name of every Occupier, Owner, or Immediate Lessor, who shall have paid all such Rates, excepting such as may have been made within the six calendar months immediately preceding the first day appointed for issuing the Voting Papers; up to which day, if any Occupier, Owner, or Immediate Lessor, shall tender payment of Rate due by him, the Collector shall receive the amount, and set a mark indicating payment of Rate opposite the name of such Occupier, Owner, or Immediate Lessor.

Article 23.—The Returning Officer shall cause one Voting Paper to be delivered by a person appointed for that purpose at the residence of every Occupier, Owner, or Immediate Lessor, named in the List, according to Form H 1, specified in Article 18, who shall appear not to owe any Rate made six calendar months or more previously to the first day for issuing Voting Papers; and Voting Papers for all other Rate-payers and for Proxies, shall be delivered at the respective places appointed by them in the Electoral Division or Ward.

Article 24.—Every Rate-payer entitled to Vote in more than one capacity in any Division or Ward shall be supplied with a Voting Paper for each capacity in which he is entitled to Vote; and every Proxy shall receive a separate Voting Paper for each of the Rate-payers entitled to Vote for whom he acts as Proxy in respect of each Division or Ward in which they may be entitled to Vote.

Article 25.—The Voter, whether he be the Proxy of a Rate-payer or not, shall place his own initials opposite the name of every Candidate for whom he Votes, and shall sign the Voting Paper; and every Proxy shall also state thereon, in his own handwriting, the name of the person for whom he is Proxy; but if the Voter cannot write, he may procure a person to write the Voter's name on the Paper, in full, and such person shall then write the Voter's initials opposite to the name of each Candidate for whom the Voter intends to Vote, and afterwards affix his own signature to the Paper as witness to the mark of the Voter, which is to be affixed by the Voter to the Paper in place of signature.

Article 26.—If the initials of a Voter shall be written against the names of more persons than are to be elected Guardians for the Electoral Division or Ward, or if he shall not sign or affix his mark to the Voting Paper, or if his mark shall not be duly attested, the Voting Paper shall not be included in the casting up of the Votes.

Article 27.—No person, not being a Proxy or an Officer of a Corporation or Company duly appointed to Vote, shall Vote in the name of any other person.

Article 28.—On the 20th day of March, and if necessary on the following day, the Returning Officer shall cause the Voting Papers to be collected, but in no case (excepting that provided for in Article 42,) shall a Voting Paper be allowed to remain more than one clear day with the Voter: and the persons employed in collecting the Voting Papers shall not examine or permit any person to have access to such Papers while in their charge; and on completing the collection in any Electoral Division or Ward, they shall arrange the Voting Papers according to the numbers endorsed thereupon, in pursuance of Article 19, and enclose them in a parcel, which shall thereupon be delivered by one of the persons so employed in each Division or Ward, to the Returning Officer, as nearly as possible in the same order as that in which the Voting Papers had been received from him.

Article 29.—Every person entitled to Vote, who shall not on the 18th or 19th day of March have received a Voting Paper, as aforesaid, shall, on application in person to the Returning Officer, on the days appointed for the collection of the Voting Papers, and between the hours of Ten in the forenoon and Five in the afternoon, be entitled to receive a Voting Paper, and to fill up the same in the presence of the Returning Officer, and then and there to deliver the same to him.

Article 30.—Any person who shall not, on the 18th or 19th day of March, have received a Voting Paper, as aforesaid, by reason of his not having paid any Poor-rate made and assessed upon him six calendar months or more before the first day appointed for the issue of Voting Papers, shall nevertheless, if he pay all such Rate on any of the days appointed for the distribution and collection of Voting Papers, be entitled to receive a Voting Paper and to Vote in manner provided in Article 29, on personal application to the Returning Officer within the time therein mentioned, and on producing to him the Collector's receipt for the full amount of such Rate.

Article 31.—If in any case a Voting Paper duly issued, shall not have been collected through the default of any of the persons employed by the Returning Officer for the purpose, the Voter may in person deliver the Paper to the Returning Officer on the day immediately following the last day appointed for the collection of Voting Papers, and between the hours of Ten in the forenoon and Five in the afternoon.

Article 32.—The Returning Officer shall attend from the hour of Ten in the forenoon until the hour of Five in the afternoon, at the Board-room of the Workhouse, or other place appointed for the conduct of the Election and named in his Notice of the Election, on the several days on which Voting Papers may be issued and filled up and delivered in his presence, as provided in Articles 29, 30, and 31, of this Order; and on all such other days as may be necessary for the due conduct of the Election in conformity with this Order.

Article 33.—If at any time after the issuing of the Voting Papers shall have commenced, and before the making of the Return hereinafter directed, any person put in nomination for the office of Guardian in any Electoral Division or Ward, shall die or tender to the Returning Officer conducting the Election of Guardians his refusal, in writing, to serve such office, the Votes which may be given for such person shall not be cast up, or continue to be cast up, as the case may be; and the Votes so given for such person will be lost: and if the number of Candidates for any Electoral Division or Ward shall thereby be reduced to or below the number of Guardians to be elected, the remaining Candidates for such Division or Ward, duly nominated and qualified, shall be certified in the Return as Guardians; but if the number of such remaining Candidates shall still exceed the number of Guardians to be elected, the Returning Officer shall proceed in the Election as hereinafter directed.

Article 34.—When the collection of the Voting Papers shall have been completed, the Returning Officer shall attend at the Board-room of the Guardians of the Union, and shall, assisted by the Collectors of Poor-rates, ascertain the validity of the Votes, and shall register the Valid Votes duly given for each remaining Candidate, opposite to the name of each Rate-payer or Proxy; after which he shall cast up the Votes so registered, and ascertain and register the total number of such Votes for each Candidate. The Candidate or Candidates, to the number of Guardians to be elected for the Electoral Division or Ward, who shall have obtained the greatest number of Votes, shall be deemed to be the elected Guardian or Guardians for such Division or Ward.

Article 35.—The Returning Officer shall, on the 25th day of March, make a true Return to the said Commissioners, in writing under his hand and seal, in the Form marked K, hereto annexed, of the names of every Electoral Division and Ward of the Union, and the names of all the Candidates who shall have been duly nominated, together with (in the case of a contest) the number of Votes given for each, and the names of the persons elected as Guardians; and in any case in which there shall have been no Candidate nominated for an Electoral Division, the Returning Officer shall state in the said Return, opposite to the name of such Electoral Division, the name or names of the Guardian or Guardians for such Electoral Division for the last year who continue to be duly qualified; and in any case in which the number of Candidates shall have been less than the number of Guardians to be elected for any Electoral Division or Ward, or in which any of the Candidates shall have died or refused to serve, the fact shall be so stated in the Return opposite to the name of such Division or Ward.

Article 36.—If the examination of Votes collected cannot be completed as aforesaid, on or before the 25th day of March, the Returning Officer shall forthwith proceed to complete the examination, and shall make a Return of the Election to the said Commissioners on one of the fourteen days (not being a Sunday) next following the said 25th day of March.

Article 37.—When the Return of the Election shall have been made to the Commissioners, the Returning Officer shall forthwith lay before the Board of Guardians, or deliver to the Clerk of the Union to be laid before the Board of Guardians, a certified copy of such Return: and the Clerk of the Union shall immediately on such Return of any Annual Election of Guardians for a Union being made, or on receipt of the certified copy thereof, forward to every Member of the out-going Board of Guardians, whether he shall have been re-elected or shall be entitled to continue in office or not, and including the ex-officio Guardians, a Notice, in the annexed Form L, containing a List of the Electoral Divisions and Wards in the Union, and of the names and addresses of the Guardians elected, or continuing in office, and returned for the same respectively.

Article 38.—The Clerk of the Union shall also notify to each person returned as elected at any Election of Guardians, or continuing in office, the fact of his having been so elected, or of his so continuing in office, by delivering or sending, or causing to be delivered or sent to him, a Notice in the Form M or N, hereto annexed, as the case may require.

Article 39.—Within seven days after the Return of the Election shall have been made, all Books, Papers, and other Documents relating to the Election shall be deposited with and remain in the custody of the Clerk to the Board of Guardians, by whom they shall be preserved; and no person, other than the Returning Officer, or the Poor Law Inspector, shall inspect such Books, Papers, or other Documents without a resolution of the Board of Guardians authorizing him to inspect the same.

Article 40.—The Guardians shall pay to the Returning Officer for the conduct and management of the Election generally, such reasonable remuneration as the said Commissioners may allow; and such remuneration, together with the cost of providing the requisite supplies of the several Forms hereunto annexed, with the exception of the Voting Papers, Forms J 1 and J 2, shall be defrayed by the Guardians out of the common fund of the said Union.

Article 41.—The Guardians shall pay to the Collectors of Poor-rates, and to the persons appointed to distribute and collect the Voting Papers, or to assist the Returning Officer in preparing Lists of Voters, for the duties arising out of any contested Election, such reasonable remuneration as may be allowed by the said Commissioners; and such remuneration, together with the cost of providing Voting Papers, where required, in the Forms marked J 1 and J 2, shall be defrayed by the Guardians and charged to the Electoral Divisions in respect of which such expenses may be incurred; and where any expenses under this Article shall be incurred in respect of any two or more Electoral Divisions combined for the election of one Guardian, such expenses shall be charged in equal proportions to the Divisions so combined.

Article 42.—Whenever the day appointed in this Order for the performance of any act shall be a Sunday or Good Friday, such act shall be performed on the day next following.

Article 43.—Wherever two or more Electoral Divisions shall have been combined into a District for the Election of one Guardian for such District, all the provisions in this Order contained which apply to a single Electoral Division, having a separate Guardian or Guardians, shall apply to such District of Electoral Divisions in like manner as if it were a single Electoral Division.

Article 44.—In case any Election of a Guardian or Guardians, other than the Annual Election, shall be ordered by the said Commissioners for the purpose of supplying a vacancy or vacancies in the Office of Guardian for any part of a Union, such Election shall be held at such time, and the several proceedings therein shall be taken on such dates, as may be fixed by any Order issued by the Commissioners in that behalf; and such Election shall be conducted in accordance with the regulations in this Order contained, subject to the directions that may be contained in the Order for such Election.

I, ——, Returning Officer of the —— Union, do hereby give Notice, that an Election of Guardians of the Poor of the above Union is to take place as follows :—

1. The Number of Guardians of the Poor to be elected for the Electoral Divisions [and Wards, where divided into Wards], in the said Union, is as follows :—

For the Electoral Division of ——, —— Guardians.

[The Names of the Electoral Divisions and Wards, where any Electoral Division is subdivided into Wards, and the Number of Guardians, to be here inserted, as well as the amount of Qualification where it is different for different Divisions of the Union.]

2. Any male person of full age, not expressly disqualified by law, who is entitled, under the provisions of the Acts for the Relief of the destitute Poor in Ireland, to vote at Elections of Guardians in the said Union, and who shall have been liable under the last made Rate, to pay or contribute Rate in respect of property of the net annual value of not less than —————— Pounds, [or the amounts above stated respectively], in his occupation, or for which he is rated as Owner or Immediate Lessor, within the said Union, or who is entitled to vote in respect of net rent payable to his receipt in the said Union, of that amount, or who is entitled to vote in respect of Tithe Rent-charge payable to his receipt from property within the Union, of that amount, will be eligible as a Guardian for any Electoral Division [or Ward or District of Electoral Divisions, as the case may be] in the said Union. But no person being in Holy Orders, or being a regular Minister of any religious denomination, is eligible as a Guardian ; and no person who has been convicted of felony, fraud, or perjury,—and no person who has been adjudged to be liable to any forfeiture for having provided, furnished, or supplied for his own profit any materials, goods, or provisions for the use of any Workhouse, or for having been concerned in furnishing or supplying the same, or in any Contract relating thereto,—is capable of being elected or appointed, or of acting as a Guardian.

3. Any person who has been a Guardian for any year, is re-eligible for the ensuing or any subsequent year, provided he possesses the qualification prescribed, and is duly nominated; but if he be elected Guardian for more than one Electoral Division, Electoral District, or Ward, it will be necessary for him to notify to the Returning Officer for which of such Electoral Divisions, Electoral Districts, or Wards, he will choose to act as Guardian, and steps will then be taken with a view to a further Election of Guardians in the other of such Divisions, Districts, or Wards.

4. No Occupier rated to the Poor Rate will be entitled to vote in that capacity unless he shall have paid all Poor Rates previously made and assessed upon him, except such as shall have been made or become due within six calendar months immediately preceding such voting; and no Owner or Immediate Lessor who is rated under the provisions of the Act 6 & 7 Vic., c. 92, secs. 1 and 4, or of the Act 12 & 13 Vic., c. 91, sec. 63, or of the Act 12 & 13 Vic., c. 104, sec. 10, will be entitled to vote in respect of the property for which he is so rated, unless he shall have paid all the rates made and assessed upon him in respect of such property, except such as shall have been made, or become due within six calendar months immediately preceding such voting.

5. No Rate-payer will be entitled to vote in respect of any property not in his actual occupation, or in respect of any interest equivalent to Profit Rent arising out of property occupied by him, unless he shall, one calendar month at the least previous to the first day hereinafter named for collecting Votes, have delivered to the Board of Guardians of the Union, or to the person acting for the time being as Returning Officer, a statement in writing of his name and address, and the description and local situation of the property in respect of which he claims to vote, specifying in Cities, Towns, and their Suburbs, having Streets and other Roadways, the Name of the Street or Roadway, and the Number of the House or Tenement, if any, and the Parish in which the property is situate, and in other places the Barony, Parish, and Townland, so that the property may be ascertained and identified with reasonable certainty, together with the nature of the interest of the Ratepayer therein, and its net annual value over and above all rents payable by him, and the amount of rent payable to him, and the names of the Tenants or Occupiers by whom Poor Rates have been deducted from such rent, and such claim to vote must be executed in the presence of a Justice of the Peace.

6. Any Rate-payer in respect of property not in his actual occupation, may, by writing under his hand, appoint any person to vote as his Proxy ; but such Proxy must, one calendar month previous to the day on which he shall claim to vote, have given to the Board of Guardians or the Returning Officer, a statement in writing of his own name and address, and also the name and address of the Ratepayer appointing him such Proxy, and the description and local situation of the property in respect of which he claims to vote as Proxy, specifying in Cities, Towns, and their Suburbs, having Streets and other Roadways, the Name of the Street or Roadway, and the Number of the House or Tenement, if any, and the Parish in which the property is situate, and in other places the Barony, Parish, and Townland, so that the property may be ascertained and identified with reasonable certainty, together with the nature of the interest of the Rate-payer therein, and its net annual value, over and above all rents payable by him, and the amount of rent payable to him, and the Names of the Tenants or Occupiers by whom Poor Rates have been deducted from such rent. The Proxy must also give an original or attested copy of the writing appointing him such Proxy, and the claim to vote must be executed in the presence of a Justice of the Peace. No person can vote as Proxy for more than twenty owners of property in any one Electoral Division or Ward, unless he be a Steward, Bailiff, Land Agent, or Collector of Rents for the owners of property for whom he may be appointed to vote.

7. Nominations of Guardians for any Electoral Division [or Ward or District], must be made by Rate-payers entitled to vote in the Division [Ward or District], according to the form prescribed by the Poor Law Commissioners, printed copies of which form may be had on application to me; and such nominations will be received by me at ————, and will be receivable on and after the date of this Notice, up to the hour of Five o'clock in the afternoon of the 4th day of March next; but no Nomination will be Valid if received after that time, or before the issue of this Notice; or if the Nominator shall not have paid all the Poor Rates previously made and assessed on him, except such as shall have been made or become due within the six calendar months immediately preceding the Nomination. If in any Electoral Division no person be put in Nomination, the Guardian or Guardians of such Electoral Division will remain in office for the ensuing year, as if they had been re-elected, provided they continue to be duly qualified.

8. If more than the above-mentioned number of Guardians be duly nominated for any Electoral Division [or Ward or District], I shall cause Voting Papers to be delivered on the 18th day of March, and if necessary on the following day, to the address in the Electoral Division [or Ward or District] of each Rate-payer and Proxy qualified to vote, which Voting Papers will contain full instructions as to the mode of Voting; and on the 20th day of March, and if necessary on the following day, I shall cause such Voting Papers to be collected.

10. On the 20th day of March and following days, I shall attend in the Board Room of the said Union, at the hour of 10 o'clock in the forenoon; and I shall thereafter proceed to ascertain the number of Votes given for each Candidate.

11. Every person entitled to vote, who shall not have received a Voting Paper, on either of the days appointed for delivering the same, may, on application in person to the Returning Officer, on the days appointed for the collection of the Voting Papers, receive a Voting Paper and fill up the same in the presence of the Returning Officer, and then and there deliver the same to him. And if in any case a Voting Paper duly issued shall not have been collected on the proper days through the default of any of the persons employed by the Returning Officer for the collection of Voting Papers, the Voter may in person deliver the Paper to the Returning Officer on or before the 22nd day of March.

II.—CIRCULARS.

No. 1.—Emigration to Canada.—Circular to Boards of Guardians.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
May 6, 1862.

Sir,

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland have recently received a copy of a paper, issued in the month of February last, from the Government Emigration Office at Quebec, for the information of Emigrants, containing some particulars which it may be useful to Boards of Guardians to be acquainted with, in reference to any applications which may be made to them for assistance to enable poor persons to emigrate, under the provisions of the Irish Poor Relief Acts.

It appears from the document referred to, that there is a considerable demand for labour in Canada, and that persons of the following classes are much required, viz. :—Farm labourers, female servants, boys and girls over fifteen years of age, carpenters, masons, bricklayers, tailors, shoemakers, coopers, blacksmiths, and tinsmiths. The classes most in demand are agricultural labourers, male and female servants, and boys and girls over fifteen years of age ; but it is suggested that clerks, shopmen, or persons having no particular trade or calling, and unaccustomed to manual labour, should on no account be persuaded to emigrate.

In regard to the time for emigrating to Canada, it is remarked that the emigrant should arrive at as early a period of the year as possible, and that persons who sail in the months of April and May, may expect to arrive in time for spring and summer work, and to obtain the higher rate of wages usually given by the farmers during harvest.

It is important that the emigrant should, immediately on his arrival, apply to the Government Emigration Officers, whose duty it will be to afford every information and advice free of cost ; and it is strongly recommended that emigrants who have settled destinations should remain about the city as short a time as possible ; and that farm labourers, especially, should proceed at once to the agricultural districts.

The Commissioners annex an extract from the document above referred to, giving the names of the Emigration Agents, and some suggestions as to the classes of persons most eligible for emigration to Canada, together with some general directions as to the time and mode of emigrating, and the course to be pursued on arriving in the colony.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Clerk of each Union.

Demand for Labour.—The municipal authorities have, in reply to a circular from the Bureau of Agriculture, issued last December, stated that the following classes were required in their several districts:—

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| Farm Labourers, | 4,535 | Bricklayers, | 193 |
| Female Servants, | 2,908 | Tailors, | 226 |
| Boys over fifteen, | 2,078 | Coopers, | 228 |
| Girls do. | 1,886 | Blacksmiths, | 270 |
| Carpenters, | 651 | Tinsmiths, | 98 |
| Masons, | 347 | Shoemakers, | 513 |

The Class of Persons who should Emigrate.—Practical farmers, agricultural labourers, male and female servants, boys and girls over fifteen years of age. Those possessing small capitals may rent or purchase farms with some little improvements on reasonable terms.

Clerks, shopmen, or persons having no particular trade or calling, and unaccustomed to manual labour, should on no account be persuaded to emigrate, for to this class the country offers no encouragement at present.

Caution.—Emigrants having no fixed destination should not take passage beyond Quebec.

General Directions.

Time to Emigrate and best mode of reaching Canada.—It is of the greatest importance to the emigrant, that he should arrive in the country at as early a period of the year as possible. Those who sail in the months of April and May may expect to arrive in time for the spring and summer work, and to obtain the higher rate of wages, which are usually given by the farmers during harvest time. They will thus be enabled to secure a home against the coming winter. If, on the other hand, they land at a season when nearly all out-door work has ceased, they may be exposed to much hardship.

If the means of the emigrant will permit it, steamers should be preferred to sailing vessels. First class steamers leave Liverpool, Londonderry, and Glasgow, weekly, from April to November, direct for Quebec.

Luggage.—Should be in compact handy packages, distinctly marked with the owner's name and destination. The enormous quantities of useless luggage brought out by emigrants entail heavy expenses and trouble, and in many cases the cost of cartage, porterage, and extra freight, exceeds its value.

Clothing.—Woollen clothing and all description of wearing apparel, flannels, blankets, &c., are much cheaper in England than in Canada; and wherever it is practicable the emigrant should lay in a good stock of clothing before leaving home.

Tools.—Agricultural labourers need not bring out implements of husbandry, as these can be easily procured in the country. Artisans are recommended to take such tools as they may possess. But both classes must bear in mind that there is no difficulty in procuring any ordinary tools in the principal towns on advantageous terms, and that it is more desirable to have the means of purchasing what they want after reaching their destination, than to be incumbered with a large quantity of luggage during the journey into the interior.

Money.—The best mode of taking money is in sovereigns, or by letter of credit on some established bank. A sovereign is worth 24*s.* 4*d.* currency, or 4 dols. 85 cents. The English shilling, 1*s.* 2½*d.*, or 24 cents.

On arriving in Canada, the emigrant should at once apply to the Government Emigration Officers, whose duty it is to afford him every information and advice. He should avoid listening to the opinions of interested and designing characters, who thrust their advice upon him unsolicited. Many, especially single females and unprotected persons, have suffered from want of proper caution in this respect.

Emigrants who have settled destinations should remain about the city as short a time as possible after arrival. Farm labourers should proceed at once into the agricultural districts, where they will be certain of meeting with employment suitable to their habits; and those with families will also more easily procure the necessaries of life, and avoid the hardships and distress which are experienced by a large portion of the poor inhabitants in our large cities during the winter season. The Chief Agent will consider such persons as may loiter about the ports of landing to have no further claims on the protection of her Majesty's agents, unless they have been detained by sickness, or some other sufficient cause.

Those desirous of obtaining employment will find it to their advantage to accept the first offer, even if the wages should be less than they had been led to expect, as until they become acquainted with the country their services are of comparatively small value to their employers. Persons seeking situations as clerks, shopmen, &c. (for whom there exists little or no demand), and mechanics who experience difficulty in obtaining employment in their respective trades, should accept the first offer that presents itself sooner than remain idle.

No. 2.—Custody of Poisonous Medicines in Workhouse.—Circular to Boards of Guardians.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
August 11, 1862.

Sir,

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland have had their attention drawn to the recent conviction of a Union Officer for murder by poisoning, and to the fact that he is supposed to have obtained the poison from the Workhouse surgery. The Commissioners think it right, therefore, to call the attention of the several Boards of Guardians to the subject, in order that, if sufficient and satisfactory arrangements do not exist at present for the safe custody of poisonous medicines in the Workhouse, the requisite directions may be at once given.

The Commissioners suggest that poisonous medicines should be kept under lock and key, separate from the other medicines; and that the Medical Officer should himself retain, and be responsible for the possession of the key.

The Commissioners have addressed a similar recommendation to the several Dispensary Committees.

By order of the Commissioners,
B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Clerk of each Union.

No. 3.—Amendment of the Law.—Circular to Boards of Guardians, transmitting Copies of the Act 25 & 26 Vic. c. 83.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
August 14, 1862.

Sir,

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland transmit to you herewith, for the information of the Board of Guardians, a copy of the Act to amend the Laws in force for the Relief of the Destitute Poor in Ireland, which received the Royal Assent on the 7th instant.

The Guardians will observe that by the 1st section a change is made in the law regarding chargeability, so far as relates to the period of residence which determines such chargeability to an Electoral Division, the period being now two years out of the last five years, instead of twelve months out of the last three years; and, in estimating the time of residence, residence in the Workhouse is to be considered not only as residence in the Union, but as residence in the Electoral Division to which the pauper was chargeable. It will be observed that this section relates only to applications for relief made after the passing of the Act, and does not affect the present chargeability of persons who were receiving relief at the time of the passing of the Act.

The 2nd section so far repeals the quarter-acre section (10 Vic., cap. 31, sec. 10), as to enable the Guardians to relieve persons, holding more than a quarter of an acre of land, in the Workhouse. It also enables the Relieving Officer to exercise his provisional power of relief in regard to such persons precisely as in the cases of any other persons, that is to say, "either by an order of admission to the Workhouse or Fever Hospital of the Union, provided there be room therein, respectively, and by conveying any destitute poor person thereto, if necessary, or by affording such poor person immediate and temporary relief in food, lodging, medicine, or medical attendance, until the next ordinary meeting of the Board of Guardians." Each Relieving Officer should be immediately apprized of the change of the law in this respect.

The 3rd section extends the power which the Guardians already possess, of admitting "poor persons" affected with fever or other dangerous contagious disease. This power is now extended, so as to enable the Guardians to admit any poor persons requiring medical or surgical aid in hospital, even though the disease under which they may be suffering may not be contagious. It is specially provided, also, that in such cases the person admitted shall not be required to be accompanied by any member of his family, as a condition of receiving relief. The Commissioners have reason to believe that Boards of Guardians already practise so much liberality in the administration of relief to the sick poor that the provisions of this section will not cause any very serious increase in the amount of relief, or in the necessary amount of hospital accommodation.

The 4th section will enable the Guardians to recover the cost of relief to persons admitted under the preceding section, or admitted to the Fever Hospital of the Workhouse, or a proportion thereof, in any case in which they shall consider such person able to pay such cost, or a proportion thereof.

Section 5 provides for the admission of members of the Constabulary Force to the Infirmary or Fever Hospital, and for payment of the cost of their treatment and maintenance.

Section 6 requires a separate register to be kept of persons admitted to the Fever Hospital or Infirmary who shall claim, on admission, to pay the entire cost of their maintenance, and of members of the Constabulary Force who shall be so admitted. The Commissioners will take the necessary steps to have a form of register, applicable to cases of this kind, printed.

Under the 7th section, the Guardians may send from the Workhouse any case requiring special medical or surgical treatment to any suitable hospital or infirmary, in the same manner as they were previously authorized to send fever cases.

The 8th section gives the Guardians parental authority, in the cases of children without a parent relieved in the Workhouse, up to the age of fifteen.

The 9th section authorizes the Guardians to provide for the relief of orphan and deserted children out of the Workhouse, up to the age of five years; and with the special consent of the Commissioners, from year to year, up to eight years of age.

The 10th section enables Boards of Guardians to recover the cost of maintenance of illegitimate children, who are in receipt of relief from the poor rates, from the putative fathers.

The 11th section gives to Guardians, godfathers, or godmothers of children, the religion of whose parents is unknown, the same power in regard to the religious education of such children, as is possessed by the Guardians, godfathers, or godmothers of orphans.

Section 12 is intended to remove doubts which have existed as to the liability of unoccupied buildings to be rated to the poor rate, and provides that such buildings shall be exempt from rating if unoccupied during the whole of the period for which the rate is intended to serve; but that, if occupied during any part of such period, they shall be proportionably charged. In order to carry out the provisions of this section, it will be necessary for the Guardians to be very particular in framing their estimates for future rates, to determine the period for which such rates are intended to serve. It will be observed that this section applies exclusively to buildings, and that no alteration is made in the law in regard to the rating of land.

By the 13th section, the prior claim to the collection of the poor rates, which was given to County Cess Collectors by the 73rd section of the Irish Poor Relief Act, is abolished, and consequently the legal necessity which heretofore existed for making fresh appointments of Collectors for each successive rate no longer exists.

Clauses 15 to 22 and clauses 24 and 25 relate to the election of Guardians, and to qualifications and disqualifications for that office. The Commissioners have under their consideration the alterations which will be necessary in the general election regulations, in consequence of these enactments.

The 23rd clause provides for the burial of persons dying unknown; and, as it enables the Relieving Officer to act in certain cases (with the sanction of the Guardian for the Electoral Division), without waiting for directions from the Board of Guardians, a copy of this section should be communicated to each Relieving Officer in the Union, for his information and guidance.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Clerk of each Union.

No. 4.—Admission of "Poor Persons" and Members of the Constabulary Force, for Medical Treatment.—Circular to Boards of Guardians.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
August 18, 1862.

Sir,

Adverting to that part of the circular letter of the 14th instant, on the subject of the provisions of the Poor Law Amendment Act, which relates to the power given to Boards of Guardians to admit "poor persons" and members of the Constabulary Force to the Infirmary or Fever Hospital of the Workhouse, and to the separate register which is required to be kept of persons so admitted, who claim, on admission, to repay the cost of their maintenance therein, and of Constables and Sub-Constables so admitted, the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland now forward to you a form of separate register which they have caused to be prepared, in accordance with the provision referred to, and desire to state that Mr. Thom, of Abbey-street, is prepared to furnish Register Books in this form.

It will be observed that the persons claiming to repay the cost of their maintenance are to be charged, according to the 6th section of the Act, the full average cost thereof as thereinbefore stated; and, according to the 4th section, this appears to be "the average of the general cost of maintenance, medical and surgical treatment, in such hospital or infirmary;" and it appears to the Commissioners that the proper elements for determining the sum to be charged in each individual case of this class are :—

1. The actual daily expenditure on maintenance in the Infirmary or Fever Hospital, as the case may be; the calculation per head to be made on the number in each department separately;

2. The daily amount of the Workhouse Medical Salaries ;
3. The daily cost of medicines and medical and surgical appliances.

The calculation per head to be made for items 2 and 3 on the collective number in both departments.

In regard to the Constabulary, it will be seen, by the 5th section, that they are to be charged with "the full average cost of daily maintenance and establishment charges, medical and surgical treatment, in such Hospital," and in these cases, therefore, in addition to the average daily charge for maintenance, a sum must be included for "establishment charges," which must be taken to mean all the ordinary establishment charges incidental to the management of the Workhouse, including daily proportion of the salaries of all Workhouse officers ; the calculation per head for maintenance to be made on the number in the Infirmary or Fever Hospital, as the case may be ; and the calculation per head for "establishment charges" to be made on the total number of inmates of the Workhouse.

It is obvious that, on recovery of any charge, credit must be given to the Union for that part of it which consists of establishment charges, and to the Electoral Division or Union, as the case may be, for that which consists of maintenance only.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Clerk of each Union.

No. 5.—Clothing for Convalescent Fever Patients in Hospital.—Circular to Boards of Guardians.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
Sir, August 25, 1862.

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland have, for some time past, had their attention called to the subject of clothing in the Fever Hospitals attached to the Workhouses, and to the expediency of adopting some definite rule in regard to the dress to be worn therein by convalescent patients.

The recent extension of the power of the Guardians to afford Hospital and infirmary relief, coupled with the provisions for admitting a paying class of patients, has given additional importance to the subject.

After much consideration, the Commissioners have come to the conclusion that persons in Fever Hospitals ought not, under any circumstances, to be permitted to wear their own clothes; and that a simple and cheap form of Hospital dress, such as is provided in Military Hospitals, but having nothing in common with the ordinary dress of the healthy Workhouse inmates, should be provided for the use of all patients of whatever class they may be.

The recent Act, while it provides for a separate registration of persons claiming to pay the entire cost of maintenance and treatment, and of members of the Constabulary Force, does not appear to contemplate any other way of discriminating between the different classes of patients; and the result of the proposed change will be that, while persons who pay for maintenance and treatment, and who are therefore not to be disfranchised as recipients of relief, are provided with Hospital clothing, having nothing in common with the ordinary Workhouse dress, persons of a poorer class, and not able to pay for maintenance and treatment, will, when admitted to Hospital, wear the same Hospital dress as the paying class of patients.

This appears to the Commissioners, on the whole, the best course to adopt; and they recommend the Guardians to appoint a Committee to confer with the Medical Officer or Medical Officers, and to report to the Board as to the best mode of carrying out the suggestion in regard to the Fever Hospital; or, when there is no such separate Hospital, to that part of the Workhouse which may have been appropriated to the reception and treatment of persons suffering from dangerous contagious disease.

The question of the necessity or propriety of extending the same arrangement to the Infirmary of the Workhouse is still reserved for further consideration.

By order of the Commissioners,
B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

No. 6.—Appointment of Poor Rate Collectors.—Circular to Boards of Guardians.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
Sir, August 28, 1862.

Adverting to their Circular Letter of the 14th instant, the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland are desirous of drawing the attention of the Board of Guardians specially to the provisions of the 13th section of the Act 25 and 26 Vict., cap. 83, relating to Poor Rate Collectors.

By the section referred to, those provisions of the 73rd section of the Act 1 and 2 Vict., cap. 56, which gave to Collectors of County Cess a right to claim the collection of the poor rates in the districts for which they collected the county cess, are repealed; and Boards of Guardians, from and after the passing of the recent Act, are empowered, subject to the approval of the Commissioners, "to appoint, from time to time, such and so many persons as they may deem expedient to collect and levy the Rates" made on the several Electoral Divisions of the Union.

In cases in which Collectors have been appointed for the collection of current rates, before the Act 25 and 26 Vict., cap. 83, was passed, such Collectors being also Collectors of County Cess, will be at liberty, as heretofore, to avail themselves, in collecting the poor rates, of the assistance of their deputies.

But where the appointment of Collectors of Poor Rate takes place after the passing of the Act, Collectors of County Cess, if appointed, will be bound to collect the rates in person and not by deputy, in like manner as any other persons who may be appointed Collectors, in accordance with the proviso to Article 43 of the General Regulations Order.

It appears desirable also to point out that in cases where Collectors are already appointed for the collection of current rates, their appointments will cease and determine at the time when their collection of the current rate is closed and the warrant withdrawn, as they have been appointed specifically to collect that rate, and not as continuing officers under the provisions of the recent Act.

With regard to appointments hereafter to be made of Collectors of Poor Rate, it is the intention of the Commissioners to extend to those officers the provisions of Article 41 in the General Regulations, by rescinding the proviso to that Article which excepts Poor Rate Collectors from its operation, whereby such appointments will hereafter be considered to be made permanently.

By order of the Commissioners,
B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Clerk of each Union.

No. 7.—Rating Unoccupied Buildings.—Circular to Boards of Guardians.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
August 28, 1862.

Sir,

Adverting to their Circular Letter of the 14th instant, transmitting a copy of the recent Poor Relief (Ireland) Act for the information of the Board of Guardians, the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland desire to draw the particular attention of the Guardians to that part of the 12th section of the Act, relating to the rating of unoccupied buildings, which enacts "that, from and after the passing of this Act, the Guardians shall, in making every rate for the relief of the destitute poor, specify on the face thereof the period for the service of which the rate is estimated to provide."

The Commissioners think that this enactment will best be complied with by inserting at the head of the rate, after the poundages, the words, "this rate is estimated to provide for the service of a period of____calendar months, commencing from_____."

It may be found expedient hereafter to issue a new form of rate for the use of Boards of Guardians; but as it is desirable that no unnecessary delay should take place in signing rates already in course of preparation, the Commissioners think that the form at present in use may be made available by inserting the words specified above.

The Commissioners desire, at the same time, to point out to the Guardians that, in order to afford greater facility to the Clerk of the Union and the Collectors for ascertaining the sums which persons falling within this provision of the Act may be liable to pay, it will be desirable that the estimates of future rates should be framed so as to provide for the service of periods corresponding with the financial year or half-year, and terminating on the 25th March or 29th September, as the case may be.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Clerk of each Union.

No. 8.—Election of Guardians: Changes made in the Law by the Act 25 & 26 Vic. c. 83.—Circular to Returning Officers.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
October 11, 1862.

Sir,

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland desire to draw your attention to those provisions of the recent Poor Law Amendment Act (25 & 26 Vic., c. 83), which relate to the election of Guardians and to the qualification for the office of Guardian:—

Section 15 requires that the statements to be given by persons claiming to vote in respect of property not in their actual occupation, or to give additional votes in respect of beneficial interest in respect of property occupied by them, shall contain more precise and definite information regarding the property than has hitherto been required. The statement must comprise the following particulars:—

1. The name and address of the ratepayer.
2. The description and local situation of the property, specifying—in cities, towns, and their suburbs, having streets and other roadways—the name of the street or roadway, and the number of the house or tenement, if any, and the parish in which the property is situate; and, in other places, the barony, parish, and townland.
3. The nature of the ratepayer's interest in the property.
4. Its net annual value over and above all rents payable by him.
5. The amount of rent payable to him.
6. The names of the tenants or occupiers by whom Poor Rates have been deducted from such rent.

Every claim to vote, whether by the ratepayer or his proxy, must be executed in the presence of a Justice of the Peace.

The Commissioners have caused the existing forms of claim to be revised in accordance with these provisions; and they enclose copies of the revised forms (A 1, A 2, and B 1 & 2),* for your information. The Commissioners have to observe, however, that the use of these forms is not compulsory upon the parties making statements, and that any form which contains all the particulars required by the Act of Parliament will be sufficient.

By the 16th section of the Act it is provided that no claim to vote either in person or by proxy shall continue in force beyond the period of five years from the date on which the statement has been given; and further, that no person shall be entitled to vote as proxy for more than twenty owners in any one Electoral Division or Ward, unless he be a

* See forms, page 40-42.

Steward, Bailiff, Land Agent, or Collector of Rents for the owners of property for whom he may be appointed to vote.

The 17th section enables owners or immediate lessors of property, who are rated under the 1st and 4th sections of the 6th & 7th Vic., c. 92; the 63rd section of the 12th & 13th Vic., c. 91 (which relates only to the city of Dublin); and the 10th section of the 12th & 13th Vic., c. 104, to vote in person or by proxy "in the same manner as occupiers paying no rent or paying rent less than the net annual value of the rateable property," provided that every such owner, or immediate lessor, or his proxy, shall have lodged a statement, in the manner provided with reference to persons claiming to vote in respect of property not in their actual occupation.

It appears to the Commissioners that it will be the most convenient course to keep claims to vote under this section distinct from other claims to vote; and they have accordingly prepared separate forms (C 1 and C 1 & 2),* applicable to this class of cases, copies of which are herewith enclosed.

Section 18 provides that no person shall be entitled to vote in respect of rent received, for any greater amount of rent than the annual value of the property out of which the claim arises, according to the valuation in force for the time being. It will be necessary, therefore, for the Returning Officer, in all cases of this kind, to refer to the valuation on which the last rate made before the election is based; and, if he finds that the rent exceeds the valuation, to arrange the number of votes according to the valuation.

The 19th section extends the disqualification on account of non-payment of rates made six months or more before the time of voting—which had previously existed in regard to "occupiers paying rent"—to all occupiers, and to owners and immediate lessors rated instead of the occupiers, or in respect of rent received for property exempt from rating as being used for public or charitable purposes.

The 20th section requires that when one person is elected for two or more Electoral Divisions, Electoral Districts, or Wards, he shall notify to the Returning Officer which of such Divisions, Districts, or Wards he will act for, which notification is to be transmitted to the Commissioners by the Returning Officer, and the Commissioners are thereupon to provide for a new election in the other of such Divisions, Districts, or Wards.

The 21st section prohibits any member of a Board of Guardians from acting professionally as a solicitor, either for or against the Board of Guardians, under a penalty of £100 with full costs of suit.

The 22nd section disqualifies paid officers engaged in the administration of relief to the poor, or under the Medical Charities Act, and persons who having been such paid officers shall have been dismissed from such office within five years previously, and all persons receiving any fixed salary or emolument from the poor rates, from serving as Guardian.

By the 24th section it is provided that when no nomination of a Guardian shall have been made for any Electoral Division the Guardian or Guardians for such Electoral Division shall remain in office for the ensuing year.

The 25th section applies to cases where Electoral Divisions are divided into Wards, in which cases the number of votes that could be given by a ratepayer in all the wards, if he had property in all, was formerly limited to the number of votes which he would have been entitled to in the Electoral Division if it had not been divided into Wards; by this section, however, it is provided that ratepayers in Wards shall be entitled to vote in such Wards on the same scale as if they were Electoral Divisions.

It will probably become necessary, in consequence of the changes in the law above described, to make some alteration in the existing election regulations, and the Commissioners have that subject under consideration with a view to issuing the necessary order before the time for the next annual election arrives ; meantime, however, as they have reason to believe that inquiries are being made upon the subject, especially with reference to the new form of statement of claim, the Commissioners have thought it right to transmit the enclosed forms for your information, and to point out the various changes in the law regarding the election of Guardians, which have been made by the Poor Law Amendment Act of last Session.

By order of the Commissioners,

To each Returning Officer. B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

No. 9.—Statements of Claim to Vote.—Circular to Returning Officers.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
Sir, November 3, 1862.

Adverting to the Circular Letter of the 11th instant, and to the forms of claim to vote which accompanied it, the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland desire to state that it has been suggested to them that some misapprehension may possibly arise in regard to the forms (C 1 and C 2 & 3), for claims to vote in respect of property for which the parties claiming are rated as owners or immediate lessors, from the circumstance that columns have been introduced in those forms to show the amount of rent receivable, and the annual amount of net rent, in respect of the property for which the claim is made, those particulars having no bearing upon the number of votes to be allowed, which must be regulated exclusively with reference to the net annual value, according to the valuation in the Rate-book, and the rent payable.

The Commissioners think it right, therefore, to state that the columns referred to were inserted for the purpose of enabling the party claiming to show, as he is required to do by the 15th section of the 25th & 26th Vic. c. 83, the net annual value of his interest in the property over and above all rents payable by him, and that in determining the number of votes to be allowed in respect of any such claim the Returning Officer need not refer to those columns at all, but must be guided by the valuation and the rent payable.

The Commissioners take this opportunity of stating that several inquiries have been made whether claims lodged before the passing of the Act 25 & 26 Vic. c. 83, continue in force, and that they are clearly of opinion that such claims, unless they contain the particulars required by the 15th section of the Act, and are executed in the manner required by that section, cannot be acted on in future elections.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Returning Officer of each Union.

No. 10.—Election of Guardians : Instructions.—Circular to Returning Officers.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
Sir, January 16, 1863.

1. It having been deemed necessary, in consequence of the changes made in the law relating to the election of Guardians, by the Act of last session, 25 and 26 Vic., c. 83, to revise the General Order relating to the Election of Guardians, dated 26th January, 1852, the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland, now transmit to you a sealed copy of an amended General Order dated the 2nd instant, regulating the conduct of future Elections of Guardians in the several Unions in Ireland.

2. This Order rescinds the Order of the 26th January, 1852, as well as all previous Orders, except such portions thereof as may have appointed the Clerk for the time being to be the Returning Officer, and may not have been rescinded by any subsequent Order; and except such portions thereof as may have fixed the value of the qualification for the office of Guardian, and may not have been rescinded or altered by any subsequent Order. Under Article 1 of the enclosed Order, therefore, the Clerk for the time being (except in cases where the Order appointing the Clerk may have been rescinded) will continue to be the Returning Officer, and the same Article, it will be seen, provides for the performance of the duties of Returning Officer, in case of vacancy in the office of Clerk, or in case of the Clerk being prevented by sickness or accident, or other sufficient cause, from the performance of his duties, the Guardians being empowered, in either of those events, to appoint some person to perform such of the duties imposed by the Order upon the Returning Officer as shall then remain to be performed.

3. Under Articles 3, 12, 14, 22, and 34, of the accompanying General Order, the Collectors of Poor Rate in the Union are to assist the Returning Officer as heretofore in the election, at the times and for the purposes therein indicated. These regulations impose no fresh duties on the Collectors, but it will be proper for you to call the attention of each of them to those regulations before the next election takes place.

4. The Police who may be employed as heretofore, in posting the notices of the election and in distributing and collecting voting papers, will receive their instructions from their own superior officers; but in case their services in any instance should not be available in sufficient number for the latter duty, the Returning Officer should take care to furnish any other persons who may be employed by him, in pursuance of Article 2 of the General Order, for the distribution and collection of the voting papers, with proper lists and instructions for their guidance, in accordance with Articles 18, 19, 21, 23, 24, and 28, of the Order.

5. Where it has happened in previous elections that the assistance of the Police has not been available, or has not been available to sufficient extent, for the distribution and collection of voting papers within the prescribed period, the Commissioners have in some instances received applications for their sanction to the employment of the Collectors of Poor Rates or their assistants, and of Relieving Officers, in this service, where it may be necessary to issue voting papers. It is desirable that, where practicable, this duty should be performed by responsible officers; and as it will, according to the regulations, occupy only two or at most four days, and will therefore not cause any material interruption of the ordinary duties of the Union Officers referred to, the Commissioners are prepared to sanction their being employed to assist in performing the duty in question, provided the Board of Guardians permit them to be so employed, for which permission it will be your duty, where necessary, to apply. If the services of the Police and Union Officers should not be available or sufficient, you will have to employ other trustworthy persons acquainted with the respective localities, as far as practicable, in accordance with the regulation contained in Article 2 of the General Order. But you will first take care to ascertain whether you can obtain the services of the Police in sufficient number or not, before you employ any other persons; and you will only resort to the employment of the officers of the Union or other persons, in case you cannot obtain the assistance of the Police in sufficient number.

6. Should some additional assistance be necessary for enabling you, in case of contests, to prepare the requisite lists of voters, and complete the proceedings in the election at the times prescribed by the General Order, the Commissioners will be prepared to sanction such assistance for so long as may be absolutely requisite, on receiving a communication from you, setting forth the circumstances which render the application necessary, the particular purposes for which assistance is required, and the extent of assistance required.

7. One of your first duties will be to issue the notice of the election, which is to be posted on the 25th February. The notice is to set forth the names of the Electoral Divisions, the qualification and number of Guardians to be elected for each, with other particulars prescribed in the General Order. You should, in due time before the 25th February, give notice of application to the Constabulary for their assistance in posting the notices, as heretofore; and you will afterwards forward the copies of the notices to the proper Constabulary stations. Due notice should likewise be given to the Constabulary when it becomes necessary to apply for their services in the distribution and collection of voting papers, apprizing them of the probable extent of the duty to be performed.

8. The following are the days upon which the several proceedings in the ensuing election are to be taken, in pursuance of the Order:—

25th February—Issue of Notice of Election. (Art. 9.)

4th March—Last day for receiving Nomination Papers, which can be received up to 5 o'clock, p.m., on that day. (Art. 11.)

9th March—List of Candidates to be prepared and forwarded: (Art. 15.)—List of Voters to be prepared in case of contest.

The last day for receiving Statements of Claim to Vote, and Appointment of Proxies (6 & 7 Vic., c. 92, § 24, and 25 & 26 Vic., c. 83, § 15)—so as to be available in this Election, will be the 20th February; and in case of contests, the Lists of Ratepayers making Statements are to be made up to that day. (Art. 18.)

12th March—Application to be made to Constabulary for assistance in distributing Voting Papers, where necessary, which should afterwards be transmitted to them, with the List of Voters, in due time for distribution on the day prescribed for the purpose.

17th March—List of occupying Tenants who are entitled to vote, having paid Rates required to be paid, is to be made up to this day. (Art. 22.)

18th March—Day for issuing Voting Papers, and following day if needful. (Art. 21.)

20th March—Day for collecting Voting Papers, and following day if necessary. (Art. 28)

21st March—Time for applying for Voting Papers, where not duly received by persons entitled, expires. (Art. 29, 30.)

23rd March—Time for delivering to Returning Officer Voting Papers that may not have been duly collected, expires. (Art. 31.)

25th March—Return of Guardians to be made, (Art. 35); or within fourteen days thereof. (Art. 36.)

9. Previously to the commencement of the election you should procure the requisite supply of the forms prescribed for use in the election. With regard to the notice of the election (Form E,) the Commissioners have thought it advisable to direct that the copies of that notice should be printed and transmitted to you from this office, as usual, and the same number of copies as was forwarded to you last year will accordingly be transmitted to you in due time, for posting and distribution according to Article 9 of the General Order. If, however, you should be of opinion that the number of copies printed last year was greater or less than will be required for the present year, you will be good enough to report the fact immediately, stating the number which you consider necessary. In the absence of any communication from you before the 25th instant, the same number as was furnished last year will be provided.

10. With regard to the other forms, steps should be taken in due time to provide a sufficient supply of those which may be required for carrying on the election, as prescribed by the General Order. The Forms can be procured from Mr. Thom, of 87, Abbey-street, Dublin; but should you employ any other printer, it will be necessary for you to compare the several forms carefully with those prescribed in the General Order, as you will be responsible for their accuracy; and it is advisable that you should ascertain and compare the prices at which they are procurable, before you order them.

11. A placard, containing a description of the Electoral Divisions in the Union as at present constituted, to be posted in case of contest, as heretofore, should be prepared, and a sufficient number of copies thereof for posting obtained when necessary, in like manner with the voting papers.

12. The Forms (A 1, A 2, B 1 and 2, C 1, and C 2 and 3,) for statements of claims to be entitled to vote, and appointments of proxies with their applications, and the statements of corporations and joint-stock companies, are to be supplied, free of charge (on application made to you), to any persons, or corporations, or companies, respectively, who may require them for their own statements or applications. It would not be expedient to make a more general distribution of these forms.

13. With regard to the registry of such statements and appointments in the proper books (Forms D 1, 2, 3, 4, 5), the Commissioners request the special attention of the Clerk and Returning Officer to Articles 4 and 5 of the General Order, and to the duties assigned to those officers in respect to the same, under the provisions of the Statutes and under Articles 6 and 8 of the Order.

14. The provisions of the Acts relating to such statements and registers are contained in § 84 of 1 & 2 Vic., c. 56, as amended by § 24 of 6 & 7 Vic., c. 92, and § 15 of the 25 & 26 Vic., c. 83, to which your attention is requested, as well as to § 26 of the 6 & 7 Vic., c. 92. The 15th sec. of the 25 & 26 Vic., c. 83, sets forth the particulars required to be given in such statements, which must be lodged one calendar month before the owner or immediate lessor, or his proxy, can vote as such; and the 84th sec. of the 1 & 2 Vic., c. 56, requires that the Guardians, or the person acting as Returning Officer, should register such statements in manner therein provided. If at any election the Returning Officer have reasonable cause to doubt the correctness of a claim to vote, made by any person in respect of net rent, the Returning Officer is required by the 26th sec. of the 6 & 7 Vic., c. 92, not to admit such person to vote, until he shall have produced evidence, to the satisfaction of the Returning Officer, of the amount of such rent.

15. Inconvenience and irregularity, it is believed, have occurred in some instances from the discovery, at the time of an election, of errors or defects in the registry prescribed, from omission of statements therein, or from retaining on record the statements of persons deceased, or from other causes, where the original statements, owing to changes of officers or other circumstances, are not themselves forthcoming. The changes made by the Act of last session, in regard to the particulars required to be furnished, will render the statements and registers then existing unavailable, and the Commissioners request, therefore, that you will at once provide yourself with the new forms of register, and duly enter therein all the new statements and appointments which you may have received, or may receive, before the time of the election, so that they may be perfected before the approaching election takes place.

16. The Commissioners take this opportunity to observe, that although an owner or proxy is not entitled to vote until one calendar month after he shall have made the prescribed statement or appointment, it is not necessary that he should make or renew such statement, &c., a month before each election; but they continue in force for five years from the date on which they have been given, provided the parties remain in possession of the interests described therein; and provided, in the case of a proxy, that the appointment is not sooner revoked, or the owner himself resumes the exercise of his right to vote, or either of the parties dies.

17. Any such statements, &c., should be duly preserved; and in case there be reason to believe that any that may have been already lodged have not been handed over to you by any previous officer, or not registered, you should make inquiry of such officer, or otherwise endeavour to obtain them, and forthwith see that they be recorded in the proper form of Register Book, and that the directions in the above-mentioned Articles of the Election Order be duly complied with.

18. The Returning Officer is not bound, under Article 23 of the Election Regulations, to cause any voting papers to be delivered out of the Electoral Division or Ward for which it may be necessary to issue voting papers; and if the places named for the reception of voting papers, by the owners or proxies who have made statements, be not in any case within the respective Divisions or Wards in which the properties are situate, you should immediately communicate with such parties, and request them to name a place within the Division or Ward, and point out to them that otherwise they can only vote in manner provided in Article 29 of the Election Regulations; and you should apprize the parties concerned as above of the substance of the regulation contained in that Article.

19. A practice appears to have been adopted by the Returning Officer in some instances, of marking on each of the voting papers, in addition to the number directed by Article 19 of the Election Regulations, the name of the person for whom it is issued, or his name and address; and in the case of a proxy, the name of the proxy, as well as that of the person for whom he is proxy. The Commissioners think it right to point out, that the Returning Officer is not required by the regulations to endorse the name of any party on the voting paper, and the practice has been found in some instances to lead to error. It seems advisable, therefore, that the Returning Officer should not, in this respect, do more than he is required to do by the 19th Article of the Election Order, viz.:—to prepare lists containing the number of each paper, and the name of the place at which it is to be left, and to endorse each paper with its proper number corresponding to that in the list.

20. The Returning Officer should take care to make himself well acquainted with the regulations contained in the General Order, before the election commences. With a view to general convenience and economy, the business of the election is to be transacted, as far as possible, at the Board-room of the Guardians, and within the hours of ten and five o'clock in the day. The Returning Officer is to attend daily (except on Sundays) at the place appointed, from the date for the issue of the notice, to the last day for receiving nomination papers, inclusive, to afford information to persons requiring it; and likewise during the period from the first day for the collection of voting papers, until the examination of the votes and the return of the Guardians elected shall have been completed, (see Articles 29, 30, 31, 34, 35, and 36); and also at all such other times during the progress of the election, as may be necessary for the due performance of his duties, as directed in Article 32. In reference to the examination and casting up of the votes (Article 34,) the Commissioners are not prepared to deprive the Returning Officer of a discretion in regard to the admission or exclusion of strangers, inasmuch as the exercise of such a discretion may, on some occasions, be necessary to the proper discharge of his duty, but on the other hand the Commissioners think that if the Returning Officer excludes from the examination of the voting papers for a particular Electoral Division, either the candidates for that Electoral Division or those who proposed them, he should be prepared to show some urgent reason for a step which, generally speaking, would seem to be unnecessary and unreasonable; but the Commissioners do not think it desirable that the privilege of being present during the examination of the votes, should be extended to Rate-payers generally.

21. Your special attention is requested to your duties as Clerk of the Union under the regulations contained in Articles 37 and 38 of the General Order. Under the former of those Articles you are, immediately on the return of the new election of Guardians being completed, to transmit to each member of the Board of Guardians for the previous year, including Ex-Officio Guardians and out-going Guardians, as well as any who may be re-elected, a notice in the Form L, apprizing them of the names of the several Guardians elected for the ensuing year. The object of this regulation being chiefly to obviate the inconvenience of any Guardian attending at any meeting of the Board after his year of office has expired, you should take care that this notice is transmitted without any delay, on the completion of the return. Under Article 38, you are likewise to transmit to every Guardian elected for the ensuing year, whether previously a Guardian or not, a notice in the form, marked M in the General Order, and to every Guardian who may continue in office, under the 24th section of the 25 and 26 Vic., c. 83, in consequence of no nomination having been made for the Electoral Division, a notice in the form, marked N. in that Order. Under the 20th section of the Irish Poor Relief Act, 1 & 2 Vic., c. 56, the annual election of the Guardians is to be completed on the 25th March, or if that day should fall on Sunday or Good Friday, then on the day next following, or within fourteen days next after such 25th day of March; and the section further declares that, "immediately upon their election, the Guardians previously elected by the Rate-payers of any Union shall go out of office." You should, therefore, issue the Notices L, M, and N, according to the regulations, immediately on the return being made, so that the first meeting thereafter may consist of the members of the new Board, in accordance with the Act. The issue of these notices is not to be delayed until a meeting of the Board of Guardians shall have been held, but a certified copy of the return is to be laid before the Board at the first meeting after such return is made. The Commissioners take this opportunity of again calling your attention to the several changes which have been made in the law relating to the election of Guardians by the Act 25 & 26 Vic., c. 83. Those changes are described in the Commissioners' Circular Letter of the 11th October last, a copy of which is enclosed.*

22. Immediately on the close of the election an account of the expenses of the same is to be transmitted to the Commissioners for examination and sanction, in a Form which will be forwarded to you for the purpose.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Clerk of the_____ Union,

Returning Officer of the said Union.

11.—Qualification of Medical Officers of Workhouses:—Circular to Boards of Guardians.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
October 14, 1862.

Sir,

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland have had under their consideration that part of the General Regulations which relates to the qualification for the office of Workhouse Medical Officer, and have thought it right to make some alteration in the qualification therein required.

A copy of a General Order which they have accordingly issued is forwarded, herewith, by which the Guardians will perceive that the qualification required for future appointments is as follows:—

A Degree or Diploma in Medicine;
A Diploma in Surgery;
A Certificate in Midwifery;

and that the person appointed shall have attained the age of 23 years.

It will be seen, also, that the Commissioners have reserved to themselves the power of dispensing with that part of the qualification which requires a separate Medical Certificate or Diploma in any case in which, under special circumstances, it shall appear to them necessary to do so; and that the new regulation is not to apply to any person holding the office of Workhouse Medical Officer at the date of the Order.

The Guardians will, probably, think it right in advertising for Medical Officers in future, to make known the double qualification now required.

The Commissioners have made a similar change in regard to the qualification for the office of Dispensary Medical Officer; and a copy of the General Order by which this change is made is also enclosed.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Clerk of each Union.

12.—Qualification of Medical Officers:—Circular to Boards of Guardians.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
January 15, 1863.

Sir,

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland transmit to you herewith a copy of a General Order which they have issued, extending, in some respects, the provisions of the General Order of the 10th October last, regarding the qualification for the office of Medical Officer of a Workhouse; and the Commissioners desire, at the same time, to observe, that the terms of the Order of the 10th October, had been found to exclude from competition parties whom it had not been intended so to exclude, and this circumstance has caused a necessity for the present Order.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Clerk of each Union.

13.—Special Treatment for Diseases of the Eye:—Circular to Boards of Guardians.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
January 16, 1863.

Sir,

With reference to the provision of the 7th section of the Poor Law Amendment Act of last Session (25 & 26 Vic., c. 83), which enables Boards of Guardians to send inmates of Workhouses, in cases requiring special treatment, to hospitals or infirmaries, and to pay for the cost of the maintenance and treatment of the person so sent, and the cost of their conveyance to and from such hospitals or infirmaries, the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland desire to state, that they have received a communication from the Governors of St. Mark's Ophthalmic Hospital, Dublin, from which it appears that they are willing to receive pauper patients, labouring under diseases of the eye, at the rate of nine pence per day, or five shillings and three pence per week, provided that the cost of sending such patients back to their respective Unions be lodged at the time of their admission, that the usual admission tickets are applied for, and that the other rules and regulations of the hospital are complied with.

The Commissioners find by the last Annual Report of the Institution, that the Governors specially request benevolent persons, seeking to procure admission for patients from the country, "to have such patients, when possible, examined, in the first instance, by medical men in their vicinity, so as to learn the nature of their disease, and whether the patients are likely to be benefited by treatment in hospital;" and, further, that the medical statement may "be forwarded to the officers of the hospital, together with an inquiry as to when the person can be admitted."

Should the Guardians in any case desire to send an inmate of the Workhouse to this hospital, the above request should be particularly attended to; the examination will, of course, in the case of a Workhouse inmate, be made by the Medical Officer of the Workhouse.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Clerk of each Union.

14.—Revised Forms of Half-yearly Abstracts of Union Accounts:—Circular to Boards of Guardians.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
March 13, 1863.

Sir,

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland, forward, herewith, revised Forms of the Half-yearly Abstracts of the Union Accounts, Forms 4 and 5 a and b, which they require to be adopted, commencing with the accounts of the current half-year.

This revision of the forms has been rendered necessary by the changes made in the law by the Poor Law Amendment Act of last Session, 25 & 26 Vic., c. 83; and the Commissioners have taken the opportunity of making some other alterations in, and additions to, the Forms which have been considered desirable.

The following is a statement of the alterations or additions made in Forms 4 a and 4 b:—

Form 4 A.

1. Columns have been inserted for entry of the number of blind and deaf, and dumb, maintained by the Board of Guardians in asylums, with a summary at foot.

2. A note is added to the Summary of In-door Paupers relieved, for the purpose of distinguishing the number of persons who were sent to hospitals not under the control of the Board of Guardians, under the 15th section of 6 & 7 Vic., c. 92, or the 7th section of 25 & 26 Vic., c. 83. The power to send persons to extern hospitals, is limited to persons who are already inmates of the Workhouse; and as such persons are already entered on the Workhouse Register, and, of course, will therefore be included in the proper column of the Abstract, it has been thought preferable to show the number of cases of this class in a note, rather than by the introduction of a special column for them, which might lead to their being twice entered on Form 4 a, and to an erroneous total being thus produced.

3. The average weekly cost per head, hitherto shown on Form 4 a, is now transferred to Form 5 b, attached to the table showing the particulars of the in-maintenance, as being the more appropriate place.

4. Under the out-door portion of the statement, an additional column has been inserted for orphans or deserted children out at nurse, under the 9th section of 25 & 26 Vic., cap. 83, and the summary of out-door paupers relieved has been extended, so as to embrace this class.

5. A column has been inserted to show, without classification, the number provisionally relieved by the Relieving Officers, and not included in previous columns.

Form 4 B.

The names and salaries of Officers of Dispensary Districts are to be entered thereon.

The following alterations or additions have been made in the Forms 5 a and 5 b.

Names of Electoral Divisions to be arranged in alphabetical order in both Forms.

Form 5 A.

A slight alteration has been made in the heading of the third and sixth columns, so as to show more clearly that those columns relate exclusively to rates which were made during the half-year.

Form 5 B.

1. An additional column has been inserted on the discharge side of the Abstract, following those showing the cost of out-door relief, for the entry of the cost of maintenance of paupers in deaf, and dumb, and blind asylums, and for paupers sent to extern hospitals. A foot note is also added to distinguish the cost of the several classes so relieved.

Up to the present time, the cost of paupers in asylums has generally been included with the in-maintenance of paupers, but as the Form 4 a shows only the collective number of days of relief in the Workhouse, and does not include the days of relief in asylums, the effect of combining the cost of relief in asylums with the cost of relief in Workhouses, is to offer an obstruction to the testing of the accuracy of the apportionment of the cost to the several Electoral Divisions, and to cause a calculation of the average weekly cost, per head, based on the total collective days in the Workhouse, to be inexact. By the amended Form, these difficulties will be removed.

With regard to paupers or patients who are sent to asylums, or to hospitals not connected with the Workhouse, it is desirable that all such persons should be entered as discharged in the Register, and should also be excluded from the other Workhouse books.

2. In the column on the charge side of the Abstract, headed "Repayment of Relief," it is intended that the amount received not only from paupers relieved by way of loan, but from persons who, under the 4th and 6th sections of 25 & 26 Vic., c. 83, pay their own cost, and Constabulary patients who also pay their own cost, under the 5th section of the same Act, should be included; and a small table has been added at foot to distinguish the amounts received from the several classes mentioned.

3. The column on the discharge side of the Abstract previously in use, headed "Relief by way of Loan," has been omitted—such cost will all be included under the head of In-maintenance and Clothing, and the extent of such relief will be sufficiently shown on the charge side.

4. In the small table (c) showing the particulars of In-maintenance and Clothing, an additional column has been placed for the average weekly cost, this being a more appropriate place than that on Form 4 a.

5. A slight alteration has been made in the arrangement of the items in the table of the Establishment Charges.

6. The small table (d) showing the amount of out-door relief, has been enlarged so as to distinguish the cost of orphans and deserted children sent out to nurse, under the 9th section of 25 & 26 Vic., c. 83.

7. The column for "Expenses of Valuing or Revising Valuations," has been omitted; any expense of this nature will henceforward be placed in the column headed, "Elections, Law, and other Expenses."

8. The table (g) showing the particulars of the column for "Elections, Law, and other Expenses," formerly in two portions, has now been combined.

9. In the table at foot of the Abstract, in the position of that which formerly showed only the liabilities of the Union, it is now intended to show the assets, as well as the liabilities of the Union; the new table being, in fact, a condensed Balance Sheet, by which the financial state of the Union will be clearly shown.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Clerk of each Union.

No. 15.—Removal of Poor Persons from Scotland to Ireland.—Circular to Boards of Guardians.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
March 14, 1863.

Sir,

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland have recently had before them several cases of removals of poor persons from Scotland to Ireland, and they find that the changes made in the law in regard to such removals, by an Act of last Session (25 & 26 Vic., c. 113), do not appear to be generally known; they, therefore, deem it right to state, for the information of the several Boards of Guardians in Ireland, the provisions of the Act in question, so far as they affect removals from Scotland to this country.

Previously to the passing of the Act referred to, removals from Scotland were conducted under the authority of the 77th section of the Scotch Poor Law Act (8 & 9 Vic., c. 83), which authorized the removal of poor persons born in Ireland, and not having acquired a settlement in any parish or combination in Scotland, and being in receipt of parochial relief, but did not contain any provisions by which the place in Ireland to which they were to be removed could be determined. The Act of last Session appears to be intended to remedy this defect, and contains provisions very similar to those of the Act 24 & 25 Vic., c. 76, relating to removals from England, a copy of which was forwarded with the Commissioners' Circular Letter of the 23rd August, 1861. The provisions of the Scotch Act of last Session so far as they relate to Ireland, are as follow:—

No application for a warrant ordering a removal from Scotland is to be granted except by the Sheriff or two Justices of the Peace of the county in which the parish to which the poor person may have become chargeable is situate; the Sheriff or Justices must see the person, or the head of the family, proposed to be removed, and must be satisfied that every person proposed to be removed is in such a state of health as not to be liable to suffer bodily or mental injury by the removal (Sec. 1).

The warrant is to be granted only on the application of the Inspector of the poor of the parish or combination, or other officer appointed by the Parochial Board where the poor person shall have become chargeable, and is to contain the name and reputed age of every person ordered to be removed, and the name of the place in Ireland where the Sheriff or Justices shall find such person to have been born, or to have last resided for the space of three years; and a statement of the examination having been made as to the state of health of every person ordered to be removed—it is to be addressed to the party applying for it, and to the Guardians of the Union or parish to which the person is to be removed, and a copy is to be given to the person or head of the family about to be removed. When the sheriff or justices are unable to ascertain the place of birth or continued residence, they are to order the pauper to be removed to the port, or Union, or parish which shall, in their judgment, under the circumstances of the case, be most expedient (Sec. 2).

The person obtaining the warrant is, at least twelve hours before the removal, to send a copy of it by post to the Clerk to the Board of Guardians of the Union or parish to which the poor person is ordered to be removed, and also a copy of the depositions, if required, at any time within three months from the date of the warrant (Sec. 3).

The warrant is to order the removal of the poor person to be made to the place mentioned therein, and is to order the person charged with the execution thereof to cause such poor person, with his family (if any) to be safely conveyed to such place, to be delivered at the Workhouse of such place, or of the Union or parish containing the port or place nearest to the place mentioned therein as the place of the pauper's ultimate destination (Sec. 4).

The Master of the Workhouse of the Union or parish to which the warrant is addressed is bound to receive delivery of the person named in the warrant, under a penalty of ten pounds for each case of refusal (Sec 5).

If, by reason of default of the Guardians, Inspector of the Poor, or other person having charge of the warrant, or otherwise, the poor person named therein is not removed to the place of ultimate destination, the Guardians of the Union to which he has been removed may, if they think fit, cause the pauper to be removed forthwith to the place mentioned in the warrant, and are entitled to be reimbursed the costs of such removal by the Guardians or Parochial Board, or other person on whose application the warrant was obtained, such costs being the actual expense incurred in and about the conveyance and maintenance of each person so removed, which costs may, if not paid on demand, be recovered by an action in any County Court in Ireland, or Sheriff Court in Scotland, or other competent court having jurisdiction in the place from whence the removal shall have taken place (Sec. 6).

It is declared to be unlawful to remove any woman or any child under the age of fourteen as a deck passenger in any vessel from Scotland to Ireland, during the period from the first of October to the thirty-first of March following (Sec. 7).

Sec. 77 of the 8 & 9 Vic., c. 83, in so far as inconsistent with the provisions of the present Act, is repealed (Sec. 7). The Commissioners understand, however, that the Board of Supervision in Scotland are of opinion that that part of the 77th section which enables parochial authorities in Scotland to make arrangements for the removal of poor persons, with their own consent (without an order), is not repealed by this section.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Clerk of each Union.

III.—STATEMENT OF CASES OF REMOVAL OF POOR PERSONS FROM ENGLAND TO IRELAND (IN CONTINUATION OF THE CASES GIVEN IN THE FIFTEENTH ANNUAL REPORT, APPENDIX A., II.)

Under warrant dated 30th October, 1861, Bridget Cain and one child were removed from Stockport to Killadysert. No Port Union is mentioned in the warrant, and the paupers were taken direct to Killadysert Workhouse by the English Removing Officer. Killadysert Union containing the place of ultimate destination.

Under warrant dated 31st October, 1861, Ann Healy was, on the 9th February, 1862, removed from Birmingham to Cork.

Under warrant dated 31st October, 1861, Jane Evans was, on 9th February, 1862, removed from Birmingham to Cork.

Under warrant dated 23rd November, 1861, Elizabeth Drummond was removed from the township of Toxteth Park to Newry. The warrant, although obtained on 23rd November, 1861, was not executed until 5th February, 1862, and no copy of it was sent to the Board of Guardians.

Under warrant dated 2nd December, 1861, Michael Larvin was, on the 19th February, 1862, removed from Warrington to Dublin. The warrant directs the delivery of the pauper at the Workhouse of Castlerea Union, which is stated in the warrant to contain the port of Dublin. He was, however, brought by the English Removing Officer to North Dublin Union, and sent on thence by the North Dublin Board to Castlerea.

Under warrant dated 3rd December, 1861, Ellen Mack was removed from the parish of St. Marylebone to Limerick. The warrant states that she was born in the county of Limerick, but does not name any Union or place in that county, and it merely directs her removal to Ireland.

By warrant dated 7th December, 1861, Catherine Cane is directed to be removed from the West London Union to Tralee, to be delivered at the Workhouse of Limerick Union.

Under warrant dated 7th December, 1861, Catherine Cane was removed from the West London Union to Limerick. She was sent as a deck passenger, and, by direction of the captain, was taken to Limerick Workhouse, and thence removed to Tralee (the Union of ultimate destination). She complains of being badly treated, forcibly dragged into a cab by the Removing Officer and a pauper man who offered her drink to pacify her. The Removing Officer retained some pawn-office tickets belonging to her, and would not allow her to go back to her residence to get some things she left there.

Under warrant dated 14th December, 1861, Mary Quinn and one child were removed from West Derby Union to North Dublin Union. The removal in this case appears to have been regularly conducted.

By warrant dated 17th December, 1861, Michael Mullen is directed to be removed from Gateshead to the parish of Annadown, in the county of Galway, to be delivered at the Workhouse of Limerick Union.

Margaret Bell and her two children were removed from Blackburn, under the alleged authority of a warrant dated 19th December, 1861. No copy of the warrant has, however, so far as can be ascertained, been received by any Union in Ireland. She was sent as a deck passenger from Liverpool, unaccompanied by any officer, and applied for relief at the North Dublin Union, where she was admitted. It is stated by the Assistant-Overseer of Blackburn Township, that the woman was furnished with money to prosecute her journey to her native place (Clonmel), and she was subsequently removed to that place, at the request of the Assistant-Overseer of Blackburn, by the North Dublin Board of Guardians.

By warrant dated 23rd December, 1861, Timothy Flynn and three children were directed to be removed from the parish of Thornley, in the Easington Union, to the parish of Mohill, in the Mohill Union, "to be safely conveyed to the said parish of Mohill, county of Leitrim, and to be delivered at the Workhouse of the said Union, in the county of Leitrim, in Ireland, such Union containing the port of Dundalk, or nearest to the said parish of Mohill." The paupers were, however, brought by the English Removing Officer to Dublin, and were admitted by the Master of the North Dublin Union. The Guardians have hesitated to send the paupers on to the place of ultimate destination, fearing that, owing to the informalities in the warrant, and the error on the part of the Removing Officer in bringing the paupers to Dublin instead of Dundalk, they had no power to do so.

Under warrant dated 27th December, 1861, Edward Fines was removed from Birmingham to Oldcastle. The warrant does not mention any Port Union, but directs the conveyance of the pauper to Moylough, in Oldcastle Union, and his delivery at the Workhouse of that Union. He was delivered at the Workhouse by the Birmingham Removing Officer.

By warrant dated 30th December, 1861, Catherine Daly was ordered to be removed from the parish of Charles, in the Plymouth Union, to the parish of Mayne, in Thurles Union, "to be delivered at the Workhouse of Thurles Union, in the county of Tipperary, in Ireland, such Union containing the port of Waterford." The pauper was kept for a fortnight after the warrant was granted, waiting for a Waterford steamer, but was eventually sent to Cork. She was not accompanied by any officer, and was sent as a deck passenger.

Under warrant dated 1st January, 1862, Edward Bowler was removed from the parish of St. George's, Hanover-square, to Mallow. He was sent unaccompanied by any Officer by steamer to Cork, and no copy of the warrant was sent to the Mallow Union.

Under warrant dated 3rd January, 1862, Jeremiah Cleary was removed from Cardiff. The warrant directed him to be safely conveyed to Ring, near Dungarvan, and to be delivered at the Workhouse of the Union in Ireland containing the port of or nearest to Ring, near Dungarvan aforesaid.

Under warrant dated 3rd January, 1862, Alexander Church was removed from the parish of St. Mary's, Cardiff, to Cork. The warrant is not addressed to any Union in Ireland. The pauper alleges that he had resided for nearly six years in the same house in Cardiff when he became chargeable, and it would appear, therefore, that he was not legally removable.

Under warrant dated 4th January, 1862, Bridget Gormalee and her daughter Cecilia, aged eighteen years, were removed from the City of London Union to Ballinasloe. The paupers were brought to Limerick in charge of the captain of the steamer in which they were sent from London, and were by him delivered at the Workhouse of Limerick Union, whence they were forwarded by the Guardians to Ballinasloe. The daughter appears to have been removed as a dependent on her mother, and no examination appears to have taken place as to whether she was or was not removable, or as to her place of birth or last residence; although from her age it would appear that her case ought to have been dealt with independently of that of her mother. They were sent from London as deck passengers.

By warrant dated 7th January, 1862, Honora Sullivan, chargeable to the parish of Llandaff, in the Cardiff Union, is directed to be conveyed to Ireland, and delivered at the Workhouse of the Union containing the port of or nearest to Youghal. The warrant is not addressed to any Union in Ireland. The pauper has not arrived at Youghal.

Under warrant dated 8th January, 1862, John Dwyer was removed from the Poplar Union to Limerick. The warrant directs the removal of the pauper to Clonmel, which Union is stated in the warrant to contain the port of Waterford. Waterford is the port to which the removal ought to have been made, and there was no authority to remove to Limerick. The pauper was, however, sent as a deck passenger from London to Limerick unaccompanied by any officer, and left on the quays at Limerick, and then sought relief in the Workhouse of Limerick Union.

By warrant dated 10th January, 1862, not addressed to any Union in Ireland, Johanna Connell is directed to be removed from Cardiff to the city of Cork, and to be delivered at the Workhouse of the Union containing the port of or nearest to the city of Cork. The pauper was sent as a deck passenger.

By warrant dated 10th January, 1862, John Conway was directed to be removed from the Cardiff Union to Lismore, to be delivered at the Workhouse of the Union containing the port of or nearest to Lismore. The pauper has not arrived at Lismore Workhouse. The warrant is not addressed to any Union in Ireland.

Under warrant dated 11th January, 1862, Margaret Barr and five children were removed from the townland of Monkwearmouthshore, in the Sunderland Union, to North Dublin Union. The warrant directs the delivery of the paupers "at the Workhouse of the Poor Law Union of Dublin, in the county of Dublin, in Ireland, which contains the port of Dublin, and which port is nearest to Castlebar" (the place of ultimate destination). Galway is in fact the nearest port to Castlebar, and not Dublin; and it would appear, therefore, that she ought to have been sent to Galway and not to Dublin, as the Port Union. The Guardians of the North Dublin Union have, however, sent her to Castlebar. She became chargeable in Sunderland Union on her husband leaving her to search for employment.

Under warrant dated 11th January, 1862, Michael Hayes was removed from the Strand Union to Kilkenny. No Port Union is named in the warrant, which directs that the pauper be conveyed to the parish of Kilkenny, and delivered at the Workhouse of Kilkenny Union. He was sent unaccompanied by any officer from London by steamer, and came voluntarily to Kilkenny Workhouse. No copy of the warrant was sent to the Board of Guardians.

Under warrant dated 11th January, 1862, Bridget Mullivan was removed from West Derby to Limerick. The warrant directs that she be delivered at the Workhouse of Ennis Union (which contains the place of ultimate destination), and which is described in the warrant as containing the port of Limerick. She was sent as a deck passenger, and brought by the English Removing Officer to Limerick Workhouse.

Under warrant dated 14th January, 1862, Mary Egan and her infant child were removed from the borough of Leeds to Ballina. Mary Egan is a married woman, recently deserted by her husband. The warrant is directed to the Ballina Union, and directs that the paupers be removed "from the said township of Leeds to Ireland, there to be delivered to the Workhouse of the said Union containing the port of or nearest to the place of the said paupers' ultimate destination aforesaid, in such manner and form as the law directs." The Port Union in this case is Sligo. The pauper was, however, brought to Dublin by the Removing Officer, and taken on thence by him to Ballina.

By warrant dated 16th January, 1862, Michael O'Donnell is directed to be removed from Birmingham to Roscommon. No Port Union is named in the warrant, which directs that the pauper be conveyed to Roscommon, and delivered at the Workhouse of that Union. The pauper has not yet arrived.

By warrant dated 17th January, 1862, Bridget Dalton and one child were directed to be removed from Cardiff to Monkoin, in the county of Kilkenny. The warrant is not addressed to any Union in Ireland, but a copy of it was sent to the Guardians of Carrick-on-Suir Union. Monkoin, however, is in Waterford Union, not in Carrick-on-Suir. No Irish Union is named in the warrant; directs that the pauper be conveyed to Monkoin, and delivered at the Workhouse containing the port of or nearest to Monkoin. The pauper has not arrived at either Carrick-on-Suir or Waterford Workhouse.

By warrant dated 24th January, 1862, Jeremiah Desmond is directed to be removed from Cardiff Union to Midleton, to be delivered at the Workhouse of the Union containing the port of or nearest to Midleton. The pauper has not been delivered at the Workhouse of any Union in Ireland, nor has he sought for admission at the Workhouse of Midleton Union, though it is stated that he is known to be in the neighbourhood. The warrant is not addressed to any Union in Ireland.

Under warrant dated 27th January, 1862, Margaret Carlyon and one child were removed from the parish of Charles, in the Plymouth Union, to Cork. They were sent as deck passengers, unaccompanied by any officer, but they were permitted while on board the vessel to go into a covered cabin.

Under warrant dated 27th January, 1862, Alexander Sweeny was removed from Bolton Union to Sligo. According to the pauper's statement he had lived in the township of Great Bolton for four and a-half years, when he became chargeable, and it would, appear, therefore, that he was not removable.

By warrant dated 3rd February, 1862, Michael Murphy is directed to be removed from Plymouth, to be conveyed to the parish of Youghal, and to be delivered at the Workhouse of Midleton Union, in the county of Cork, "such Union containing the port of Cork, the said parish where he was born." The warrant is addressed to Midleton Union, but the parish of Youghal is not in that Union. A copy of the warrant has been received by the Clerk of Youghal Union, but the pauper has not, so far as can be ascertained, arrived at any Union in Ireland.

By warrant dated 4th February, 1862, James Collins and two children are directed to be removed from Stepney Union to the parish of Askeaton, to be delivered at the Workhouse of Rathkeale Union, which Union is stated in the warrant to contain the port of Limerick. The paupers were removed by steamer from London, unaccompanied by any officer, and on being landed in Limerick received money from one of the officers of the vessel to prosecute their journey to Rathkeale. They did not apply for relief for five weeks after arrival; and they state that they applied for relief in England for the purpose of getting removed to Ireland.

By warrant dated 4th February, 1862, Bridget Collins is directed to be removed from Stepney Union to the parish of Askeaton, to be delivered at the Workhouse of Rathkeale Union, which Union is stated in the warrant to contain the port of Limerick. The pauper was removed by steamer from London unaccompanied by any officer, and, on landing in Limerick, received from one of the officers of the vessel money to prosecute her journey to Rathkeale. She was five weeks in that Union after removal before applying for relief, and she states that she applied for relief in England for the purpose of getting removed to Ireland.

Under warrant dated 4th February, 1862, Catherine Blayney was removed from Southwark to Limerick. The warrant appears to have been issued without regard to the provisions of the Act of last Session, and merely directs the removal "to Ireland." The pauper does not appear to have been accompanied by any officer. She was sent by steamer to Cork, and thence by railway to Limerick, and has been forwarded by the Limerick Board of Guardians to Tralee Union, which contains the place of her birth.

Under warrant dated 4th February, 1862, Mary Anne Cavanagh was removed from Southwark to Limerick. The warrant is issued without reference to the provisions of the Act of last Session, and merely directs the removal of the pauper "to Ireland." The pauper's birth-place is stated to be the parish of Cargrave, in the county of Galway. She was sent, unaccompanied by any officer, by steamer to Cork, and thence by railway to Limerick.

Under warrant dated 7th February, 1862, Jeremiah Desmond was removed from Cardiff Union to Cork. The warrant is not addressed to any Union in Ireland. The pauper states that he had been living for seven years in Cardiff when he became chargeable, and it would appear, therefore, that he was not legally removable.

Under warrant dated 7th February, 1862, Catherine Driscoll was removed from Cardiff Union to Cork. The warrant is not addressed to any Union in Ireland. She was sent as a deck passenger.

By warrant dated 7th February, 1862, Honora Sullivan is directed to be removed from the parish of Llandaff to Castletown, to be delivered at the Workhouse of the Union containing the port of or nearest to Castletown. The warrant is not addressed to any Union in Ireland. The pauper has not arrived.

By warrant dated 7th February, 1862, John Browne is directed to be removed from Cardiff Union to Youghal, to be delivered at the Workhouse containing the port of or nearest to Youghal. The warrant is not addressed to the Guardians of any Union in Ireland. The pauper has not arrived at Youghal.

By warrant dated 10th February, 1862, Jane Kingston is ordered to be removed from the parish of St. Anne Limehouse to Clonakilty, which is stated to be in the Bandon Union, and to be delivered at the Workhouse of Bandon Union, which is stated in the warrant to contain the port of Cork. Bandon is not a Port Union, nor does it comprise Clonakilty, which is in Clonakilty Union.

By warrant dated 11th February, 1862, Michael Carrol, his wife, and three children, are directed to be removed from the parish of St. Marylebone to "Ireland." The place of birth is not mentioned in the warrant, nor is any Union or port in Ireland named therein. A copy of the warrant has been received by the Guardians of Callan Union, but the parties have not applied for admission at the Workhouse of that Union.

By warrant dated 12th February, 1862, James Bermingham, his wife, and two children, were directed to be removed from the parish of Llandaff to Bally-poreen, to be delivered at the Workhouse of the Union containing the port of or nearest to Ballyporeen. A copy of the warrant has been received by the Clogheen Board of Guardians, but it is not addressed to the Guardians of any Union in Ireland.

By warrant dated 12th February, 1862, Michael Barrett, his wife, and three children, were directed to be removed from the parish of Llandaff to Ballyporeen, to be delivered at the Workhouse in Ireland containing the port of or nearest to Ballyporeen. A copy of the warrant has been received by the Clogheen Board of Guardians, but it is not addressed to the Guardians of any Union in Ireland.

The pauper was sent from Carrick to Mohill, and back from Mohill to Carrick, and finally remained in the Workhouse of the latter Union, though Mohill was the Union to which she ought to have been removed.

The pauper on arrival refused to accept Workhouse relief.

The warrant is directed to Roscommon Union, and directs that the pauper be conveyed to the parish of Strokestown, and delivered at the Workhouse of Roscommon Union. The pauper was, however, brought to the Workhouse of North Dublin Union by the English Removing Officer, and was sent by the Guardians of that Union to Strokestown Workhouse—the pauper's birthplace (Strokestown) being in that Union, and not in Roscommon Union. It is alleged by the Strokestown Board, on the authority of the pauper, that she and her infant were sent as a deck passenger; when in Dublin, however, she stated that she came over in the second cabin.

From the examination of the pauper, which is attached to the warrant, it appears that she was born in the parish of Ballingarry, in the Newcastle Union. The parish of Ballingarry is partly in Croom and partly in Newcastle Union.

She was sent from London to Cork, unaccompanied by any officer, where she was met by an agent who provided her with a lodging, and the next day took her to the railway, paid her fare to Charleville, and gave her 1*s.* 1*d.* Charleville is fifteen miles from Rathkeale, and the money given to the pauper was not sufficient to pay her fare from Charleville to Rathkeale, and but for assistance which she obtained from some charitable person, she would not have been able to reach the place of ultimate destination.

ORDERS AND CIRCULARS OF INSTRUCTION ISSUED UNDER THE MEDICAL CHARITIES ACT, AND CORRESPONDENCE.

I.—ORDERS.

No. 1.—General Order relating to the Qualifications of Medical Officers of Dispensary Districts.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the several Unions named in the Schedule hereunto annexed; to the Committees of Management of Dispensary Districts therein; and to all other persons whom it may concern:

Whereas, in exercise of the powers given to Us by an Act passed in the Fifteenth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to provide for the better Distribution, Support, and Management of Medical Charities in Ireland, and to amend an Act of the Eleventh Year of Her Majesty to provide for the execution of the Laws for the Relief of the Poor in Ireland," We, the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland, by a General Order under Our Seal, bearing date the Sixteenth day of December, 1853, did issue Rules and Regulations for the Government of Dispensary Districts in the several Unions throughout Ireland, wherein are prescribed, among other things, the mode of Appointment of Medical Officers of Dispensary Districts, their qualifications, and the duties to be performed by them:

And whereas, it is expedient to alter the qualifications prescribed in the said General Regulations in regard to the Medical Officers who may hereafter be appointed.

Now therefore, in exercise of the powers given to Us by the said Act, We do hereby Order, Direct, and declare, that the Qualification of every Medical Officer of a Dispensary District who may be appointed after the date hereof except as is hereinafter provided, shall be as follows, that is to say:—

No. 1. He shall have obtained a Degree in Medicine, or a Diploma or Licence to practise Medicine, from some College or other Body that may be authorized to grant a Diploma or Licence to practise Medicine in Great Britain or Ireland, also a Diploma in Surgery or a Licence to practise Surgery from some College or other Body that may be authorized to grant a Diploma or Licence to practise Surgery, in Great Britain or Ireland, and also a Certificate from some Board or Court of Examiners or other Body duly authorized to grant the same, of his possessing a competent knowledge of Midwifery.

No. 2. He shall have reached the age of twenty-three years.

Provided that, under special circumstances affecting the particular Dispensary District for which the appointment is made, that part of the above Qualification which requires a separate Medical Certificate or Diploma may be dispensed with by Us, the said Commissioners, if We shall deem it necessary to do so.

Provided also, that the foregoing Regulation shall not apply to any person holding the office of Medical Officer of a Dispensary District at the date hereof, either in respect to his present appointment or any future appointment to the said office.

And We do hereby confirm the said General Regulations of the Sixteenth day of December, 1853, in reference to the Qualifications for the said office in all respects except so far as they may be altered by this Order.

No. 2.—General Order extending the Provisions of the Foregoing Order of the 10th October, 1862.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the several Unions named in the Schedule hereunto annexed; to the Committees of Management of Dispensary Districts therein: and to all other Persons whom it may concern:

Whereas, by a General Order under our Seal, bearing date the Tenth day of October, 1862, We, the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland, did alter the Regulations in reference to the Qualifications for the office of Medical Officer of a Dispensary District, contained in a General Order under Our Seal, bearing date the 16th day of December, 1853, so far as the said Order might apply to future appointments:

II.—CIRCULARS.

No. 1.—Annual Appointment of Dispensary Committees and Wardens.—Circular to Boards of Guardians.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
March 21, 1862.

Sir,

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland enclose herewith, for the information and guidance of the Board of Guardians, a copy of their Circular of the 22nd March, 1856, relating to the appointment of qualified ratepayers to complete the Committees of Management of Dispensary Districts in the several Unions in Ireland, together with an Extract from their Circular of the 30th March, 1852, in reference to the appointment of Wardens under the provisions of the 50th section of 1 and 2 Vic., cap. 56.

The Commissioners desire to call your attention to your duties in regard to these appointments, as pointed out in paragraph 2 of the enclosed Circular; and they request that you will make out and place before the Board a complete and correct list of the Guardians entitled, under the 7th section of the Medical Charities Act, to be Members of the several Committees, showing the Committees upon which each Guardian is entitled to serve.

The Commissioners also desire that you will, on the Guardians proceeding to the selection of qualified ratepayers to complete the Dispensary Committees—and the appointment of Wardens—draw their special attention to paragraphs 5 and 6 of the Circular.

As soon as the Committee shall have been completed for any District, the Guardians should fix a day for the first meeting of such Committee for the special purpose of appointing their Honorary Officers for the current year, (in accordance with Articles 5 and 6 of the Dispensary Regulations), and notice of this special meeting should be given by you to each Member of the new Committee, in accordance with Articles 2 and 10 of the Dispensary Regulations.

The Commissioners further request your attention to Articles 1, 2, 3, 4, and 27, of the Regulations, copies of which are appended to the enclosed Circular.

The Commissioners enclose a Form for the Return of the Officers, &c., of the Committee of each Dispensary District in the Union, which they request that you will have filled up in duplicate, with the requisite particulars, and forwarded to this Office, as soon as practicable after the completion of the new Committees, and the appointment of their Honorary Officers.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Clerk of the Board of Guardians of each Union.

Circular of 22nd March, 1856, annexed to the foregoing Circular.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
March 22, 1856.

Sir,

1. The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland, desire to call the attention of the Board of Guardians to the provisions of section 7 of the Dispensaries Act, 14 & 15 Vic., c, 68, under which the requisite number of members to complete the Committee of Management of each Dispensary District is to be appointed in each year, as soon as practicable after the Annual Election of Guardians in each Union. The section directs that "at the first meeting of the Guardians after such annual election, or as soon thereafter as conveniently may be, the Committee of Management for the said Dispensary District shall be appointed" in manner provided therein, "for the ensuing year, and so likewise in each succeeding year."

2. Under the provisions of this section, the Guardians who are returned in the annual election of Guardians for the Union, become members of the Committees of Management of the respective Dispensary Districts therein, in which they are resident or are owners or occupiers of property situate in such districts respectively; and under the same section, the Board of Guardians will have to elect a sufficient number of ratepayers, resident in each district and liable to pay poor rates in respect of property therein of the net annual value of £30 at the least, so as (with the ex-officio and elected Guardians resident or being the owners or occupiers of property in the district, who are thereby qualified and entitled to act on the Committee of each district), to complete the number of members of whom the Committee of such district is to consist, as fixed by the Commissioners' Order in that behalf. You should, therefore, by a careful examination of the Rate Books of the Union, and the Register of Statements of Claim to Vote, make out a correct list showing the several Dispensary Districts of the Union in which each Guardian is duly entitled to act on the Committee of Management, and submit the same to the Board of Guardians, for their information and guidance, before they proceed to the election of qualified ratepayers to complete the Committees of Management.

3. In case the full number of Guardians be not returned in the annual election, so that any vacancies appear on the Returning Officer's return of the election of Guardians for the Union, the Commissioners, in due course after the receipt of that return, will issue an Order providing for a supplemental election to fill such vacancies in the Board of Guardians; and as the Guardians so to be elected will be entitled to act on the Dispensary Committees of the respective districts, according to the provisions of the Act above referred to, the Board of Guardians should elect only such number of qualified ratepayers as would be necessary if the number of Guardians eligible for the Union were now complete; so that the Guardians to be elected to supply vacancies may become members of the respective Dispensary Committees upon which they may be qualified and entitled to act.

4. The Commissioners at the same time desire to call the attention of the Board of Guardians to the annexed extract from the Circular of the 30th March, 1852, relating to the appointment of Wardens, who, as well as members of the Dispensary Committees and Relieving Officers, are authorized by § 9 of the Dispensaries Act, to issue tickets for Medical Relief under that Act. It will be observed that it is provided, that the appointment of Wardens should be made within one month after the annual election of Guardians.

5. It is desirable that the parties authorized to issue tickets for Medical Relief in a Dispensary District should be selected for each district, as far as practicable, from different localities in the several parts of the district, so that sufficient facility for obtaining such relief, with due convenience to the sick poor resident in all parts of the district, may be afforded, by means of persons distributed over the whole district according to its requirements, having regard to the amount of population in its various parts and other local circumstances; and the Commissioners suggest to the Guardians the propriety of keeping this consideration in view in the selection of ratepayers for the Dispensary Committees, and of Wardens. It will, therefore, be desirable for the Board, in making such selection, to have before them a list of the Guardians and Relieving Officers entitled to issue tickets for Medical Relief, showing their respective places of residence; and to make their selection of Ratepayers and Wardens accordingly, from persons resident in localities least provided with facility for obtaining such tickets from other resident persons authorized to give them.

6. The Commissioners also recommend the Guardians to select for Members of the Dispensary Committees such qualified ratepayers as will be likely to be able and willing to assist in the due administration of the Dispensaries Act, by attending the meetings of the Committee of Management of their District at the prescribed times, so as to insure as far as practicable, regular meetings of a sufficient number of the Committee for the due management of the Dispensary, and the transaction of the business arising under the Act, in accordance with the General Rules issued in pursuance thereof. It is the more important that this consideration should be kept in view in the selection of ratepayers to complete the Dispensary Committees at the present time, inasmuch as those Committees are required by § 19 of the Act, to give their aid, in their respective districts, in carrying into effect the sanitary directions and regulations issued under the Nuisances Removal and Diseases Prevention Acts, an object which demands the vigilant and continued attention of all the local authorities, with a view to the adoption and enforcement of sanitary measures, in the abatement of nuisances and the removal of causes injurious to health.

7. Your attention, as Clerk of the Union, is requested to your duties under Articles 1, 2, 3, 4, & 27 (annexed hereto), of the General Dispensary Regulations of 16th December, 1853, in pursuance of which you will, as soon as the new Committees are completed by the Board of Guardians, make a Return to the Commissioners of the names and addresses of all the Members of each Committee, in the Form (No. 1,) prescribed for the purpose; and you will take care to forward such Return to this Office in due course, as soon as the new Committees are constituted.

8. You will likewise forward the prescribed Notice (Form No. 3,) to each Member of the respective Committees so constituted, and the list of their names and addresses (in Form No. 5,) to the Medical Officers of the respective districts, in accordance with the regulations. Herewith is enclosed a Form of Letter which you can use in transmitting to each Medical Officer the list for his district. Where there is more than one Medical Officer for any district, a copy of the entire list for the district is to be transmitted to each Medical Officer thereof.

9. You will also take care that each of the persons authorized to issue Tickets for Medical Relief shall be supplied with "Medical Relief Ticket Check Books," in the Forms (E 1 & 2) prescribed by the General Regulations of 16th December, 1853, for the purpose.

10. In case any of the Members of the present Dispensary Committees, or Wardens, be not reappointed on the expiration of their present term of office, and consequently cease thereupon to have authority to issue Tickets for Medical Relief, you will transmit to them the notice prescribed in such case (Form No. 6).

11. You should immediately take the necessary steps for obtaining, if you have not already done so, the requisite supply of the Forms above referred to (Nos. 1, 3, 5, & 6; and Forms of Ticket Books E 1 & E 2), which should be procured from the printer in the ordinary manner, without delay, in pursuance of Article 27 of the Regulations.

By order of the Commissioners,

W. Stanley, Secretary.

Extract from Circular of 30th March, 1852, as to Appointment of Wardens, referred to in paragraph 4 of the foregoing Circular of 22nd March, 1856.

1. The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland desire to call the attention of the Board of Guardians to the provisions of the 50th section of the Irish Poor Relief Act, 1 & 2 Vic., c. 56, under which the Board of Guardians of every Union in Ireland is required "within one month after the annual election of Guardians, to appoint a fit person in each parish or townland, or any part thereof, respectively, included in such Union, to be and be styled the Warden for such parish, townland, or part thereof." It appears that in some Unions the provisions of this section have not been duly and regularly complied with; and the Commissioners request the attention of the Guardians to the subject, in reference to the due administration of Medical Relief to the sick poor under the Medical Charities Act, 14 & 15 Vic., c. 68, under section 9 of which, Wardens, as well as members of Dispensary Committees and Relieving Officers, are the parties empowered to afford Medical Relief, by the issue of tickets for the same as therein provided, after the necessary arrangements for the purpose shall have been made.

2. With regard to the districts which it may be advisable to assign to the Wardens, it will be observed that a Warden may be appointed for a parish, or townland, or any part thereof. The Commissioners apprehend that it will not generally be necessary to appoint a separate Warden for each townland, or a sub-division thereof; and difficulty might arise in selecting so many persons willing to act, as would be requisite for the appointment of these officers for such districts, which would in many cases be of very small extent. As the Guardians are enabled to appoint a Warden for a parish, or any part of a parish, the Commissioners suggest for their consideration whether it may not be advisable for them so to arrange the Wardens' districts, as to appoint one at least for each parish, or portion of a parish, included in each Electoral Division. The Commissioners, however, are desirous that this suggestion should not be understood as intended to limit the Guardians to this number of Wardens, or to interfere with their discretion in regard to the districts for which they may think it desirable from local circumstances to appoint them in accordance with the Act.

Extract from General Order of 16th December, 1853, containing the General Regulations for Dispensary Districts, referred to in paragraph 7 of foregoing Circular of 22nd March, 1856.

"Article 1.—Immediately on the completion of a new Committee of Management for each Dispensary District after each annual election of Guardians in the Union, the Clerk of the Union shall make a return, in the Form No. 1, annexed to this Order, to us, the said Commissioners, of the names and addresses of the respective members of the Committee; and in like manner on any election by the Board of Guardians of a ratepayer or ratepayers to fill any vacancy or vacancies in any such Committee, the Clerk shall make a return to us, in the Form No. 2, annexed to this Order.

"Article 2.—The Clerk of the Union shall, on the appointment of a new Committee after each annual election of the Guardians of the said Union, send to each member of the Committee for every Dispensary District a notice in the annexed Form No. 3; and on the election of any ratepayer to supply a vacancy at any time in any of the said Committees, the Clerk shall send to him a notice in the annexed Form No. 4.

"Article 3.—Immediately upon the annual completion of any new Committees as aforesaid, the Clerk of the Union shall furnish each Medical Officer of the respective districts with a list, according to the annexed Form No. 5. of the names and addresses of the members of the Committee of the District of which he is a Medical Officer; and also of the names and residences of every Relieving Officer and Warden acting as such for any Electoral Division included in such district; and the Medical Officer shall lay such list before the Committee of Management at their first meeting after receipt thereof. And the Clerk shall in like manner notify, from time to time, any changes from death or otherwise, of members of the Committee of Management, Relieving Officers, or Wardens in any districts, to the respective Medical Officers thereof, who shall lay such notification before the Committee of Management at their first meeting after receipt thereof.

"Article 4.—Whenever any person ceases to be a member of the Committee, or a Warden, on the expiration of a period for which he is appointed, the Clerk of the Union shall transmit to him a notice in the Form No. 6, hereto annexed, apprizing him of the cessation of his power to issue Tickets for Medical Relief, and requiring him to return to the Board of Guardians any forms of the Tickets for Medical Relief which had been issued to him in the Medical Relief Ticket Check Books (Forms E 1 and E 2, hereinafter mentioned), and which may not have been used."

"Article 27.—The Board of Guardians shall from time to time as may be necessary, cause to be provided a sufficient supply of books, stationery, and forms prescribed by this or any other Order under our Seal, and all other requisites, for the use of each Committee of Management; and shall also cause a sufficient number of Check Books of Medical Relief Tickets, according to the annexed Forms E 1 and E 2, to be provided, and cause a sufficient supply of such Check Books to be furnished to each member of every Dispensary Committee in the Union, and to each Relieving Officer and Warden therein."

No. 2.—Lists of Medicines.—Circular to Boards of Guardians.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
July 4, 1862.

Sir,

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland transmit to you herewith a copy of a revised list of medicines (A), which they have prepared for the assistance of Boards of Guardians in reference to the estimates of Medical Officers of Dispensary districts, and requisitions of Committees of Management thereon, for the medicines required for use at the several Dispensaries.

The list has been considerably enlarged, and now comprises several medicines which were not included in the list issued with the Commissioners' Circular Letter of the 9th July, 1852 (No. 690, M/52).

The Commissioners request the attention of the Guardians to the explanation printed at the head of the list; and they desire at the same time to state that, in the event of a Medical Officer requiring to be supplied with any medicine not comprised in the list, a distinct requisition for such medicine should be made by the Medical Officer, through the Committee of Management, stating the circumstances which are considered to render the requisition necessary.

The Commissioners also enclose a list (B) of medicines which may be used in making contracts with druggists. This list is intended for parties tendering to insert the prices at which they are willing to contract for the supply of the various articles named therein.

With regard to the column in this list headed "Quantity," the Commissioners have to observe that it is not necessary that the quantities or measures named should be adhered to in cases where it may be deemed advisable to substitute others; but, inasmuch as it is essential that all the tenders made for the same article should be made in regard to the same quantities or measures by all the parties tendering, so as to admit of a comparison of the prices, care should be taken that any alteration that may be made in the column should be made known to all the parties proposing to tender.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Clerk of each Union.

No. 3.—List of Medicines.—Circular to Dispensary Committees.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
Sir, July 4, 1862.

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland transmit to you herewith, for the information of the Committee of Management of the Dispensary District, a copy of a revised list of medicines, which has been prepared with a view to the estimates of Dispensary Medical Officers, and requisitions of Committees of Management, for medicines required for use at the Dispensaries.*

The list has been considerably enlarged, and now comprises several medicines which were not included in the list issued in 1852.

The Commissioners request attention to the explanation printed at the head of the list; and they desire, at the same time, to state that, in the event of the Medical Officer requiring to be supplied with any medicine not comprised in the list, a distinct requisition for such medicine should be made, setting forth the circumstances which are considered to render the requisition necessary.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Honorary Secretary
of each Dispensary Committee.

No. 4.—Custody of Poisonous Medicines.—Circular to Dispensary Committees.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
Sir, August 11, 1862.

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland, have had their attention drawn to the recent conviction of a Union Officer for murder by poisoning, and to the fact, that he is supposed to have obtained the poison from the Workhouse surgery.

The Commissioners think it right to call the attention of the several Dispensary Committees to this subject, in order that, if sufficient and satisfactory arrangements do not exist at present for the safe custody of poisonous medicines at the Dispensary, the requisite directions may be at once given.

The Commissioners suggest that poisonous medicines should be kept under lock and key, separate from the other medicines, and that the Medical Officer should himself retain, and be responsible for the possession of, the key.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Honorary Secretary
of each Dispensary Committee.

No. 5.—Qualification of Dispensary Medical Officers.—Circular to Dispensary Committees.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
Sir, October 14, 1862.

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland have had under their consideration that part of the General Regulations for the government of Dispensary Districts which relates to the qualification for the office of Medical Officer of a Dispensary District; and have thought it right to make some alteration in the qualification therein required.

A copy of a General Order which the Commissioners have accordingly issued

is forwarded herewith, by which it will be seen that the qualification required for future appointments is as follows:—

A degree or diploma in medicine;
A diploma in surgery;
A certificate in midwifery;

and that the person appointed shall have attained the age of twenty-three years.

It will be seen also that the Commissioners have reserved to themselves the power of dispensing with that part of the qualification which requires a separate medical certificate or diploma in any case in which, under special circumstances, it shall appear to them necessary to do so; and that the new regulation is not to apply to any person holding the office of Dispensary Medical Officer at the date of the Order.

The Committee will, probably, think it right, in advertising for Medical Officers in future, to make known the double qualification now required.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Honorary Secretary
of each Dispensary District.

No. 6.—Qualification of Medical Officers.—Circular to Dispensary Committees.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
Sir, January 15, 1863.

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland transmit to you herewith a copy of a General Order which they have issued, extending, in some respects, the provisions of the General Order of the 10th October last, regarding the qualification for the office of Medical Officer of a Dispensary District; and the Commissioners desire, at the same time, to observe, that the terms of the Order of the 10th October had been found to exclude from competition parties whom it had not been intended so to exclude, and this circumstance has caused a necessity for the present Order.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Honorary Secretary
of each Dispensary District.

III.—CORRESPONDENCE RELATING TO THE QUALIFICATION FOR THE OFFICE OF MEDICAL OFFICER UNDER THE MEDICAL CHARITIES ACT AND IRISH POOR RELIEF ACTS.

No. 1.—Letter from the King and Queen's College of Physicians of Ireland to the Commissioners.

King and Queen's College of Physicians of Ireland,
Sir, Dublin, January 30, 1860.

I am directed by the President and Fellows of the King and Queen's College of Physicians to request the attention of the Poor Law Commissioners for Ireland to the existing regulation of their Board, relative to the professional qualifications now required for medical officers holding Poor Law appointments in Ireland, and to the expediency of their requiring, in addition to a surgical diploma, a degree or diploma in medicine from some recognised university or college, being such qualifications in medicine and in surgery as are now generally required from Medical Officers in the public departments, whether of Civil, Military, or Naval services.

The present regulation of the Poor Law Commissioners for Ireland in reference to the qualification of Medical Officers is as follows :—

"He shall be duly licensed to practise as a medical man, and shall have obtained letters testimonial of his qualification to practise surgery from the Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland, or the diploma of the Royal College of Surgeons of England, or the degree or diploma in surgery of some other college or body in Great Britain or Ireland duly authorized to grant the same, and also a certificate from some recognised hospital or board or court of examiners, or other body duly authorized to grant the same, of his possessing a competent knowledge of midwifery."

The Poor Law Commissioners will observe that under the above regulation the only qualification necessary is a licence in surgery, but that no diploma or qualification in medicine is required.

The Poor Law Board of England require a legal qualification in medicine as well as in surgery. In their circular letter, addressed to Boards of Guardians, of January 3, 1860, they observe that they deem "it advisable to modify the provisions of the General Consolidated Order ; and to enable any person who can establish his qualification to practise both medicine and surgery by the production of proper testimonials, issued by competent legal authority in any part of the United Kingdom, to be a candidate for the office of Medical Officer in the unions to which the order is directed ;" and their regulations of 10th December, 1859, enact that "no person shall be qualified to be appointed to the office of Medical Officer under any of the orders above referred to unless he shall be registered as aforesaid, and shall be qualified by law to practise both medicine and surgery in England and Wales, such qualification being established by the production to the Board of Guardians of a diploma certificate of a degree, licence, or other instrument, granted or issued by competent legal authority in Great Britain or Ireland, testifying to the medical or surgical, or medical and surgical qualification or qualifications of the candidate for such office."

The above regulation is drawn up in accordance with the Medical Act, 1858, which enacts, vide clause 31, "that every person registered under this Act shall be entitled, according to his qualification or qualifications, to practise medicine or surgery or medicine and surgery, as the case may be, in any part of Her Majesty's dominions."

The regulations of the Army Medical Department require that "the candidate must possess a diploma in surgery, or a licence to practise it from the Royal College of Surgeons of England, Ireland, or Scotland, or from some other corporate body legally entitled to grant a diploma in surgery, or a licence to practise it. He must besides, and in addition to such diploma or licence, possess a legal qualification to practise medicine in Great Britain or Ireland."

The Royal Warrant for the regulation of the Medical Department of the Navy requires, in like manner, that Medical Officers for the Navy shall possess a similar double qualification in Medicine or Surgery thus :—"No candidate shall be admitted to the examination for a commission in the Medical Department of the Royal Navy who does not possess such a diploma as would qualify a civilian to practise medicine and surgery."

The East India Board require "that every surgeon seeking an appointment under them, shall, in addition to his surgical diploma, undergo a special examination in medicine and its collateral branches, by examiners appointed by them, as set forth in the following extract from the regulation.

"The examination will include the following subjects :—1. Surgery in all its branches. 2. Medicine, including the Diseases of Women and Children, Therapeutic Pharmacy, and Hygiène. 3. Anatomy and Physiology, including Comparative Anatomy. 4. Natural History, including Botany and Zoology."

The several official authorities and public boards above enumerated appear to have adopted the regulations as to the double qualifications from a long experience, that the diploma in surgery alone did not suffice to insure the desired competency.

The President and Fellows of the King and Queen's College of Physicians deem it their duty to submit these circumstances to the Poor Law Commissioners for Ireland, and to suggest to them the expediency of henceforth requiring similar qualifications in medicine and surgery from Medical Officers holding appointments under them, so as to insure sufficiently educated Medical Officers for the public service. The diseases which come daily under treatment in Workhouses, General Hospitals, Fever Hospitals and Dispensaries, are generally more of a medical than of a surgical character.

The Crown and Legislature by various Royal Charters and Acts of Parliament have recognised the distinction between medicine and surgery, and have at various times intrusted to distinct bodies or colleges the duty of separately testing medical and surgical knowledge; and where, as in a few instances, the same corporate body has the legal power to issue diplomas in medicine and in surgery, there is a separate examination and a separate diploma given for each branch.

Without the separate licence in medicine as well as surgery, there can be no security that a candidate who has only obtained a diploma in surgery possesses an adequate knowledge of medicine; nor on the other hand, that a person who has only obtained a diploma in medicine possesses an adequate knowledge of surgery. It is true that in the curricula of some of the colleges of physicians and of surgeons, as well as of universities, certificates of mixed medical and surgical education are required from applicants for licence; but there is not only no obligation on these respective bodies, but it is not their general practice to examine except in their own department. In some instances the candidate for a surgical diploma may perhaps be incidentally asked some question on medical diseases; in most instances, however, the examination includes no medical questions, and in others again, the introduction of any examination, whether in medicine or its collateral branches, is purposely abstained from, nor would it perhaps be considered even strictly legal or within the province of any qualifying body to submit a candidate to a testing examination in the department, whether medicine or surgery, on which it was not authorized to issue diplomas.

The President and Fellows have lately been strongly impressed with the view now put forward, by the circumstance of several persons who possessed diplomas in surgery only having come before them for examination, in order to obtain a diploma in medicine, in compliance with the regulation of some of the official authorities or boards above referred to, and being found on examination so deficient in the knowledge of the practice of medicine and of its collateral branches that the College has been obliged to reject them.

For all these reasons the College would submit to the Poor Law Commissioners of Ireland the necessity of assimilating the qualifications of Medical Officers in Ireland to those now required by the Poor Law Board of England as well as for the Army, Navy, and East India Service, so as to secure for the public service in Ireland Medical Officers possessing an adequate knowledge of both medicine and surgery.

In reference to that part of the General Order affecting midwifery qualifications, the College desires to observe that "a certificate from some recognised hospital, &c." of the candidates possessing a competent knowledge of midwifery would not appear to be a sufficient guarantee of the possession of competent knowledge, nor to be in accordance with the Medical Act, inasmuch as there is no hospital legally empowered to grant such certificate, nor can such certificate be recognised or entered in the Registry under the Medical Act.

The College would therefore beg to suggest, in reference to midwifery qualifications, that the candidate should be required to produce a diploma in midwifery from some college legally authorized to grant the same.

I have the honour to be your obedient servant,

Wm. Edw. Steele, M.D., Registrar.

Poor Law Commissioners, Ireland, Custom House.

Sir,

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 30th ult., calling attention to the existing regulations, relative to the qualifications required for appointments under the Poor Law and Medical Charities Acts in Ireland, and suggesting the expediency of requiring, in addition to a surgical diploma, a degree or diploma in medicine from some recognised university or college, as well as a diploma in midwifery from some college legally authorized to grant the same; and the Commissioners desire to state that the subject shall receive their consideration.

No. 3.—Letter from the King and Queen's College of Physicians to the Commissioners.

King and Queen's College of Physicians in Ireland,
Sir, Dublin, March 30, 1860.

Referring to my letter of January 30, and to your reply of February 3 (No. 2420—60), I am directed by the President and Fellows of this College to forward to you the enclosed printed copy of a report of the Council of the Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland, and to invite the attention of the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland to the letter of the Director-General of the Army Medical Department of 21st June, 1859, inserted at page 5, in which he states "that every candidate for the Army Medical Service must produce a degree in medicine or a licence to practise it, * * * as well as a diploma in Surgery;" * * * and also to his letter of 28th June, 1859, inserted at page 4, wherein he informs the Council that it was on his recommendation the Secretary of State for War "has decided that for the future every candidate for an assistant-surgeoncy in the Army must produce first a degree in medicine, or a licence to practise it; and second, a diploma in surgery, or a licence to practise it; and that the diploma or licence of no one college will be considered a full qualification, though the examination may include both medicine and surgery."

It is most satisfactory to this College to find that the views which they put forward in their communication of 30th January have thus been confirmed by so high an authority.

The late Director-General of the Army Medical Department served with the British army as Medical Officer in nearly all parts of the globe. He was the principal Medical Officer in charge of the Light Division in the Crimea. On his return he was selected to be one of the Royal Commissioners appointed to inquire into and report upon the reforms necessary to be carried out in the Medical Service, and the sanitary arrangements of the army; and he was finally appointed as Director-General of the Medical Department of the Army. He thus possessed the most extensive opportunities of forming a correct opinion as to the qualifications which are needed for a Medical Officer in the public service.

The President and Fellows submit for the consideration of the Poor Law Commissioners, that as a diploma in medicine as well as in surgery has been found requisite to be possessed by Medical Officers of the Army in order to insure competency in its officers, it would appear to be still more necessary to require the same qualifications from Medical Officers in the Civil Service whose duties must always partake more of a purely medical character than those of the Medical Officers of the army.

I have the honour to be, sir,

Your obedient servant,

Wm. Edw. Steele, M.D., Registrar.

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland acknowledge the receipt of your further letter of the 30th ult., on the subject of the qualifications to be required for the office of Medical Officer, under the Irish Poor Relief and Medical Charities Acts; and the Commissioners desire to inform you that the subject shall receive their attention.

No. 5.—Letter from the King and Queen's College of Physicians to the Commissioners.

King and Queen's College of Physicians, Dublin,
March 1, 1861.

Sir,

I am directed by the President and Fellows of the College to state that their attention has been called to a rule of the Poor Law Commissioners, to the effect that they will refuse to ratify any medical appointment under their Board, unless the candidate be twenty-three years of age.

The President and Fellows take the liberty of observing to the Poor Law Commissioners that, in their opinion, there can be no advantage from postponing the eligibility of a candidate for a public appointment for any period after the age of twenty-one years, at which age he is admitted to examination by the various universities and licensing corporations; that on the contrary there is, in their opinion, rather injury than advantage arising from such a rule, for neither physician nor surgeon can hope to obtain private practice to improve his professional knowledge within two years after he has passed his examinations; and if debarred from taking charge of a public institution until that interval has elapsed, he may forget much of what he has learned, but will seldom acquire more than he then possessed. No such prohibitory rule exists in the medical department of army or navy. In the present instance the gentleman whose case has suggested these observations is Dr. Thomas Gelston, an M.D. of the Queen's University, a Licentiate of the King and Queen's College of Physicians, and a Licentiate in Surgery of the Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland. He is also Physician to Barrington's Hospital, and to the Lying-in Hospital, Limerick. He has, it appeared, been lately elected to a Dispensary in that city, but the rule of the Commissioners referred to prevents the confirmation of his appointment.

I am, sir, your obedient servant,

Lombe Atthill, M.D., Fellow and Registrar.

No. 6.—Letter from the Commissioners to the King and Queen's College of Physicians.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
March 5, 1861.

Sir,

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland have had before them your letter of the 1st inst., addressed to Mr. Power, on the subject of the regulation of the Commissioners, which requires that no person shall be appointed a medical officer under the Irish Poor Relief Acts, or Medical Charities Act, who shall not have reached the age of twenty-three years; and stating the opinion of the President and Fellows of the King and Queen's College of Physicians, that there can be no advantage in postponing the eligibility of a candidate for a public appointment for any period after the age of twenty-one years.

In reply, the Commissioners desire to state that the regulation requiring a minimum age of twenty-three years has been many years in operation, and has, in the opinion of the Commissioners, worked beneficially.

The Commissioners do not doubt that its tendency is to supply more experienced candidates for office under the Medical Charities and Poor Relief Acts; and they do not concur with the College of Physicians in their apprehension that medical men will pass their time in idleness from the period of finishing their medical education; but, on the contrary, the Commissioners believe that the members of this most important profession will devote this period in acquiring a practical knowledge and confidence in the discharge of their duties, so necessary in the remote districts of Ireland, where no opportunity exists of obtaining the advantage of the experience of the older members of the profession.

No. 7.—Letter from the Commissioners to the President of the King and Queen's College of Physicians, and to the President of the Royal College of Surgeons, Ireland.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
October 17, 1862.

Sir,

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland transmit to you herewith, for the information of the Council of the King and Queen's College of Physicians, copies of two orders which they have issued, altering that part of their general regulations which relates to the qualification for the office of Medical Officer of a Workhouse or Dispensary District.

Under the new regulation the qualification required for future appointments is as follows:—

A degree or diploma in medicine,
A diploma in surgery,
A certificate in midwifery,

and that the person appointed shall have attained the age of twenty-three years.

The Commissioners have, however, reserved to themselves the power of dispensing with that part of the qualification which requires a separate medical certificate or diploma in any case in which, under special circumstances, it shall appear to them necessary to do so.

No. 8.—Letter from the Royal College of Surgeons to the Commissioners.

Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland, Dublin,
October 28, 1862.

Sir,

In reply to your communication of the 17th inst., addressed to the President of the College, containing copies of two orders which have been issued by the Commissioners for administering the Laws for the Relief of the Poor in Ireland, altering that part of their general regulations which relates to the qualification for the office of Medical Officer of a Workhouse or Dispensary District, I am directed to inform you, for the information of the Commissioners, that at a meeting of the Council of the College, held on Saturday last, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted.

I have the honour to be, sir, your obedient servant,

JAS. STANNUS HUGHES,
Secretary to the Council.

To B. Banks, esq., Chief Clerk,
Poor Law Commission.

RESOLUTIONS enclosed in foregoing LETTER.

At a meeting of the Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland, held on Saturday, the 25th of October—

A communication from the Poor Law Commissioners having been read, announcing that they have resolved to require candidates for appointments as Medical Officers of Workhouses and Dispensaries to produce, as qualification to fill such offices, a medical degree, licence or diploma, granted by some body duly authorized to grant the same, in addition to the letters testimonial, or licence of a College of Surgeons; it is moved and seconded that this regulation, made in ignorance of the nature of the education and examinations of this College, is equivalent to an assertion that its Fellows and Licentiates are not competent to treat all forms of disease, which is a gross infringement of the rights and privileges of the surgeons of Ireland, and a direct violation of the provisions of the Royal Charters, Acts of Parliament, and usages, of this country, which declare that they are entitled to practise in every department of the healing art, and to fill all public situations for the relief of disease.

It is also moved and seconded, that this Council will resort to every legal means at its disposal, to defeat this attempt of the Poor Law Commissioners to usurp the powers of the constituted authorities of the medical profession, and by an arbitrary act to defeat the intentions of the Crown and Legislature, confirmed by letters patent and statutes, and accepted by the country as the acknowledged law of the land.

It is likewise moved and seconded, that no notice having been given of these proceedings to this College, until the signature of the Lord Lieutenant had been obtained to confirm these rules of the Poor Law Commissioners, this Council will without delay proceed to take such steps as counsel may advise, to defeat this and every other measure now in progress to subvert this institution.

These motions having been made, and question put, were agreed to unanimously.

No. 9.—LETTER from the COMMISSIONERS to the ROYAL COLLEGE of SURGEONS, IRELAND.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
October 30, 1862.

SIR,

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland, acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 28th instant, transmitting copies of resolutions adopted at a meeting of the Council of the Royal College of Surgeons, on the 25th instant, relative to the orders recently issued by the Commissioners, prescribing the qualification which is to be required in future for the office of Medical Officer of a Workhouse or Dispensary District in Ireland, in which it is alleged that those regulations are an infringement of the rights and privileges of the surgeons of Ireland, and it is intimated that such steps as counsel may advise will be taken on the matter.

In reply, the Commissioners desire to state that the revised regulations on this subject were issued after much consideration, and reference to the medical qualifications required in other branches of the public service, and they have to observe that a similar regulation to that referred to, has been in force for some time in England, the English Poor Law Board having, in December, 1859, modified their General Order regarding the qualification for the office of Medical Officer, and provided that after the 1st of March, 1860, no person should be qualified to be appointed to the office of Medical Officer under their orders, unless he should be qualified by law to practise both medicine and surgery, such qualification to be established by the production of a diploma or other instrument issued by competent legal authority, testifying to the medical or surgical, or medical and surgical qualifications of the candidate.

The power of determining the qualifications to be required for the office of Medical Officer of a Workhouse, is clearly vested in the Commissioners by the 31st section of the Irish Poor Relief Act (1 & 2 Vic., c. 56), and for the office of Medical Officer of a Dispensary District, by the 6th and 8th sections of the Medical Charities Act (14 & 15 Vic., c. 68); and the Commissioners do not doubt that the fact of a double qualification being now required will operate beneficially, by tending to raise the standard of medical education, and to improve the professional position of the holders of Workhouse and Dispensary appointments in future.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To James Stannus Hughes, esq., M.D.,
Secretary to the Council, Royal College of Surgeons, Dublin.

I am directed to acquaint you, for the information of the Commissioners for administering the Laws for the Relief of the Poor in Ireland, that the President and Council of this College have granted letters testimonial and diplomas to Mr. John Henry Chapman and several other Licentiates and Fellows of this College, testifying that they are qualified to practise medicine as well as surgery; and, also, that the President and Council will for the future grant such letters testimonial and diplomas to all Fellows and Licentiates of the College. I am also directed to state, that they grant these letters testimonial and diplomas pursuant to the powers vested in them by the charters of the College, to grant such letters testimonial, certificates, and diplomas, as they may think fit, reasonable, and just, to enable their Fellows and Licentiates to practise their profession without impediment or hindrance. The letters testimonial and diplomas are granted in the following form and terms:—

Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland.

Know all men by these presents, that Mr. ——, of the Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland, having produced the certificates of medical education required by the charters and bye-laws of the College, and having been solemnly and publicly examined in the theory and practice of medicine: We the President and Council of the said College, do grant him these our letters testimonial and diploma, testifying that he is qualified to practise medicine as well as surgery; and, also, that he having been duly registered by the Council of Medical Education, is a legally qualified Medical Practitioner.

In witness thereof, we have subscribed our names, and caused the seal of the College to be hereunto affixed, at Dublin, this —— day of —— 186 .

No. 12.—Letter from the Commissioners to the Royal College of Surgeons, Ireland.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
Sir, December 31, 1862.

With reference to your letter of the 6th instant, stating that letters testimonial and diplomas have been granted to Mr. John Henry Chapman and other Licentiates and Fellows of the College of Surgeons, testifying that they are qualified to practise medicine as well as surgery; and that the President and Council will for the future grant such letters testimonial and diplomas to all Fellows and Licentiates of the College; the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland, desire to acquaint you, for the information of the President and Council, that they have caused a case to be laid before the Attorney-General and Solicitor-General, in reference to the diploma granted to Mr. Chapman, and are advised by them that the College of Surgeons has not the power, and is not competent to grant a diploma or degree in medicine.

They also state, that they do not think the registration of such letters testimonial or diploma to practise medicine can be held to qualify the person registered within the meaning of the Order of the Commissioners of the 10th October last, that Order requiring the possession of a diploma to practise surgery, granted by a body competent to give it, and a degree in medicine granted by a body having power to give it; and that (if they are right in their opinion that the College of Surgeons is not authorized by its charter to give a degree in medicine), the giving of such a degree (even though it were subsequently registered) by that College, would not supply the necessary qualification.

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

Secretary of Council, Royal College of Surgeons.

No. 13.—Copy of Queries submitted to the Attorney-General and Solicitor-General, and their Opinions thereon, referred to in the foregoing Letter.

1. Whether the Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland has power and is competent to grant letters testimonial and diplomas, testifying that the person to whom same may be granted, is qualified to practise medicine as well as surgery.

2. Whether, if the General Council of Medical Education shall register under the provisions of the Statute 21 & 22 Vic., c. 90, the letters testimonial or diploma to practise medicine so granted by the College of Surgeons, the person so registered is to be considered in all respects, as holding the qualifications required in that behalf by the Order of the Commissioners above stated, or would it be competent, notwithstanding such registry, for the Commissioners to question the power of the College of Surgeons to grant such diploma in medicine.

Opinion.

1. After perusing and considering the charters of the College of Surgeons, we are of opinion, that it has not power and is not competent to grant a diploma or degree in medicine.

2. We do not think that the registration of such letters testimonial or diploma to practise medicine can be held to qualify the person registered within the meaning of the Order of the Poor Law Commissioners. That Order requires the possession of a diploma to practise surgery, granted by a body competent to give it; and a degree in medicine granted by a body having power to give it also; and, if we are right in our opinion that the College of Surgeons is not authorized by its charters to give a degree in medicine, the giving of such a degree, even though it were subsequently registered by that College, would not supply the necessary qualification.

The Governor and Court of Examiners of the Apothecaries' Hall of Dublin, present their respects to the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland, and adverting to a recent General Order of the Commissioners for regulating the qualification of Medical Officers for future appointments under the Board, whereby, in addition to a diploma in surgery, a diploma in medicine is required, the Court beg to be informed if the certificate granted by the Apothecaries' Hall, will be received among the qualifications in medicine referred to in that Order.

Medical Qualification.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
Sir, November 8, 1862.

In reply to the inquiry of the Governor and Court of Examiners of the Apothecaries' Hall of Dublin, dated the 5th inst., as to whether the certificate granted by the Apothecaries' Hall will be received among the qualifications in Medicine referred to in the recent General Order of the Commissioners, prescribing the qualifications to be required in future for the office of Medical Officer of a Workhouse or Dispensary District; the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland desire to state that they are under the impression that the licence granted by the Company of Apothecaries' is not "a degree in medicine, or a diploma or licence to practise medicine, from some college or body that may be authorized to grant a diploma or licence to practise medicine, in Great Britain or Ireland."

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

Apothecaries' Hall, Dublin,
Sir, November 14, 1862.

I am directed by the Governor and Court of Examiners of the Apothecaries' Hall to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 8th inst., in reply to the inquiry as to whether the certificate granted by the Apothecaries' Hall will be received among the qualifications in Medicine referred to in the recent General Order of the Poor Law Commissioners, in which letter the Commissioners state "that they are under the impression that the licence granted by the Company of Apothecaries is not a degree in medicine, or a diploma or licence to practise medicine, from some college or body that may be authorized to grant a diploma or licence to practise medicine, in Great Britain or Ireland."

In reply, the Governor and Court beg leave to forward to the Poor Law Commissioners a copy of the legal opinion of Lord Westbury on the case submitted to him when Attorney-General of England, together with the opinion of Mr. Napier, Q.C., and request, when they shall have considered these documents, they will have the goodness to inform the Governor and Court whether they will acknowledge the certificate of the Hall as such qualification as aforesaid.

No. 18.—Letter from the Commissioners to the King and Queen's College of Physicians, Ireland.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
Sir, November 18, 1862.

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland desire to acquaint you, for the information of the King and Queen's College of Physicians, that they have had some correspondence with the Apothecaries' Company, on the subject of the qualifications required by the Commissioners' General Regulations for the office of Medical Officer of a Workhouse or Dispensary District, in which that Company claim to have the licence or certificate granted by the Apothecaries' Hall recognised as a qualification in medicine, under the recent order of the Commissioners.

The Commissioners will be happy to take into consideration any views upon this subject which the King and Queen's College of Physicians may wish to place before them.

The Commissioners enclose copies of legal opinions which have been forwarded to them from Apothecaries' Hall, given by Sir Richard Bethell late Attorney-General for England (now Lord Westbury), and by the Right Honourable Joseph Napier, in reference to the rights of Licentiates of the Company as duly qualified medical practitioners.

By order of the Commissioners,

No. 19.—Letter from the King and Queen's College of Physicians to the Commissioners.

King and Queen's College of Physicians,
January 7, 1863.

Sir,

I am directed by the President and Fellows of the King and Queen's College of Physicians to present, for the consideration of the Commissioners, the following observations in reference to the claim of the Apothecaries' Company of Ireland to have the "licence or certificate granted by them recognised by the Commissioners as a qualification in medicine, under the recent order of the Commissioners."

The recent order referred to (October 10th, 1862), is as follows: —"No. 1. He shall have obtained a degree in medicine, or a diploma or licence to practise medicine, from some college or other body that may be authorized to grant a diploma or licence to practise medicine, in Great Britain or Ireland; also a diploma in surgery, or a licence to practise surgery from some college or other body that may be authorized to grant a diploma or licence to practise surgery, in Great Britain or Ireland, and also a certificate from some board or court of examiners, or other body duly authorized to grant the same, of his possessing a competent knowledge of midwifery."

The observations on the mere legal part of the question shall be as brief as possible, as the documents enclosed * enter very fully into that part of the subject.

It, however, appears to be clear from a perusal of the Apothecaries' Act herewith enclosed, that the certificate or licence which the Apothecaries' Company of Ireland are empowered to issue, is only such as specified in s. 18, 31st Geo. III., cap. 34, Irish, viz. :—"That we think him properly educated or qualified to become an apprentice or journeyman (as the case may be), to learn or transact the business of an apothecary." And in cap. 22, "That no person shall open shop, or act in the art and mystery of an apothecary, within the kingdom of Ireland, until such person shall have been examined as to his qualification and knowledge of the business, &c."

There is neither in these clauses nor in any part of the Act, any authority given to grant any licence or certificate in medicine; and on this point it seems requisite to observe, that in the case submitted to Sir R. Bethell, there is a misstatement calculated to mislead counsel, vide case herewith sent (fol. 5), where it is stated, that "Such, then was the legal and recognised position of the Irish apothecary, analogous in every respect to that of the apothecary in England, when the Medical Registration Act (21 & 22 Vic., cap. 90,) was passed, &c., &c."

* Opinion of Sir R. Bethell on case submitted to him on behalf of Apothecaries' Hall of Ireland; Opinion of W. Smith on case submitted to him on behalf of King and Queen's College of Physicians.

There is no analogy, as asserted, between the two; for while, as above shown, the power of the Apothecaries' Hall of Ireland is limited to giving a certificate as to the candidate's knowledge of the "business of an apothecary," the Apothecaries' Company of England, is moreover, in addition, authorized and required to "examine all person and persons applying to them, for the purpose of ascertaining the skill and abilities of such person or persons in the science and practice of medicine, and his or their fitness to practise as an apothecary."—Apothecaries' Act of England, 1815; 55 Geo. III., cap. 194.

The heads of the Army Medical Department, in reference to whose refusal to recognise the Apothecaries' certificate as a licence in medicine Sir R. Bethell's opinion was obtained, and who had that opinion before them, after full consideration and communication with the General Medical Council, have declined to receive the certificate of the Apothecaries' Hall of Ireland as a "Licence in Medicine," in like manner as they had previously declined to receive the diploma of the Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland as carrying a licence in medicine.

The Poor Law Board of England do not recognise the certificate of the Apothecaries' Company of Ireland, and the Privy Council of Ireland, in their rules and regulations for lunatic asylums in Ireland do not receive it as a medical qualification, but declare (vide Regulations herewith sent, p. 6) that "the Resident Medical Superintendent shall be duly qualified as a physician or surgeon."

Whatever ambiguity may arise in the interpretation of some clauses of the Medical Act of 1858, it seems clear from the tenor and spirit of the whole Act, that the several distinctions of physician, surgeon, and apothecary are maintained throughout, and that it never was the intention of the Legislature, that the diploma of one kind, or of any one licensing body, was to be considered equivalent to, or convertible into another.*

There is another point in view that appears more important for consideration than the mere technical interpretation of an Act of Parliament—that is, whether the constitution of the Board of Governors of Apothecaries' Hall of Ireland, from whom the examiners must be selected under the Apothecaries' Act, is such as to insure a satisfactory guarantee that the examiners are competent examiners in the science and practice of medicine.

The Apothecaries' Company, in their case laid before counsel, and in other communications, dwell much on their "curriculum" of education—that is, on the number and extent of lectures required to be attended by candidates for their licence. A curriculum, however extended, is no proof whatever of the candidates having learned anything during it, for there is no examination as to what he has learned until he goes before a court of examiners, and therefore the whole test is with them.

The Governors of the Apothecaries' Hall are not, and cannot, become governors in virtue of any acquirements in science or learning. Their whole and only qualification or mode of entrance into the Company is by purchase of a share in the business of the Hall (vide Apothecaries' Act).

These shares are sold in the stock market, and fluctuate like any other joint-stock shares; are bequeathed by will, given in dower, or seized by creditors, like any other property.

Originally, under the Apothecaries' Act, the shares were sixty in number, of one hundred pounds each. There are now only forty-seven shareholders in all, and of these sixteen shares at least are held by persons not apothecaries, but to whom shares have come in some of the ways described, or who were apothecaries originally but are not now, so that there are not more than thirty-one apothecaries in the Company at present. In some instances shares have been held by females. One person may hold, and does hold, several shares, and it is possible that two or three persons might buy up all the shares, or even that all the shares might be possessed by persons in no way connected with the profession.

(List of Shareholders herewith sent.)

* There are in the Medical Registration Act the following distinctions recognised:—physician; surgeon; apothecary; licentiate in midwifery—a qualification that may be obtained without any qualification in either medicine or surgery (vide Sch. A).

That public opinion would not have confidence in a "licence in medicine" coming from a board of examiners thus originated is sufficiently evident from the fact that there is no instance in Ireland, as far as the College is aware, of any committee or board of governors of any hospital in Ireland, whether supported by public or private funds, accepting a certificate from the Apothecaries' Hall as a qualification for any of its medical officers to take charge of the sick.

The following is an extract from the minute of the Irish Branch Council, of 25th April, 1860, on the constitution of the Board of Examiners of the Apothecaries' Hall :—

"The Branch Council for Ireland now feels itself bound to add what will, perhaps, and with justice, weigh more with the heads of a public department than any technical or legal arguments—that the constitution of the Apothecaries' Hall of Dublin is such as to render it most improbable that it can ever possess a sufficiently competent board of examiners. It is very well known that certificates of education give no guarantee whatever of a candidates' acquirements or knowledge. It is only by a competent board of examiners his knowledge can be tested. In all the universities and colleges of physicians and surgeons, the men who are appointed examiners are either university professors or lecturers, eminent in their several departments, or examiners annually chosen in like manner from among the most distinguished of the profession; and in the Queen's University of Ireland there is so much importance attached to the character of the examiners, that their names and the subjects on which they examine are set forth on the face of the diploma. But, in the Apothecaries' Hall of Dublin, the examiners can only be chosen from among the shareholders of the Apothecaries' Hall, which is a large joint-stock establishment in the city of Dublin for the sale of drugs; and the result is, that of the present court of examiners on anatomy, physiology, pathology, chemistry, practice of medicine, practice of surgery, practice of midwifery—comprising nearly all the important practical departments of medicine and surgery, there is not one examiner who is or has been lecturer on any of these subjects, nor is there one who has been connected with any medico-chirurgical or midwifery hospital, which could afford him that practical knowledge of medicine and surgery on which alone his competency as an examiner must depend."

These observations apply as truly and forcibly now as they did in 1860.

The Apothecaries' Company, in their several documents and cases, have dwelt much upon the fact that they do practise and have practised as medical practitioners, both before and since the passing of the Medical Act. This is admitted: surgeons may also practise medicine, physicians may practise surgery, apothecaries may practise medicine, surgery, midwifery, and pharmacy in addition; and persons without any qualification at all, and without being registered, may practise all except pharmacy, for there is no prohibitory clause in the Act, except in favour of the Irish apothecary (vide s. 55);* but this general freedom as to practice only shows that, with the exception mentioned, there is no prohibitory clause in the Act. It does not prove that any one of the licensing bodies may issue any other licence than that which it is empowered to do under charter or Act of Parliament.

In conclusion, the President and Fellows beg to observe that they do not desire to abridge or diminish, in any way whatever, the privileges, practice, or emoluments, of the members or licentiates of the Apothecaries' Company of Ireland. They consider the Apothecaries of Ireland as a most useful, and, in their own department, well-educated body of men.

Their education and knowledge, to a certain extent, of both medicine and surgery, and of the nature of medicines, makes them, and properly, in a great measure, the ordinary medical attendants of a vast mass of the population, particularly in cities, in all minor complaints in commencing illnesses; and when these become serious, there are then hospitals for the poor, and for others, according to their means, the more or less frequent attendance of the physician or surgeon in consultation. But when a medical officer in the public service is in charge of a district as dispensary officer, or of an hospital infirmary, or public institution, where he has only his own stock of knowledge to rely upon, and when the poor, or those committed to his care, have no other advice within their reach, it is the opinion of the College that such officer should be duly qualified as physician and surgeon, and that no qualification inferior to these should be recognised.

* Section 55, Medical Act, continues in force; clause 26 of Apothecaries' Act, which enacts that any one opening shop for retail of medicine, or acting as an apothecary without certificate from Apothecaries' Company, is liable for every such offence to a fine of £20.

LOMBE ATTHILL, Fellow and Registrar.

COPY, QUERIES and OPINION enclosed in the foregoing LETTER.

QUERIES.

1st. Whether the Apothecaries' Hall, Ireland, has power and is competent, either under its charter, or by usage, or any common law right, or otherwise, to grant a diploma or licence to practise Medicine?

2nd. Whether, if the General Council of Medical Education shall register, under the provisions of the Statute 21 & 22 Vic., cap. 90, the certificate granted by the Apothecaries' Hall, the person holding such certificate, and being so registered, but having no qualification, licence, or diploma from any other body or university competent to grant same, is to be considered in all respects as holding the several qualifications required in that behalf by the Poor Law Order of 10*th October*, 1862; or can the Commissioners legally object to confirm the appointment of such a person as a Medical Officer under the Poor Law or Medical Charities Act. And give such general advice for the guidance of Querists as you may consider necessary.

the opinion of such high legal authorities, I am respectfully to state that the Court cannot consent to abide by a decision which is entirely at variance with that arrived at by Lord Westbury upon the same question, as it was fully submitted to him in the case laid before him by Apothecaries' Hall, unless it should appear to the satisfaction of the Court, that the case laid before the Irish Attorney and Solicitor General was equally complete, and which the Court does not consider to be evidenced by the queries furnished by the Commissioners.

The Court, therefore, hopes that the Commissioners will be pleased to order a copy of the case upon which the opinion was obtained to be sent to the Court, and the Court will be happy to furnish the Commissioners with a copy of the statement which was laid before the late Attorney-General of England.

No. 25.—Letter from the Governor and Court of Examiners of Apothecaries' Hall, Dublin, to the Commissioners.

The Apothecaries' Hall of Ireland,
Sir, Dublin, March 4, 1863.

The Governor and Court of the Apothecaries' Hall beg to acknowledge the receipt of a copy of a case, recently submitted by the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland to the Attorney-General and Solicitor-General, relative to the right of the Apothecaries' Hall to grant licences to practise medicine, together with the joint opinion of the Attorney-General and Solicitor-General thereon; and, in reference thereto, they desire to inform the Commissioners, that after a careful consideration of that case and opinion, they are unable to acquiesce in the conclusion at which the Attorney-General and Solicitor-General have arrived in answer to the first query submitted to them,—diametrically opposed, as that opinion is, to the opinions of Lord Westbury, the present Lord Chancellor of England, and of Mr. Napier, the late Lord Chancellor of Ireland, both of whom, when at the bar, have advised that the Company of Apothecaries in Ireland is a body legally qualified and empowered to grant licences to practise medicine.

The Governor and Court also desire to express their objection to the form of the second query, as not containing a correct representation of the effect claimed by them for the certificate of the Apothecaries' Hall. They have never contended that "the person holding such certificate, and being so registered" (that is, registered under the 21 & 22 Vict., c. 90), "but having no qualification, licence, or diploma from any other body or university competent to grant same, is to be considered in all respects as holding the several qualifications required in that behalf by the Poor Law Order of the 10th of October, 1862," those qualifications being, (in addition to a diploma or licence to practise medicine), a diploma in surgery and a certificate of competent knowledge of midwifery.

All that the Governor and Court have ever claimed on behalf of their certificate is, that the holder of it, when registered, should, by virtue of it, be held entitled to practise one, and only one, of the two branches of medical science—namely, that of medicine: but they have never contended that a purely medical qualification (which is all that their certificate professes to confer), could qualify the holder to practise surgery or midwifery.

They cannot, therefore, look upon the answer to the second query as having any bearing on the question, as to the right claimed for the Licentiates of the Apothecaries' Hall to be considered (in reference to the appointment of Medical Officers of Dispensary Districts) as possessing "a licence to practise medicine," within the meaning of the Order of the 10th of October, 1862.

For the foregoing reasons, the Governor and Court decline to be bound by the opinion referred to, and must continue to press upon the Commissioners their claim to have the certificate of the Apothecaries' Hall recognised as "a licence to practise medicine," within the meaning of that Order, and must cast upon the Commissioners the responsibility of refusing such recognition.

I remain, sir, your most obedient servant,

CHARLES HENRY LEET, Secretary.

HER MAJESTY'S PRINCIPAL SECRETARY OF STATE FOR THE HOME DEPARTMENT.

Board of Supervision for the Relief of the Poor in Scotland, Chambers, George Street, Edinburgh, August 1862.

Sir,

Proceedings of the Board.

WE have the honour to submit the General Report of our proceedings for the past year.

Since the date of our last Report, the General Superintendents of Poor have continued to discharge their duties within their respective districts to our entire satisfaction. Mr Briscoe has visited 84 Parishes in the Counties of Ross, Caithness, Sutherland, Inverness, and Orkney and Shetland. Mr Falconar has visited 195 Parishes in the Counties of Argyll, Bute, Dumbarton, Perth, Stirling, Elgin, Nairn, Banff, Forfar, Aberdeen, and Kincardine. We have received from them their General Half-yearly Reports upon the administration of the Law within their respective districts, as well as special Parochial Reports from time to time, wherever circumstances appeared to require them, and we have continued to deal with these Reports in the same manner as those of former years.

During the past year, the Visiting Officer of the Board has conducted 21 special investigations, and he has inspected and reported upon 21 Lodging Houses for Paupers, and all the Poorhouses at present in operation in Scotland, with the exception of the Skye Combination Poorhouse. He has also visited and inquired into the administration of the law in 122 Parishes.

Our attention was specially directed by the Reports of the Superintendents, and more particularly of the Visiting Officer, to the condition of many of the Parochial Lodging Houses for Paupers which had been established by Parochial Boards, and we called for a plan of each such house, and specific information

SEVENTEENTH ANNUAL REPORT.

TO THE

RIGHT HON. SIR GEORGE GREY, Bart.,

HER MAJESTY'S PRINCIPAL SECRETARY OF STATE FOR THE HOME DEPARTMENT.

Board of Supervision for the Relief of the Poor in Scotland, Chambers, George Street, Edinburgh, August 1862.

Sir,

WE have the honour to submit the General Report of our proceedings for the past year. Proceedings of the Board.

Since the date of our last Report, the General Superintendents of Poor have continued to discharge their duties within their respective districts to our entire satisfaction. Mr Briscoe has visited 84 Parishes in the Counties of Ross, Caithness, Sutherland, Inverness, and Orkney and Shetland. Mr Falconar has visited 195 Parishes in the Counties of Argyll, Bute, Dumbarton, Perth, Stirling, Elgin, Nairn, Banff, Forfar, Aberdeen, and Kincardine. We have received from them their General Half-yearly Reports upon the administration of the Law within their respective districts, as well as special Parochial Reports from time to time, wherever circumstances appeared to require them, and we have continued to deal with these Reports in the same manner as those of former years.

During the past year, the Visiting Officer of the Board has conducted 21 special investigations, and he has inspected and reported upon 21 Lodging Houses for Paupers, and all the Poorhouses at present in operation in Scotland, with the exception of the Skye Combination Poorhouse. He has also visited and inquired into the administration of the law in 122 Parishes.

Our attention was specially directed by the Reports of the Superintendents, and more particularly of the Visiting Officer, to the condition of many of the Parochial Lodging Houses for Paupers which had been established by Parochial Boards, and we called for a plan of each such house, and specific information to do so. Of the Parishes in which we have sanctioned a change, seven have adopted the First Mode with a classification instead of the Second Mode, 13 have adopted the First Mode with a classification instead of the Third Mode, and three have adopted the First Mode instead of Established Usage.

The progress of the change from Voluntary Contributions to Assessment, during the seventeen years that have elapsed since this Board was formed, has been as follows:—

| | Assessed. | Voluntary Contributions. |
|---|---|---|
| August 1845, | 230 | 650 |
| ... 1846, | 448 | 432 |
| ... 1847, | 558 | 322 |
| ... 1848, | 600 | 280 |
| ... 1849, | 625 | 255 |
| ... 1850, | 644 | 236 |
| ... 1851, | 653 | 228 |
| ... 1852, | 671 | 211 |
| ... 1853, | 680 | 202 |
| ... 1854, | 689 | 194 |
| ... 1855, | 700 | 183 |
| ... 1856, | 716 | 167 |

| ... 1860, | 749 | 134 |
| ... 1861, | 752 | 131 |
| ... 1862, | 759 | 125 |

In 559 of the assessed Parishes, the Funds for the Relief of the Poor are raised by an equal rate upon owners and occupants, and in 172 there is a classification of occupants in terms of the 36th section of the Act 8 and 9 Vict. c. 83. In 27 Parishes the Assessment is levied according to Established Usage.

Elected Members. App. (B.) No. 11.

We have increased the number of Members to be elected to the Parochial Boards of the following Parishes, namely,—In Kilwinning from 4 to 8, Kirkmichael (Abernethy) 3 to 4, and Whitburn 3 to 6.

Poorhouses.

The number of Parishes that have Poorhouses, either singly or in combination, is 225, having an aggregate population of 1,530,699. In the 46 Poorhouses at present in operation, the existing accommodation was reported in July to be sufficient for 12,309 inmates. When the Poorhouses which are in progress, or the erection of which has been resolved on, are completed, the number of Parishes having Poorhouses, singly or in combination, will be 296, with an aggregate population of 1,783,002. We have, during the past year, approved of the rates for boarding Paupers belonging to 29 Parishes, in those Poorhouses of other Parishes or Combinations to which it appeared to us that they might most advantageously be sent. It is now our practice, however, to limit our approval in all such cases to a period of 12 months, as we deem it desirable that we should have a periodical opportunity of considering whether any change of circumstances has arisen to render a further continuance of our approval inexpedient. The number of Parishes that possess a right, in terms of the 65th section of the Statute, to send Paupers to the Poorhouses belonging to other Parishes, is 184, with an aggregate population of 579,224; but some of these Parishes are embraced in Combinations for proposed Poorhouses, or propose to have Poorhouses of their own. The population of the Parishes to which Poorhouse accommodation is available, amounts to 2,362,226. The Tables showing the number of Poorhouses in operation and in progress, and the Parishes forming the various Poorhouse Combinations in Scotland, are printed in the Appendix. These Tables indicate the number of Inmates of Poorhouses as at 1st January and 1st July, the number who were receiving in-door relief during the half-years ended 31st December 1861, and 30th June 1862; the number of those on the Sick List, as well as those who were Lunatic, and the number of Children who were at school. These Tables also exhibit the average Weekly Cost per head of Inmates during the half-years ended 31st December 1861, and 30th June 1862, for Maintenance, including food, fuel, clothing, light, and all other necessaries; and the average weekly expenditure per head of Inmates for whom there is accommodation in the Poorhouse for the same periods under the following heads, viz.:—1st, Establishment Charges, including salaries of officials, feu-duties, insurance, repairs, etc. 2d, Estimated Rent of Poorhouse and Land, being so much per cent. on the amount expended. 3d, Medical Relief, including medicine, medical and surgical appliances, and medical attendance.

Poorhouses.

App. (B.) No. 9.

We have sanctioned the occupation of the Lochgilphead, Skye, Nairn, and Inveresk Combination Poorhouses, and of the Campbelton, Inverness, and North Leith Poorhouses. We have also sanctioned for twelve months, the use of the building formerly the Lodging House of the Parish of Kilmore and Kilbride, by the Lorn Poorhouse Combination, as a temporary Poorhouse.

We have approved of the resolutions of the Parochial Boards of Liff and Benvie and Islay Combination to erect Poorhouses. We have given our concurrence to the combination of eight Parishes in the county of Dumbarton, for the purpose of erecting a common Poorhouse; and for a similar purpose we have given our concurrence to the combination of twelve Parishes in East Lothian; of eleven Parishes in Upper Strathearn, Perthshire; of the six civil Parishes comprehended in the Presbytery of Mull, in Argyllshire; and of the seven Parishes comprehended in the Presbytery of Lorn, in Argyllshire. The aggregate population of the above 46 Parishes, which, during the past year, have resolved to erect Poorhouses, is 137,878.

We have approved of the site, as also of the plans for the Poor-houses.

Poorhouses of Athole and Breadalbane, Upper Strathearn, Lorn, and Islay Combinations. We have also approved of the site for the Poorhouse of Liff and Benvie; and of the plans of alterations of, or additions to, the Poorhouses of Barony, Govan, and Paisley.

App. (B.) No. 10.

We again print in the Appendix a tabular statement of the present Poorhouse Buildings Debt, as returned to us by the Parochial authorities, showing the sums borrowed for the erection or enlargement of Poorhouse buildings under the 62d section of the 8 and 9 Vict. cap. 83, or the 19 and 20 Vict. cap. 117, sec. 3, the liquidation of the debt during the past year, and the amount of the debt as at May 1862.

We refused, on the application of the Parochial Boards of Maybole and Kirkmichael, to renew our sanction, under the 65th section of the Statute, to board their Paupers in the Rhins of Galloway Combination Poorhouse; and we declined to sanction the request of the Parochial Board of Kirkoswald to withdraw from its agreement to combine with the Parishes of Maybole and Kirkmichael for the erection of a common Poorhouse. In the year 1848, the Parishes of Maybole, Kirkmichael, and Kirkoswald resolved to erect a common Poorhouse, and that resolution was formally approved by us. Thereafter we permitted these Parishes to use as a temporary Poorhouse, at Maybole, a building which was removed in the course of constructing a Railway in 1855. Subsequently, we reluctantly granted permission to board the Paupers belonging to these Parishes in the Rhins of Galloway Combination Poorhouse for a limited period; and we afterwards renewed our permission to use that Poorhouse for twelve months, but intimated, that on the expiration of that time, we should consider the propriety of enforcing the legal obligation of the Parishes to erect a Poorhouse, unless we were previously assured that those Parishes were taking steps to carry their resolution into effect. A renewal of the privilege of using the Rhins of Galloway Poorhouse having been requested during the past year, we intimated that we could not, consistently with our duty, renew the permission, and referred to the terms on which we had last consented to sanction that arrangement. We had frequently reminded the Parochial Boards of the statutory obligation which they had undertaken, to erect a permanent Poorhouse for the Combination, and repeatedly urged them to fulfil it. We had also intimated that we thought the area of the Combination might be extended with advantage, so as to include other contiguous Parishes which desired to join the Combination, and we suggested the propriety of reconsidering their resolution declining to admit any other Parishes. Having in view the questions which had arisen as to the best mode of providing Poorhouse accommodation for that district of Ayrshire, we instructed our Visiting Officer to meet the Parochial Boards of Maybole, Kirkmichael, and Kirkoswald, for the purpose of furnishing full information on the subject, with the hope of inducing them to agree to a Combination which might embrace all the Parishes in the district of Carrick. The result, however, has been the adherence of those three Parishes to their original resolution and agreement of 1848. We have therefore called upon them to fulfil, without further delay, the obligation then undertaken, to erect a Poorhouse in terms of the Statute. We regret the course taken by the three Parishes in question, because we have no doubt that it will be less advantageous to themselves and to their Poor, while it also causes embarrassment to the other Parishes of the district. Poor-houses.

Some years since, the Parochial Board of Elgin resolved to erect a Poorhouse for that Parish, and obtained our approval of that resolution. Subsequently, we sanctioned the site proposed for the building. The Parochial Board having thus become legally bound to erect a Poorhouse, and no steps having been taken to fulfil this obligation, we called upon them, in the course of the past year, to state any grounds which might appear to them to justify the further postponement of the erection of a Poorhouse in accordance with their statutory obligation. Among other grounds stated by the Parochial Board for deferring the erection of a Poorhouse, they urged the uncertainty that existed regarding the nature of the anticipated legislation, and the amount of accommodation for Lunatics in Scotland, which left it doubtful whether or not the buildings already erected in the vicinity of Elgin for that class of cases would be found sufficient; and that, in the event of new buildings being demanded for the accommodation of Lunatics, the buildings at Elgin referred to, would, with very little alteration, meet all the requirements of a Poorhouse for the Parish. Influenced by these considerations, we consented to suspend proceedings till the close of the Session of Parliament. We are glad to be able to state that the Parochial Board of Elgin are now in communication with the Parochial Boards of the contiguous Parishes, with a view to form a Combination for the erection of a common Poorhouse which would include all the Parishes in the county.

We have felt it to be our duty to intimate to the Parochial Board of Lanark that we cannot consider an offer of admission to the Lanark Poorhouse, as now conducted and managed, as an offer of adequate relief. We had previously pointed out to the Parochial Board defects in the building and in the management of the House, and required the plans of any alterations to be submitted to us for our approval. It appeared that the Poorhouse had been enlarged without our knowledge, and without obtaining our approval of the plans as required by the Statute. We requested the Parochial Board to transmit to us complete plans of the whole Poorhouse premises for approval and signature, if the enlargement met our approval. Although we were informed by the Inspector that plans were ordered to be prepared, and would be sent in, the Parochial Board failed to do so; and the Visiting Officer of the Board, in a Report on the management of the Poorhouse, having pointed out many grave defects in its management, we felt it to be our duty to withdraw our recognition of the Establishment as a Poorhouse under the Statute.

At the request of the Parochial Board, we sanctioned, experimentally, a special dietary for the new Poorhouse at Inverness, prepared with reference, in some measure, to the Diet Tables of the neighbouring Poorhouses of Easter Ross and Black Isle Combinations; and we required the Medical Officer, at the expiration of six months, or sooner if he should see cause, to report, after experience of its operation, as to the adequacy or inadequacy of the scale of diet. We are glad to say that the experiment has been successful. The Medical Officers reported that the inmates enjoy good health, that they are well satisfied with the dietary, and that they see no reason for altering it in any respect.

The Rules and Regulations for the Management of Poorhouses, prepared and sanctioned by this Board, had provided for the religious instruction of the inmates in the Poorhouse, but had made no special provision authorizing the House Committee or the House Governor to give permission to inmates to be absent from the House for the purpose of attending Divine service in the churches or chapels of their respective denominations, or for other purposes. The practice in this respect had become very various and irregular in the different Poorhouses, and various opinions on the subject had arisen in many of the Parochial Boards and House Committees. Applications were therefore made to us from many quarters for instructions, and on the 14th August 1862 we adopted a Minute stating our views for the guidance of the Parochial Boards and House Committees.

App. (A.) No. 3.

Medical Relief. App. (B.) No. 8.

We have completed the arrangements for the distribution of the 13th Parliamentary Grant of L.10,000 in aid of Medical Relief to the Poor in Scotland. The number of Parishes which have resolved to comply with the conditions annexed to participation in the Grant is 679; but of these only 12 have failed to establish their claims by producing vouchers for the required amount of expenditure from their own funds, and otherwise satisfying us that the conditions of the Grant had been fulfilled. Last year 659 Parishes established their claims: this year 667. The increase in the number actually participating this year is therefore eight. The detailed account of the distribution, showing the amount expended on Medical Relief afforded to the Poor in each Parish, for which vouchers have been produced; the sum apportioned to it from the Grant; and the additional sum, proportionate to the excess of its vouched expenditure, beyond the minimum, assigned out of the unappropriated shares to each participating Parish, will be found in the Appendix.

Medical Relief.

The whole sum expended on Medical Relief to the Poor during the year ended 14th May 1862, according to the Annual Returns of the Inspectors, was L.29,512, 3s. 9d., which is equal to 2·31 pence per head of the population of Scotland in 1861. The population of the 679 Parishes and Combinations that have resolved to comply with the conditions annexed to participation in the Grant is 2,719,948, and of the 205 Parishes that have not so resolved, 342,346. The sum expended by the former, according to the Returns, was L.27,873, 10s., equal to about 2·46 pence per head of the population; and that by the latter was L.1638, 13s. 11d., equal to about 1·14 pence per head of the population of those Parishes.

Complaints of Inadequate Relief. App. (B.) Nos. 2 & 3.

The number of applications complaining of Inadequate Relief that have been before us during the year ended 30th June 1862, has been 558. In the immediately preceding year the number was 487.

The subjoined Table exhibits the number of such applications in each year since this Board was formed, and the manner in which they have been disposed of:—

| YEAR. | No. of Applications. | Dismissed on information contained in Schedule. | Dismissed after being remitted. | Refused, not in receipt of Parochial Relief. | Refused as informal or incompetent. | Withdrawn or stopped by death. | Ground of Complaint removed. | Minute issued declaring that applicant had just cause of action. | Number still undisposed of. |

Cost of Relief and Management. App. (B.) Nos. 4 & 5.

The sum expended for the Relief and Management of the Poor during the year ended 14th May 1862 (including L.4,232, 17s. 10d. expended on buildings not being authorized Poor-houses, and L.34,384, 12s. 11d. expended on authorized Poor-house Buildings), has been L.765,135, 8s. In the preceding year, the expenditure for the same purposes was L.683,901, 17s. 0¾d. There has therefore been an increase in the expenditure of L.81,233, 10s. 11¼d.

Cost of Relief and Management.

| Period. | EXPENDITURE. | | |

Cost of Relief and Management.

The preceding Table presents a comparative statement of the sums expended for the Relief and Management of the Poor for the last ten years, arranged under the different heads of expenditure, together with the rate per head of the population, calculated for the first eight years on the census of 1851, and for the last two years on the census of 1861. The rate per cent. on the annual value of real property, as returned in 1843, is also stated.

It appears from this Table that the expenditure for the past year, as compared with that of the preceding year, shows an increase under all the different heads; and this increase is found to be so equally distributed over the counties, with few exceptions, that it must be attributed to causes the operation of which is general rather than local. It does not arise, so far as the expenditure on relief is concerned, from a corresponding increase in the number of persons requiring relief, although there has been some little augmentation of those numbers, but rather from an increased average rate of expenditure on each Pauper. Thus, while the increase in the number of Registered Poor receiving relief on the 14th May 1862, as compared with the number on 14th May 1861, was only 291, the expenditure on the relief of this class in 1862 exceeded that of the preceding year by L.49,922, which gives an increase in the average allowance to each Pauper on the Roll or Registered of 8s. 3¼d. The increase in the average number of Casual Poor chargeable at one time, as deduced from the numbers chargeable on 1st January and 1st July, was 264; but the increase in the amount of relief to that class was L.6,519, 10s.; there must, therefore, have been an increase in the average scale of the relief received by this class of Paupers also. Of the whole increase in the expenditure, amounting to L.81,233, 10s., no less than L.56,441, 15s. is on account of relief to Registered and Casual Poor; and of the remaining L.24,791, 15s., a sum of L.12,669, 10s. represents the increased expenditure on Poorhouse Buildings, leaving L.12,122, 5s., of which L.8,267, 14s. is on account of Management.

This increase in the Cost of Management appears, from the information we have obtained, to have arisen from a variety of causes. In many cases it appears to have arisen from augmentation of the salaries of officers consequent on the increase in the work to be performed, resulting from the increase of population, as shown by the census of 1861, and also from the enhanced scale of remuneration demanded for services of all descriptions in this country. In a few cases, the charge under the head of Management has this year included items which had hitherto been improperly charged under other heads, and in several Parishes expenses incurred with reference to measures lately before Parliament, have contributed to swell the amount. In those Parishes in which Poorhouses have been opened in the course of the year, the charges for the salaries of the officers required in those establishments have been added to the previous Cost of Management. On the whole we cannot say that the increase in the charge under this head appears to us to be objectionable, although the extent to which it has been carried in one year, amounting on the average to above L.9 for each of the 884 Parishes in Scotland, could not fail to arrest our attention. There can be no doubt that in many Rural Parishes the scale of remuneration was too low to secure the services of efficient officers.

Although it has been thought desirable, for the purpose of comparison with former years, to show in the preceding Table the rate per cent. on the annual value of real property as returned in 1843, it is right to state, that, according to the annual value returned in 1856, the rate per cent. for the last seven years would be as follows:—

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| Year ended 14th May | 1856, | L.5 7 6¾ |
| ,, ,, | 1857, | 5 8 9 |
| ,, ,, | 1858, | 5 9 6¼ |
| ,, ,, | 1859, | 5 12 4¼ |
| ,, ,, | 1860, | 5 13 4¼ |
| ,, ,, | 1861, | 5 16 10¾ |
| ,, ,, | 1862, | 6 10 9¼ |

The rate per cent. on the annual value of real property, as estimated for 1859, would be L.5, 18s. 8¾d., or 11s. 2d. per cent. greater than in 1856, when similar returns were available.

The total sum expended under the heads of Relief to the Poor on the Roll, or Registered, and to the Casual Poor, for the last ten years, was—

The following is a Statement of the Number of Poor relieved in Scotland for the last ten years:—

Number of Poor.

The number of Lunatic Poor relieved in the course of the year was, as stated above, 6257. Of these, 1053 died, or were cured, or ceased to receive relief; thus the number at the 14th May was 5204, being an increase as compared with the number at the same date last year (5176) of 28. Of these, 3560 were in Asylums and Poorhouses, and 1645 were residing with relatives or other parties in private dwellings.

The subjoined Table shows the number of Dependents of the Poor as returned to us for the past eight years :—

Of the Casual Poor and Dependents stated above, 12,038, with 11,541 Dependents, are returned as being also enumerated as Registered Poor. The whole number of Unregistered or Casual Poor at the 14th May 1862, was 3730, with 3661 Dependents. The number of Adult Casual Poor relieved on the 1st January 1862, was 3868, and their children, together with orphans or deserted children, 4176. The number of the former relieved on 1st July 1862 was 3018, and of their children, and orphans or deserted children, 2940, or stated thus: Number of Poor.

The total number of Persons of all classes and ages receiving relief as Casual Poor on 1st January 1862, was 8044; on 14th May 1862, 7391; and on 1st July 1862, 5958; the average of the three periods being 7131.

The whole sum derived from Church Collections in Assessed Parishes during the year ending May 1862, was L.17,888, 9s. 7d., of which L.9,303, 19s. 8d. is stated to have been expended on Relief of the Poor. From this sum, however, must be deducted L.210, 6s. 2d., handed over to the Parochial Boards. It would appear, therefore, that the sum of L.9,093, 13s. 6d., derived from Church Collections, was actually applied by the Kirk Sessions to the relief of persons in their respective Parishes who required assistance. But these funds are generally employed to afford aid to persons who have fallen into temporary difficulties, with a view to prevent them from becoming chargeable to the Parish as Paupers; and it is probable that few of the persons so assisted have also been chargeable to the funds raised by assessment. Church Collections. App. (B.) No. 7.

Returns of legal proceedings under the Statute, in the Sheriff Courts, have again been furnished to us by the courtesy of the Sheriffs-Substitute, and an abstract of them is inserted in the Appendix. Applications to Sheriffs. App. (B.) No. 1.

The total number of applications to Sheriffs, on the ground that relief had been improperly refused, as returned by the Sheriffs-Substitute, was, during the past year, 587; while, in the returns for the preceding year, the number of such applications was 510. These numbers, however, fall short of the actual number of applications, as in several Sheriff Courts no complete record is kept of them. The number of such applications in which Sheriffs felt called upon to grant interim orders of relief during the past year was 430. In the preceding year it was 356. The number of applicants admitted to the Roll of Paupers by final order of the Sheriffs during the past year was 64; in the preceding year it was 54. The average annual number of such interim orders during the 10 preceding years was 347; and of such final orders, 71.

The number of prosecutions under the 79th and 80th sections of the Statute during the past year has been 118, and of convictions 79. In the previous year the number of such prosecutions was 107, and of convictions 70. The average annual number of such prosecutions during the 10 preceding years was 130, and of convictions 88.

Removal of Nuisances Act.

In pursuance of the powers conferred upon us by the 5th Section of the Nuisances Removal (Scotland) Act, 1856, we have, during the past year, examined applications from two Parishes to determine the Local Authority to execute the Act within these Parishes respectively, and in each case we nominated the body which appeared to us to be most suitable.

We have the honour to be,

APPENDIX (A.)

DOCUMENTS ISSUED AND RECEIVED BY THE BOARD OF SUPERVISION.

No. 1. MINUTE of the BOARD of SUPERVISION respecting PAROCHIAL LODGING-HOUSES, dated 19th December 1861.

THE Board took into consideration the Reports of the Visiting Officer on the Parochial Lodging-houses for Paupers in the Parish of Denny, and several other Parishes, also Reports from the General Superintendents on similar houses, and the Returns and Plans relating to those establishments which were sent to the Board in consequence of their Circular Letter of the 4th March 1861.

The Board see with regret that so large a proportion of the Parochial Lodging-houses for Paupers, which Parochial Boards have erected on their own responsibility, and in numerous instances have attempted to employ, for the purposes of statutory Poorhouses—even to the extent of using them as a test—are, in many essential particulars, extremely defective. Some are over-crowded,—some are insufficiently furnished with bedding, bed-clothes, and other articles,—in some the diet provided for the lodgers is insufficient or otherwise objectionable,—all are conducted without sufficient regard to the proper classification of the lodgers ; and some have, in consequence, degenerated into dens of iniquity which it was necessary to abolish and clear out.

After careful deliberation, the Board have therefore come to the conclusion that, however unobjectionable or even praiseworthy may have been the motives which originally led to the formation of such Parochial establishments by the local Boards, experience has now proved that there is no such security for their proper management as would justify the Board in assuming that an offer of admission to any such Lodging-house is necessarily an offer of adequate relief, as a similar offer of admission to a Poorhouse, erected and conducted in terms of the statute, may in all but a few exceptional cases be assumed to be ; and henceforward, the Board will not be disposed to hold an offer of admission to or of continued residence in a Parochial Lodging-house for Paupers to be an offer of adequate relief, or a sufficient answer to a complaint of inadequate relief.

In cases, however, where Parochial Boards have merely erected dwellings for Paupers, who there receive out-door allowances, or where Parochial Lodging-houses, of the class above referred to, are converted into habitations or Lodgings for Paupers receiving out-door allowances, the Board, in dealing with complaints of inadequate relief, will be prepared to take into account the value of the accommodation thus provided by the Parochial Board if the site be salubrious, the building in habitable condition, and the amount of accommodation suitable to the wants of the Pauper and his family, should he have a family. But it must be understood that the Paupers lodging in such houses cannot legally be subjected to any restraint regarding ingress and egress to which they might not properly be subjected in any lodging hired for their accommodation.

A Copy of this Minute to be sent to each Parish.

No. 2. Minute of the Board of Supervision respecting the Education of Pauper Children of Roman Catholic Parents, dated 13th February 1862.

Complaints have been made to the Board that Pauper Children whose Parents were Roman Catholics have been placed by the Parochial Board in Protestant Institutions, to which Roman Catholic clergymen are denied access, and have thus been brought up as Protestants. The Board, therefore, desire to remind Parochial Boards that they are bound to take care that the education given by them as a part of the relief which they are required to afford to Pauper Children, shall not be so conducted as to counteract the religious instruction which the Parents or surviving Parent may intimate a desire to give to any such Child. In the case of Children who have no surviving Parent, the intention of the Parents in this respect must be inferred to have been to bring up the Children in the religious tenets which they themselves professed.

In order to acquit themselves of these obligations, Parochial Boards ought to place the younger Children of Roman Catholic Parents whom it is desired to board out in families of the Roman Catholic persuasion, when suitable families of that persuasion can be found in the Parish, or within such distance beyond it as the Parochial Board may consider it expedient to send Pauper Children. If no such families can be found, and the Parish has Poorhouse accommodation, then such Roman Catholic Children ought to be placed in the Poorhouse where the Roman Catholic clergymen has access to them, in terms of the Rules and Regulations. But if there be no suitable Roman Catholic family in which the Child can be boarded, and the Parish be not possessed of Poorhouse accommodation, then special care ought to be taken that wherever the Child may be placed, the known clergymen of the religious persuasion of its Parents shall have free access to it, at reasonable hours, for the purpose of imparting religious instruction, and the place of residence of every such Child ought to be intimated to the nearest resident clergyman of the religious persuasion of its Parents.

When there is a properly conducted Roman Catholic School in the Parish, the Child of Roman Catholic Parents who is boarded out ought to be sent to that School, if it be within a reasonable distance of the residence of the Roman Catholic family in which the Child is boarded; or if no suitable Roman Catholic family can be found willing to receive it, and there be no Poorhouse accommodation belonging to the Parish, then the Child, which must, in that case, of necessity be boarded in a Protestant family, ought, if possible, to be placed with one which resides within such a moderate distance of a properly conducted Roman Catholic School as will admit of the Child's regularly attending that School, and the Child should be required to attend it accordingly.

No. 3. Minute of the Board of Supervision as to Permission to Inmates of Poorhouses to leave the House for the purpose of attending Divine Worship, or for any other Purpose, dated 14th August 1862.

The Board have considered the Visiting Officer's Reports, and various communications from Parochial Boards' Committees, Inspectors, and others, relating to the questions whether Parochial Boards are required or empowered, or whether they ought to allow the inmates of a Poorhouse to attend Divine Worship in the neighbouring churches or chapels of their respective religious denominations; and whether the local authorities ought to give the inmates leave of absence from the Poorhouse, or what are called "liberty days," at stated intervals.

The Statute, 3 and 9 Vict., c. 83, appears to the Board to contemplate that the Religious Instruction of the inmates of a Poorhouse shall be conducted in the Poorhouse; and in the 64th section has made provision for that purpose, but has nowhere provided for any other mode of giving such instruction. The Rules and Regulations for the management of Poorhouses, framed and sanctioned by this Board, and adopted by local Boards, are founded upon the provisions of the Statute, and regulate the manner in which effect is to be given to them. Whatever, therefore, may be the supplemental arrangements proposed or adopted, the Board cannot sanction any departure from the requirements of the Statute, or of the Rules now in force with reference to Religious Instruction in a Poorhouse. These must in all cases be fully and systematically observed, and this Board could not approve of a Rule which, contemplating a totally different provision for the Religious Instruction of the inmates, should give them liberty to leave the Poorhouse every Sunday for the real or alleged purpose of attending Divine Worship. Such a Rule would give to every inmate a right to be absent from the Poorhouse every Sunday, and would in many cases, if not in all, be subversive of discipline and proper management.

But the Board are of opinion that it is competent to a House Committee to give, or (which would be preferable) to authorise the House Governor to give, if they or he shall see fit, permission to any inmate to attend Divine Worship on any Sabbath, either in the forenoon or the afternoon, at any church or chapel of the religious denomination of such inmate that may be in the vicinity of the Poorhouse. Provided that such permission shall not be given unless after due consideration of the character and conduct of such inmate, and with careful regard to the proper management and discipline of the Poorhouse; and provided also that such permission shall be withheld from any inmate who shall have abused the indulgence, either by failing to attend Divine Worship, when leave of absence has been given for that purpose, or by failing on such an occasion to return to the Poorhouse at the proper time, or in any other manner.

The Board could not approve of a Rule which would secure to all the inmates of a Poorhouse, or to any class or section of them, leave of absence from the Poorhouse, on certain specified days recurring periodically, or what are called "liberty days." But they are of opinion that the House Committee may authorise the House Governor to give, if he shall see fit, to any inmate, who shall state reasonable grounds for the request, permission to be absent from the Poorhouse for a limited number of hours during any day; subject, however, to conditions and provisions similar to those above stated with reference to leave of absence for the purpose of attending Divine Worship, and provided, moreover, that leave of absence for any other purpose shall not be given to any inmate more than once in 30 days, or such other number of days as the House Committee shall determine, nor during the night, unless in special circumstances, and for reasons ascertained to be urgent.

A House Governor to whom the House Committee shall have given authority to grant leave of absence from the Poorhouse in the manner, and subject to the conditions and provisions above stated, will be held responsible for the proper exercise of that authority, and must avoid either so free an exercise of it, as would be injurious to discipline, or a capricious exercise of it, which would be unjust to the inmates.

No. 4. Report by the Visiting Officer regarding Pauper Children Boarded in the Island of Arran by Glasgow and other Parishes.

Attention having been called to the number of Pauper Children boarded, by Glasgow and other Parishes, in the Island of Arran, and having visited the Island, in accordance with my instructions, and inquired into the subject, I have now respectfully to submit the result of my investigation.

I proceeded to Arran on Tuesday, 8th April, and having previously obtained lists of the Pauper Children boarded there, and not belonging to either of the Parishes of that Island, I at once commenced a house to house visitation. I completed my inquiries and left the Island on Monday, 14th April. The Parishes sending Pauper Children to board in Arran are Glasgow, Barony, Govan, Greenock, Kilmarnock, Ardrossan, and Newton-on-Ayr; and there are altogether about 130 such Pauper Children. The salubrious climate of Arran having given it a high reputation as a residence, and many Pauper Children being unfortunately constitutionally diseased or delicate in health, Glasgow and the other Parishes have been induced to send some of them to reside there, with the view of restoring them to health, or of strengthening them so as to be fit for service or employment as soon as possible after they may cease to be chargeable as Paupers. The practice has prevailed for some years, but latterly it would appear to have been carried to such an extent as to attract the notice of those interested in the social condition of Arran. Throughout the Island there are a number of crofters, or small farmers, paying from L.5 to L.25 rent, and upwards, having one or more horses, cows, sheep, &c. The houses on these small farms are on the whole good of their kind, and their sleeping accommodation is generally sufficient to enable the tenants to take two or three children as boarders without inconvenience. There are good roads throughout the Island, and it is, besides, well supplied with schools. In the houses of these crofters, or small farmers, there is usually a "roughness," as it is called—that is, a plentiful supply of oatmeal, barleymeal, milk, butter, potatoes, poultry, and other wholesome provisions—the addition of two or three children makes no very material or perceptible difference in the family consumption of food—and their board, paid regularly in cash, is of considerable importance to the crofter in helping him to pay his rent. The children, able for school, are away during the forepart of the day—in the afterpart of the day they return to their respective residences, and are employed about the farm work, or amuse themselves, or prepare their tasks for next day's school. They take their food with the families with whom they are boarded, and their beds are of the same description as those occupied by the families: indeed, very frequently, the Pauper Children sleep with some member of the family where they are; more especially is this the case when the children are very young. In many of the houses there are young children in the family, but in a considerable number there are none, the members having grown up and left the Island or settled elsewhere. In others the family consists of the crofter and his wife—or of a brother and sister. Whatever the family may consist of, or in whatever circumstances they may be, the Pauper Children appear to take a place in their affections. The natural dispositions of the people are kindly and hospitable; but, independently of this guarantee that the children will not be ill treated, the value of the board paid in cash by the Parishes being of considerable importance, and the visits of the Inspectors being frequent—every reasonable security appears to me to be given why the children should be well and properly attended to.

With the exception of one family in the south end of the Island, which I missed; of two in the north, where I did not go; and one on the east side, which I did not visit (but of which I heard a most favourable report), I visited every house in which there were Pauper Children, and saw the children, either in their houses or at their schools. I also examined the state of their clothing, their sleeping accommodation, and made such other inquiries as appeared to me to be called for. Except in one or two instances, no better or more natural arrangement could in my opinion be made for the lodging, clothing, and the subsistence of the children. A case may now and then no doubt happen, in which the clothing of one child may not be so good as that of others; but the last family visited is a fair specimen of the rest, not only in regard to this matter, but in every other respect. In the house I refer to there were a crofter and his wife, their adult son and daughter, and four Pauper Children—two, aged 11 and 7, being brothers, and the other two, aged 11 and 8, being also brothers. The house consisted of the byre, the kitchen, with two beds, and the inner room, with two beds. The rent of the croft was L.5 ; there were a horse, three cows, poultry, &c. There was ample show of provisions in the house of all kinds—sacks of meal, oatmeal bread, peasemeal bread, eggs, butter, potatoes, and hams hanging in the kitchen. The beds and general furniture good and substantial of their kind. In short, there was all the appearance of a substantial and well-stored house. The children came in from school during my visit. They came in as they might to their own house; they were received pleasantly by the crofter and his wife, speaking to the latter and styling her "granny." I could detect no expression of a dislike to, or fear of, those with whom they lived. One of them was less robust-looking than the others, but they were all healthy-looking children, and, with the exception of one of the younger ones, were well and comfortably clothed. All had received their clothes about the same time, but the one whose dress was not so good as the others, was said to be a more "stirring" boy, and his clothes were patched and mended, while the others did not require to have theirs mended. These patchings and mendings were done by the crofter's wife.

In every house I visited I perceived, of course, many varieties in the cases. In some, the children were robust and healthy-looking ; in others, more delicate. Some bore about them painful evidence of diseased constitutions ; but, whatever their state of health might be, all appeared to be treated as members of the families with whom they were boarded. The pale face and inert expression sometimes observable in Poorhouse bred children, were exchanged for a healthy complexion and an intelligent expression. The squalid and ragged appearance of poor children to be met with in the wynds and closes of large towns was nowhere visible. Impressed favourably as I have been with the general treatment and condition of the Pauper Children boarded in Arran, I have not been so impressed, by the few cases, where the children were in an unnaturally clean and tidy state. Here and there I perceived, as I proceeded from farm to farm in one district, evidence that information of my visit had preceded me. In one or two cases the pinafores were too clean for the time of day, and, in a few cases, the sheets were too pure. In nearly every case, I am satisfied, I found matters in their natural everyday state. The children appeared to me to be happy in their present residences, and they contrasted favourably with other children in school. They seemed attached to those charged with their care, expressed a liking for the place or farm where they were, and dreaded the possibility of returning to their own Parishes, or to the Poorhouses—facts which I think tell much in favour of their present treatment. Two or three children expressed a wish to visit their friends. One boy, much disfigured with disease, but active and quite alive in his class at school, where I saw him, as well as at his residence, expressed a wish to be allowed to go to Glasgow to see his aunt, who resides in the High Street there ; another, a girl, expressed a desire to be permitted to visit her mother, an inmate of one of the Poorhouses ; and only one, a girl about four or five years of age, expressed herself as wishing to leave the house where she was, a change which I propose to take an opportunity of suggesting to the Inspector of the Parish to which she is chargeable, should be made. This, and another, where there are six children, are the only cases where I saw any reason to suggest an alteration of the present arrangements. A detail of all the cases would be very much a repetition of the same thing, with shades of difference—that difference being in their ages and their physical condition. In other respects all are very much upon an equality, except, perhaps, that some are boarded with crofters paying higher rents, others low rents, and a few boarded with cottars; but these last appeared to be as well cared for as those who were with crofters. There is not, of course, the same "roughness" in the cottar's house that is to be met with in the crofter's. In one case nothing could excel the tidy and proper appearance of the woman of the house—the order and cleanliness of her house, and the trim and orderly condition of the children under her care; in another, less attention to order and cleanliness was observable—each house varying in appearance with the natural inclination of the housekeeper for cleanliness, and her taste for order. On the whole, it appears to me, that the Inspectors and Assistant Inspectors deserve credit for the selection of persons with whom they have placed the children, and I have reason to believe that all, both Inspectors and nurses, are fully alive to the necessity of watchfulness and care in regard to the treatment of the children, and that they shall not be neglected in respect of their material comfort and condition. It further appears to me that it is very improbable that any harsh treatment of any child should occur without being well known to the whole district. There is, besides, rather a competition among the crofters to have as boarders children whose board is paid so punctually, and who are otherwise well provided for by their Parishes; and as it is well known that the children are at once removed if they are not well and properly cared for, a further check is thus placed upon the people receiving them.

The scale of allowance is, in a very few cases, 2s.—the prevailing allowance is, however, commonly 10s. and 12s. a month for each child, with clothing, and school fees when fit for school. An arrangement is made with the medical gentleman on the Island to give a general superintendence of the children, only by one of the parishes sending paupers there. In other cases, it is understood that the medical gentleman shall be called in to attend any of the children when necessary; it is thus left to the discretion of the nurses to say when it is necessary to send for medical aid—a discretion which they may not exercise, or not see occasion to exercise, particularly when they have from 8 to 16 miles to send for him. The expediency of this arrangement seems somewhat doubtful.

The district in which these children are chiefly placed is along the south and south-west coast of the Island—the farms being scattered on the cultivated ground, close to, or not far from the sea shore, and from that towards the inland glens. In selecting houses for the children, proximity to a school is kept in view, and this is no doubt of very considerable importance, but to place too many in one locality, on account of the school there, though certainly more convenient in many respects, particularly for Inspectors visiting, is not unattended with evil—for, when many such are together, the district schoolroom becomes over-crowded, as appeared to me to be the case at Auchinhue. The schoolmasters have an evident interest in having these children at their schools—for their school fees are punctually paid—which, possibly, is not always the case, in regard to other children's fees.

To find the younger children, and those not at school—or others, after school hours, enjoying themselves on the sea beach, playing about the family hearth, running messages for the family to the nearest shop, which may be a mile or two off, or looking after the cows, or sheep, or poultry, helping to plant the potatoes, or engaged in any of the many rural avocations of crofters' children—amidst beautiful scenery, and in a healthy climate, with good lodging, wholesome food, and decent and sufficient clothing—is so great a contrast to the life of such children in the lanes and bye-streets of the great towns, or even in well regulated Poorhouses, where restraint must be enforced, and strict discipline maintained—that, personally, I should regret if it should be found necessary, on grounds of public expediency, to interdict, or materially to interfere with the present arrangements. It is impossible to overlook, however, the questions which may arise from the importation of these Pauper Children into Arran—questions which the Parochial Boards of Kilbride and Kilmory, and those interested in the social prosperity of the Island, may possibly raise at no distant date, should the practice continue, or the number of children be increased. These questions are,—1st, The effect of the forced introduction of unhealthy elements in the population, and the possible consequent propagation, by intermarriage with natives of the Island, of constitutional or hereditary diseases, in the event of these children attaining suitable ages, becoming attached to the Island and people, and obtaining employment in it (as several have already done)—and thus becoming component parts of the population? 2d, The effect of such importation of Pauper Children, healthy or unhealthy, on the future liability of the Parishes of Kilmory and Kilbride, in the event of these children subsequently acquiring a residential settlement, and at some future time again becoming burthens on the public? I must leave to others the consideration of these questions, involving, as they do, future social and economic possibilities and contingencies, which may or may not flow from the present arrangements. In the meantime, it appears to me unquestionable, that a present benefit is conferred on these poor children, and that the crofters and small farmers in Arran are not only benefited by the cash payments on their account, and enabled to pay their rents more easily than they could do without them, but have also a present and prospective supply of servants and labourers, whose wages are at the lowest. It humbly appears to me, however, that an increase of the present number (even if that be not already too great), would not be expedient or judicious—that infants, or very young and feeble children, ought not to be boarded with private families in Arran—that those at present in the Island ought to be placed specially under the care of a medical man, more particularly when suffering from any disease, and that more than four children ought not to be boarded in the same house or family. I am aware that it may be replied that the benefit conferred on infants suffering from hereditary disease, or constitutional weakness, is so great when nursed in a healthy climate like Arran, as compared with a city, that no limit as to age ought to be imposed; but, on the other hand, it appears to me that infants are more likely to receive judicious care and treatment in a Poorhouse, under the eye of the Medical Officer of the establishment, and the other responsible officers, than if left to the care of well-intentioned but ignorant persons, and who are far removed from medical advice. In the case of the child referred to in the anonymous communication made to the Board, it appears that it was that of an infant; that it was constitutionally unhealthy—that the nurse, under whose care it was, consulted a midwife on the illness assuming a serious aspect; that she also consulted the schoolmaster and the minister of the district—that the doctor's residence being some fifteen miles or so distant, he was not sent for, and that the child died. It is by no means apparent that the child died in consequence of the treatment; but, however well-intended and kindly meant that treatment was, and however proper it may have been under the circumstances, it was not guaranteed by professional advice. That Pauper Children having hereditary disease, or some constitutional complaint, ought to be under the special and constant care of a medical officer, appears to me to be very desirable; and I should doubt whether the healthfulness of a district alone was sufficient to counterbalance the security which we have for proper care and treatment of delicate or very young children when in a Poorhouse, visited daily by a medical man.

Consequent upon the system of sending Pauper Children beyond the bounds of the parishes to which they belong, another question arises affecting the extent of the responsibility of the Inspectors of the parishes in which they are boarded, for their proper care and treatment. Where land carriage is certain, and the number of such cases few, there may not be much difficulty in adjusting the responsibility; but when the paupers are transported, as it were, to an island, and are numerous, the question becomes more difficult. The Circular of the Board of 1st October 1855, lays it down that an Inspector is responsible for the relief and proper treatment of every pauper residing within the limits of his charge, although the pauper may not have a settlement therein, unless it can be shown he is residing there without the knowledge of the Inspector; and it is farther laid down that an Inspector cannot, by any arrangement with the parishes of settlement, or otherwise, divest himself of that responsibility, so long as the pauper resides there. Practically, and in the ordinary administration of the law, the principles laid down in that circular are, I believe, generally understood and acted upon. In this case, the Inspectors of Kilbride and of Kilmory have some knowledge of the paupers living in their parishes, but belonging to other parishes; but they do not appear to have come by that knowledge in the natural and ordinary administration of relief—they have not therefore an official knowledge of them. Again, the medical officer of a participating parish is bound, in consideration of his salary, to attend all paupers, whether belonging to the parish or not, and neither he nor the parish is entitled to recover from another participating parish the cost of medical attendance. In this case, both Kilmory and Kilbride are participating parishes; so also are Glasgow, Barony, Govan, and the other parishes boarding paupers in Arran. But is it just towards the Inspectors of Kilbride and Kilmory, or to the Medical Officer of these parishes, to impose upon them serious legal duties and responsibilities in regard to paupers systematically sent within the limits of their charge, and to which they do not belong, without some other consideration than their salaries? I confess that it does not appear to me to be so. The system carried to the extent to which it is cannot be looked upon otherwise than as a departure from the natural operation of the law; if, therefore, the system as at present practised is to be recognised as a legitimate method of administering relief in such cases, it appears to me that some relaxation of the rules affecting the responsibilities of Inspectors, and duties of Medical Officers, on account of other parish paupers, becomes a matter of expediency, if not necessity, in the case of the Parishes of the Island of Arran.

The system of boarding Pauper Children in rural and remote districts—out of, and at a distance from, their own parishes, is by no means uncommon, and is, I believe, gradually being extended. That it is beneficial to the children, cannot, I think, be doubted; nor can it be questioned that it must ultimately be of benefit to the parishes to which they are now chargeable—for, in course of time, as these children grow up, they will become absorbed in the general working population of the places where they are sent to reside, and will imperceptibly disappear from the books of their original parish, acquiring new settlements for themselves elsewhere. Whether the system has gained ground to an extent requiring to be regulated under authority, I am unable to say; but I have considered it to be my duty to call attention to it, as it has presented itself to my mind, in the course of the present inquiry, as affecting the Island of Arran.

E. Clackmannan.

Col XIII. Decree for about one half of the sum concluded for.

F. Dumfries.

Col. V. These were dismissed after answers; in others the applicants failed to proceed.

N.B.—Almost all the applications are against the parish of Dumfries, and though there are many more verbal applications than appear in the Sheriff-Court Books, these are disposed of by simply making the applicant produce a certificate of refusal, the refusal being generally an offer of admission to the Poorhouse, which is an offer of relief.

G. Edinburgh.

Col. I. In addition to these, there are numerous applications to the Sheriffs so clearly incompetent under the Statute, that they are at once refused.

Col. II. Contains the number of applications in which orders upon Inspectors to afford interim relief have been pronounced.

H. Elgin or Moray.

Col. XIII. In which case decree passed against defender.

R. Lanark (Lanark Dist.)

Col. V. Applicant failed to proceed with the action, having, it is understood, been admitted by the parish to the roll of paupers.

S. Lanark (Airdrie Dist.)

Col. I. No record kept.

T. Linlithgow.

Col. XIII. Settled extrajudicially.

U. Nairn.

Cols. I. II. and III. This case was amicably arranged.

V. Perth.

Col. I. These were written applications.
Col. XIII. Decided in favour of Inspector.

Note.—Besides written applications under Col. I., there were numerous verbal applications from paupers in Perth and neighbourhood to the extent of at least 50 in the year. There have also been several warrants, under Col. XI., issued against parties neglecting to support families. But as these are to have a declaration taken, and warrant to commit for further examination, they are generally arranged without any complaint being presented for punishment.

W. Renfrew (Paisley Dist.)

Col. I. No record kept, except of those cases in which orders are made.
Col. XIII. and XIV. These actions are generally raised in the Small Debt Court, the Record Book of which does not contain any particulars regarding these queries.

Z. Stirling (Stirling Dist.)

Col. VI. None of these cases are before the Sheriff-Substitute. In two of them the Inspector did not lodge answers, but the applicants did not ask for final decree, arising, it is believed, from their having been put on the roll of paupers. Although the other six are not disposed of, and there has not lately been any active proceedings in them, it is also believed that this arises from relief being still offered to the paupers.

Col. XIII. Decided against Inspector.

A a. Stirling (Falkirk Dist.)

Col. XIII. Decided in favour of Inspector.
